THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: Students can change gender daily, saying otherwise is 'violence'

<https://www.lifesitenews.com/news/harvard-students-can-change-gender-daily-saying-otherwise-is-violence>

Cambridge, Massachusetts, April 24, 2017 (LifeSiteNews) -- One of the world's premier academic institutions has published a student guide that states one's gender can 'change from day to day' and merely saying that's not true 'is a form of ... violence.' Homosexual activists in the Harvard University office of 'LGBTQ Student Life' passed out a school-sponsored guide that urges students to 'fight transphobia.' Among other claims presented as facts, the guide decrees that 'there are more than two sexes.' 'Gender is fluid and changing,' the guide instructs.

Using carefully worded transgender phraseology, the guide refers to biological gender as one's 'sex assigned at birth.' "How are you supposed to write a law that protects against gender or sex discrimination if a person's 'gender identity' can change daily?" asks Chris Pandolfo at the Conservative Review. "James Madison might've said something important about 'mutable' or constantly changing government and 'incoherent' laws once."

Furthermore, the Harvard guide admonishes students that 'fixed binaries' (in other words, referring to the two sexes of male and female) and 'biological essentialism' (in other words, considering a boy to be a boy and a girl to be a girl) 'threaten(s) the lives of trans people.' Calling a male by a male pronoun is considered gender assault. 'Misgendering someone' is considered life-threatening. The biblical worldview is characterized as 'transphobic misinformation.' 'Transphobic misinformation is a form of systemic violence,' the guide claims.

Critics say the most dangerous claim of the Harvard encyclical is that opposing views are 'a form of systemic violence.' In other words, 'traditional understandings of the roles of men and women and the distinctions between male and female are 'violence'.' If you follow this line of thinking, then when, for example, Jesus says in Matthew 19, "Have you not read that he who created them from the beginning made them male and female"... — 'that's violence,' Pandolfo pointed out. Campus Reform reports that several Harvard students expressed outrage about the misuse of tuition money for the politically correct student guide, but 'all declined to comment on the record due to concerns about potential repercussions from the school.' Pandolfo opined, 'One wonders if Harvard's administration has paused to consider whether they are providing a 'Safe Space' for students who think that men are men and women are women.' 'This is the sad state of affairs at colleges and universities,' Pandolfo concludes. 'Traditional values are called violent. Mob violence to silence free speech is called justice.'

To which Wallace Klinck from Canada responds:

That is where we have arrived. Even I am taken aback by the speed with which it has happened. The meanings of words are now decreed to be entirely "fluid" and can mean anything that facilitates the militant Revolution now seeking absolute power. The majority have no rights, which are held by the elite intelligentsia only. The strategy is to destroy existing society by separating meanings from words through incessant propaganda and increasing arbitrary use of force, both legal and direct. The policy is to induce widespread cognitive dissonance so to create a docile and compliant society. We are witnessing an advanced stage of Marxist Revolution made possible by the sabotage of the institutions of learning as a source of objective knowledge with the collaboration of the popular media working in tandem with the academic sabotage.

This is a total rebellion against the natural order and is disintegrative in both nature and conscious design.

The advance of this Revolutionary policy is facilitated by the existing increasingly defective financial system which generates an ever expanding volume of people who are enslaved to debt and cannot survive financially. They naturally fall prey to the seductive doctrine of “economic exploitation” because exploding fraudulent financial debt has robbed them of their rightful inheritance. What Marx fails to do directly the financial system does indirectly by appropriating the communal capital by means of debt rather than direct expropriation.

NPP and AUSTRALIA AS A ‘CASHLESS’ SOCIETY by Betty Luks

On 27 March 2017, ABC News reported:

‘In 2014, 12 financial institutions signed up to build the NPP, (New Payment Platform...ed) partly as a way of bringing Australia up to speed with other countries that are ahead in the race to becoming completely cashless.

Sweden is on track to become the world’s first completely cashless economy, and just last November India got rid of its highest denomination bills, effectively eliminating 90 per cent of its paper money. Professor Holden estimates Australia could be cash free as early as 2020...’

Am I the only one who sees the centralizing dangers in Australia becoming ‘a cashless society’ under the present financial policies?

According to Michael Edwards on ABC AM, 27 March 2017: “The Reserve Bank is introducing new technology this year which will push Australia even further towards being a cashless society. Later this year the bank will roll out a new system called the New Payment Platform (NPP). The NPP will mean money can be transferred almost instantaneously, even when the payer and payee are members of different banks.

(Please note this sentence is about ‘credit’ – not physical money. That is, ‘money’ in the form of ‘blips on a computer’, produced as a debt, and bearing interest charges.)

The technology will also support “overlay” services, meaning banks will be able to create their own payment services to entice customers...”

SMART METER SECURITY OFFERS A RANGE OF OPTIONS FOR HACKERS

Ref: <http://thenewdaily.com.au/life/tech/2017/04/26/smart-electricity-meter-rob-house/>

Smart electricity meters carry vulnerabilities that could assist burglars and compromise privacy, but Australian households are not being warned of the risks, a leading cyber-security expert has warned. Nigel Phair from the University of Canberra’s Centre for Internet Safety compiled a report on the risks of smart meters, which send data on a home’s utility use back to providers remotely rather than being read manually...

Harvard has been one of the primary sources of this pervasive Fabian Socialist Keynesian debt financial policy. As C. H. Douglas prophesied, we will either reform our evil and defective financial system and emerge into the light of a New Civilization, or we will be cast into the hell of a new Dark Age.

“Conservatives”, “Christians”, and all who value freedom, had better get their heads out of the sand—or the clouds, whichever may be the case. - (emphasis-ed)

There is all the difference in the world between a government-constitutionally-authorized financial system and the present fraudulent bank ‘credit’ system.

ABC News continues: ‘Professor Richard Holden, from the University of New South Wales, has been studying the rise of the electronic economy and said the NPP would make electronic payments “super easy.” “[It] is going to make it super easy to transfer money instantaneously for free of any amount or kind,” he said. “So you’re not going to have to worry about setting up someone as a payee in your online banking and making sure you’ve typed in the BSB number and stuff like that.”

“It’s really going to be as simple as, I want to pay you $30 now for some service and I can just pay it based on an email address or phone number.”

THIS NEWS REPORT DOESN’T MENTION BANK CONTROL OF CREDIT

Nowhere does this news article report that the banks ‘create the credit’ themselves whilst constitutionally it is governments who are meant to be responsible for this to their citizens. I would have expected ‘that’ to be the big news for them to report on.

But no. Australians are to be kept in the dark as the centralisation of the financial system continues unabated by faceless international bankers, under our very noses.

...Once a device had been cracked, the report found hackers monitoring real-time electricity usage could learn anything from when the refrigerator was last opened, to what program occupants were watching on television... Among the report’s other concerns was an incident in Puerto Rico in which businesses and members of the general public would pay hackers to slash their electricity meter readings by as much as 75 per cent...

SWEDISH WHITE PATHOLOGY by Bruce Bennett

Sweden is white pathology at its viral, peak, disease. Following the Islamic State-linked terrorist attack earlier this month in Stockholm, one opinion poll found that more people feel that the country is heading in the 'right direction,' and they don't mean 'Right' with a capital 'R'. Women are in the main, feeling 'positive.'

See: <http://www.breitbart.com/london/2017/04/18/after-stockholm-attack-more-swedes-country-going-right-direction/>.

They don't call it the 'Stockholm syndrome,' the loving of abusers, for nothing:

<http://counsellingresource.com/therapy/self-help/stockholm/>.

This contrasts with the non-racially suicidal policies of Poland, who will not allow the 'bloody harvest' of multiculturalism: <http://www.breitbart.com/london/2017/04/19/western-europe-bloody-harvest-multiculturalism-poland/>:

'The Polish interior minister affirmed Poland will not repeat the Western European policy of multiculturalism which he said has led to the 'bloody harvest' of multiple terror attacks across the continent since the start of the migrant crisis.

"The policy of multiculturalism in Western Europe is bringing about a bloody harvest in the form of terrorist attacks," Mariusz Błaszczak told Polish Radio on Tuesday.

The conservative Law and Justice government (Prawo i Sprawiedliwość, PiS) has refused to accept migrants from the Middle East and Africa under an EU programme to relocate across the bloc some 98,000 asylum seekers currently residing in camps in Italy and Greece.

At the EU summit on the migrant crisis in September 2015, Poland's previous coalition government led by Donald Tusk's Civic Platform (Platforma Obywatelska, PO) agreed to accept 4,500-5,000 asylum seekers.

WHITES AND THE FOUNDATIONS OF CHINESE CIVILISATION by Brian Simpson

I have published material at the Crossroads site relevant to the intelligence debate between our Dr Peter J. White and a 'Mr Li.'

In a number of papers, I have presented summary of literature indicating that there was a White foundation to Chinese culture.

See: B. Simpson, 'Biological Evidence of Europeans in China in Pre-history,' at <https://thecross-roads.org/race-culture-nation/103-biological-evidence-of-europeans-in-china-in-pre-history-by-brian-simpson>.

See also: <https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pmc/articles/PMC2169275/>.

There is a strong suggestion of this from the mummies of Ürumchi (E. W. Barber, The Mummies of Ürumchi, (Macmillan, 1999), 4,000 year old Nordic (Northern European) mummies found in the Tarim Basin of the Chinese-administered Uyghur Autonomous Region.

However, the following month PiS swept the parliamentary election and proceeded to reject the previous government's migrant position.

"Our predecessors, agreeing to receive thousands of refugees – and de facto immigrants from the Middle East, and northern Africa – were striving to bring about such a crisis," Błaszczak said.

He added that while PiS was in power, it would "not allow a repeat of what we are dealing with in Western Europe."

At last, a real show of manhood in this cucked world. But we need to beware that the global elites are marching ever onward with their agenda and show no signs of pausing to even catch their breath, however old they are: <http://www.express.co.uk/news/politics/794729/Jean-Claude-Juncker-EU-chief-meet-George-Soros-discuss-Hungary-legal-action>. Jean-Claude Juncker will hold a behind closed doors meeting with George Soros at which the pair will discuss legal action against the Hungarian government... The EU Commission chief will host the billionaire financier in Brussels as part of eurocrats' preparations to take Budapest to court over a number of alleged breaches of EU law.

Brussels has been enraged by the actions of firebrand prime minister Viktor Orban, who has passed a new law in an attempt to close a university backed by Mr Soros.

The Hungarian PM has cast the institution as an 'enemy within' and says it is being used by the billionaire to push a liberal pro-EU agenda against his right-wing government.'

No-one can say that old George is lacking in animal spirits, and our side certainly needs to be eating and drinking whatever it is that he does.

The mummies were dressed in fine clothes, indicating that they were nobles, and had fair and red hair, and skull features of Nordics, such as high-bridged noses: <https://www.forbes.com/sites/kristinakilgrove/2015/07/18/these-red-haired-chinese-mummies-come-from-all-over-eurasia-dna-reveals/#7f9bc6413e2c>.

Their clothes had decorative birds woven into the fabric such as peacocks, birds not found in Central Asia. Sir Marc Aurel Stein (Preliminary Report on A Journey of Archaeological and Topographical Explorations in Chinese Turkestan, (1901)) had found similar Nordic mummies a century previous.

Further evidence can be found in numerous texts such as Terrien de LaCouperie, Western Origins of the Early Chinese Civilisation from 2,300 BC to 200 AD, (Asher, London, 1894).

A popular book, Ali Aliabadi, On Martial Arts, Zen, and the Blue-Eyed, Red-Bearded Barbarian, (Ostara, 2012), contains numerous references to scholarly literature indicating that there was a Northern European origin to Buddhism and the Asian martial arts, with the founder, Bodhidharma, being described in old texts as a “blue-eyed barbarian.”

Chinese scientist Sun Weidong has proposed that ancient Chinese texts better fit the geography of Egypt than China, and that the founders of China, the ruling elites who got Chinese civilisation going, were from Egypt:

<http://foreignpolicy.com/2016/09/02/did-chinese-civilization-come-from-ancient-egypt-archeological-debate-at-heart-of-china-national-identity/>;

This research calls into question the generally sycophantic attitude taken in a publication such as the otherwise good, American Renaissance

(but see: <https://www.amren.com/news/2016/11/why-have-asians-not-dominated-iq-creativity/>).

Mr Li has some work cut out for him!

LETTER TO MR IAN SMITH, Chief Organiser, Anzac Day Events

Dear Sir, I listened to ABC radio this morning and heard your very good presentation to the crowd. There was one point which may have been open to interpretation, where I felt uneasy. This was in reference to “nationalism”.

I gathered you believe nationalism to be not a desirable aim or policy. If I recall, you also mentioned those who pursue such aims are narrow-minded, or words to that effect.

My concept of the tremendous bravery and sacrifices of Australian soldiers was all about nationalism. They gave their all for our freedom, rights and culture to be protected for future generations.

Today, the emphasis is on globalisation or internationalism which is contrary to nationalism. Furthermore it has delivered trade wars, legal nightmares as we are required to comply with global (U. N.) Conventions. Our culture is threatened by immigrants whose aim is to destroy our Christian heritage and replace it with a system from which (strangely) they fled. I support nationalism.

On another matter; the “Welcome to Country” has now become part of many ceremonies and is acceptable in most cases. This morning the presenter spoiled her welcome by launching into political matters of recognition of aborigines.

Her address highlighted to me, how the play for Constitutional Recognition will lead to great division. Our constitution correctly refers only to “Australians”. We are all Australians irrespective of our background. To mention one section of our population automatically creates division - a “them and us” situation.

I hope you accept these remarks as constructive comment. Ken Grundy, Naracoorte, SA

BEING IN TIME: A POST-POLITICAL MANIFESTO by Gilad Atzmon (Author)

Being in Time is a courageous attempt to grasp the intellectual developments that have led towards the current dystopia. The book delves into the bankruptcy of the ideological grand narratives. It explores the colossal failure of the media, academia and politics to detect and address the events that led us towards our destitution. It identifies the ideologies that have planted Identitarian politics and the tyranny of political correctness in our midst. We, the people, have been demoted into mere audience in a Greek tragedy that happens to be the story of our own destruction. The time is ripe to understand it all.
