THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: “It has been said that a study of history is the best cure for pessimism concerning the progress of man. This might be so if history dealt with the underlying factors of great social movements instead of being a constant repetition of dogma, dates and worn-out shibboleths. No real history can be written or taught today which does not recognise that Money has been a major factor in the affairs of nations from the time of the Roman Empire. H. G. Wells, in his 'Outline of History', clearly shows that the Roman Empire collapsed from the same social disorder which now threatens the present civilisation—the manipulation of money in the hands of private financiers.” – The World Government Plot Exposed! Eric D. ### AMERICA: A FAILED STATE By Charles Taylor

A view from the sensible Left about the future of America; it does not have one. According to John Ralston Saul, America is a failed state, and the inevitable consequences of this will follow:

“Our 'corporate coup d'état in slow motion', as the writer John Ralston Saul calls it, has opened a Pandora's box of evils that is transforming America into a failed state. The “unholy trinity of corruption, impunity and violence,” he said, can no longer be checked. The ruling elites abjectly serve corporate power to exploit and impoverish the citizenry. Democratic institutions, including the courts, are mechanisms of corporate repression. Financial fraud and corporate crime are carried out with impunity. The decay is exacerbated by the state's indiscriminate use of violence abroad and at home, where rogue law enforcement agencies harass and arrest citizens and the undocumented and often kill the unarmed. A depressed and enraged population, trapped by chronic unemployment and underemployment, is overdosing on opioids and beset by rising suicide rates. It engages in acts of nihilistic violence, including mass shootings. Hate groups proliferate. The savagery, mayhem and grotesque distortions familiar to those on the outer reaches of empire increasingly characterize American existence. And presiding over it all is the American version of Ubu Roi, playwright Alfred Jarry's gluttonous, idiotic, vulgar, narcissistic and infantile king, who turned politics into burlesque. “Congress works through corruption,” Saul, the author of books such as 'Voltaire's Bastards: The Dictatorship of Reason in the West' and 'The Collapse of Globalism and the Reinvention of the World', said when we spoke in Toronto. “I look at Congress and I see the British Parliament in the late 18th century, the rotten boroughs. Did they have elections? Yes. Were the elections exciting? Yes. They were extremely exciting.”

Rotten boroughs were the 19th-century version of gerrymandering. The British oligarchs created electoral maps through which depopulated boroughs—50 of them had fewer than 50 voters—were easily dominated by the rich to maintain control of the House of Commons. In the United States, our ruling class has done much the same, creating districts where incumbents, who often run unchallenged, return to Congress election after election. Only about 40 of the 435 seats in the House of Representatives are actually contested. And given the composition of the Supreme Court, especially with Donald Trump poised to install another justice, it will get worse.” <https://www.zerohedge.com/news/2018-07-09/chris-hedges-america-failed-state>

That is the view of the Left, which no matter how sensible, must by definition attack Donald Trump. However, the remarks are interesting as they reveal an awareness of deep structural corruption in the system. The same paragraph could have just as easily been written about the Obama regime, but oh, they were all quiet then.

The future though, promises to be full of excitement and fireworks.

NOW FEMINISM BITES THE CORPORATE BUM By Mrs Vera West

I have been waiting for feminism to implode since the 1970s. I thought at the time, once feminist demands conflict with corporate capitalism, boy, I mean, girl, then we will see action. Now it is starting to happen, first with the Me Too movement, and then this:

<https://amp.smh.com.au/business/workplace/new-zealand-may-force-private-companies-to-pick-women-directors-20180708-p4zq85.html>

“New Zealand’s government is prepared to force private businesses to appoint more women directors if companies don’t make sufficient progress themselves”, Minister for Women Julie Anne Genter says.

The government said last week that it will ensure half of all directors on state sector boards and committees are women by 2021, compared with 46 per cent at the end of 2017. By comparison, women held just 19 per cent of directorships across the 159 companies listed on the main board of the New Zealand stock exchange, according to a report in January.

“We’re awaiting the next report, and I’m keen to see where they get to,” Genter told Television New Zealand’s Q+A program ‘Sunday’.

“If they’re not going to make progress, if it’s going to sit there at 19 per cent, then we might have to start thinking about ways government can incentivise them.

Under Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern, the world’s youngest female leader, the government is forging ahead with plans to change the way women are treated in society and allow them to achieve their full potential, including an ambitious goal to eliminate the gender pay gap.”

Only thing here is that there is no pay gender gap; if as a statistical average men earn more than women, it is because they work cruel hours in dangerous jobs that women do not want to do. Don’t tell me the New Zealand PM, or back to Julia Gillard, that these women did not earn as much as their male PM counterparts!

Ed- Prof Jordan B Petereson deals nicely with this issue of pay gap difference based on certain personality traits that men are naturally more prone to exhibit in the Cathy Newman interview here:

<https://youtu.be/aMcjxSThD54>

- exactly the qualities necessary for a dominating commercial concern wishing to forge further ahead. I personally think the corporates are happily behind this issue to lower the pay rate for 'everyone' in a race to the bottom. ***

VACCINATION TYRANNY By Mrs Vera West

We did not hear much about this from our local mainstream media, but fortunately the slightly freer alternative press in America picked up this story: that the NO JAB NO PAY, is now NO JAB, YOU PAY:

<https://www.zerohedge.com/news/2018-07-07/australia-will-now-fine-parents-twice-month-if-they-dont-vaccinate-their-kids>

“Australia’s “No Jab, No Pay” policy just got a little stronger, or at least more insistent. Under the previous policy, parents who did not keep their children up to date on vaccinations would miss out on a one-time, end-of-the-year tax benefit called Family Tax Benefit Part A, valued at AU$737. Under the updated policy, those same parents will instead lose AU$28 every two weeks while their child is not up to date. Australia’s Minister for Social Services, Dan Tehan, said in a statement: “Immunization is the safest way to protect children from vaccine-preventable diseases. Parents who don’t immunize their children are putting their own kids at risk as well as the children of other people.” The expanded No Jab, No Pay policy went into effect on July 1, 2018. While parents will miss out on approximately the same amount of money in the end, the updated policy serves as a more ‘constant reminder’ that the government of Australia wants all children vaccinated, according to Tehan. The Australian government has been attempting to quell the anti-vaccine movement for years and first introduced the No Jab, No Pay campaign in 2016.

Since then, nearly 246,000 families have taken steps to meet the requirements. Concerns arose after small outbreaks of diseases like measles and whooping cough were blamed on an increase in the percentage of children younger than seven claiming a “conscientious objection” to vaccination. Between December 1999 and December 2014, the proportion of children under seven with a “conscientious objection” rose from 0.23 to 1.77 percent. Government vaccination campaigns are nothing new in Australia. Back in 1999, vaccination rates for children between the ages of 24 and 27 months hit the lowest level in 17 years. After launching an aggressive education campaign, that same rate rose from 73.6 percent in 1999 to 92.2 percent in 2015. But the Australian government asserted that still wasn’t enough and subsequently launched the No Jab, No Pay policy, spending AU$14 million on free vaccinations in 2017 alone.”

It is obvious that the Fabian strategy here is to step-by-step move towards total compulsory vaccination. This is a freedom issue if there ever was one.

Ed- It is difficult to see the anti-vax movement getting themselves into gear to fight this 'alone'. It may be necessary for groups of differing interests to work together on both their issues of concern. Perhaps the anti-fluoride and anti-vaxx can combine their efforts under a greater issue being freedom of governmental involvement by mass medication. ***

ANARCHO-TYRANNY IN ACTION By Charles Taylor

The progressives in America, and Australia as well for that matter, claim be, well, progressive, cool and with it, being morally superior. But, are they really?

https://thenationalsentinel.com/2018/07/08/proof-that-democrats-are-now-party-of-child-trafficking-and-once-again-slavery/?mc\_cid=20d34cc336&mc\_eid=d825f704ed

Supporters who knowingly back the protection of child sex traffickers as long as they are in our country illegally and the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) agency is involved in any way. Earlier this week in Oakland — where Mayor Libby Schaff tipped off illegal alien criminals earlier this year to an impending raid by Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents — ICE and the local police department were executing a raid on suspected child sex traffickers when a crowd of angry white liberals

THE UN GUN CONTROL CONSPIRACY By John Steele

I was marginally hopeful that President Trump would fight for US gun rights against the evil UN one world agenda, but apparently, not so:

<http://fromthetrenchesworldreport.com/media-silent-as-us-agrees-to-full-implementation-of-united-nations-gun-control-pact/229586>

“The Third Review Conference (RevCon) of the United Nations’ Program of Action (PoA) on Small Arms and Light Weapons was held in New York last week with a 2018 agreement, which states that its purpose is to serve as 'a renewed commitment to prevent, combat and eradicate the illicit trade in small arms and light weapons in all its aspects'.

“We, the States participating in the third United Nations Conference to review progress made in the implementation of the Program of Action to prevent, combat and eradicate the illicit trade in small arms and light weapons in all its aspects, convened at United Nations Headquarters in New York from 18 to 29 June 2018 to review progress made in implementation and identify priorities for strengthened implementation, reaffirm our commitment to the full and effective implementation of all of the provisions of the Program of Action and the International Tracing Instrument, with a view to ending the human suffering caused by the illicit trade in small arms and light weapons.”

The agreement states that it will act as an 'international instrument to enable states to identify and trace, in a timely and reliable manner', light arms and small weapons, while 'bearing in mind the different situations, capacities, and priorities of States and regions'. All the while, it will be tracking 'progress made in the implementation of the International Tracing Instrument; noted the challenges to the implementation of the Instrument, whether continuing, recent or emerging'.

The conflict and post-conflict situations addressed by the agreement include the need for 'disarmament, assembled to protest — before they had a single solitary clue what was even going on.

A local news report noted:

“We love our neighbors.” They also wrote with chalk on the ground saying, “OPD is a disgrace.” They were thinking this was an immigration investigation because Homeland Security was out here but we just heard from Oakland police that this was, in fact, a federal criminal search warrant executed in connection with human sex trafficking of juveniles right here in the 700 block of 27th street.”

The “progressive,” Left, have become so mad that they have lost track of what their coherent policy objectives are, and now blindly lash out at all that even appear to oppose them, as if they were possessed. *** demobilization and reintegration programs and community violence reduction programs', along with international instruments, such as, 'regular inventories, surplus disposal, including through destruction, and the implementation of appropriate measures when losses are detected'.

The agreement also listed management and security measures that would include 'marking, record-keeping and, as appropriate, tracing by law enforcement authorities, for illicit small arms and light weapons that are found, seized, or recovered in conflict and post-conflict situations'.

Running with this are changes to US law to enable guns to be grabbed without due process being met, all quite contrary to the US constitution:

“The Second Amendment has been repealed in Massachusetts as police officers begin confiscating guns and weapons from law-abiding American citizens. This week, Governor Charlie Baker signed a bill giving police new powers allowing them to confiscate guns 'at their own discretion', without the need for due process. Under the new legislation, law enforcers are legally allowed to raid an individual’s home and confiscate their weapons, whether they committed a crime or not.”

<http://www.neonnettle.com/news/4470-massachusetts-begins-confiscating-citizens-guns-repealing-second-amendment>

It sounds awfully much like Australia now, not the home of the brave and the free.

Trump, and apparently the NRA, let this one go, but it is a big rogue elephant that threatens to shipwreck the entire Second Amendment and gun rights. This alone, not even getting to border security and the wall, raises grave doubts about the cogency of the Trumpster presidency. He seems to be just another New World Order puppet, or maybe just a dope. It goes with the role. ***

WHY UNCLE LEN IS RUBBING MCDONALD'S FRENCH FRIES ON HIS BALD HEAD By Uncle Len, the Shiny Dome

When I have some money left over from my mental disability pension, like most health conscious people I go into McDonalds and buy a big pot of French fries. The "French" in the "fries," makes me seem sophisticated and multicultural, which is better than just getting plain old greasy fries, I mean fries. Then, I don't eat the delicacy, but smear the contents all over my bald head! I did not know why I did this until now:

"A cure for baldness may have just been found in the most unlikely of places, according to scientists in Japan - who think the answer could lie in your McDonald's meal. The scientists managed to regrow hair on mice using what they've referred to as a 'simple method' using human stem cells, which generated fresh follicles capable of sprouting new hairs. Within days the mice had furry backs and scalps, and after these preliminary experiments it's thought that the same technique could work in people.

The Japanese team first had a breakthrough after they managed to produce 'hair follicle germs' in their lab for the first time. These are the cells that fuel follicle development, and because they've never been regenerated before are considered the 'Holy Grail' of hair loss research. Turns out the secret was to use dimethylpolysiloxane, the same chemical that's found in McDonald's fries - which is added for safety reasons to prevent cooking oil from foaming. Professor Junji Fukuda of Yokohama National University, said: "The key for the mass production of HFGs was a choice of substrate materials for the culture vessel. "We used oxygen-permeable dimethylpolysiloxane (PDMS) at the bottom of culture vessel, and it worked very well." <http://www.ladbible.com/news/news-food-mcdonalds-fries-could-cure-baldness-according-to-new-study-20180204>

Before this, people on the street just thought that I was mad, but now I have a scientific justification for my unusual behavioural trait. ***

FROM THE DESK OF WALLACE KLINCK

Communism and the drive for a world unified by force and deception are both manifestations of the Will-to-Power, demonstrated by people who are in rebellion against natural or 'Divine' law and believe that they alone are qualified by assumed superior intelligence to determine the destiny of mankind. Their primary weapon is legalism exercised to enforce compliance with their schemes and decrees by means of intimidation and the falsely claimed right to mete out punishment to all who might oppose their misguided, oppressive and/or malevolent policies. That is the function of our specious "Human Rights Commissions" which claim precedence of authority and attempt arbitrarily to usurp, by-pass and nullify the historic protections of the British Common Law wherein the accused had inherent and assumed natural rights of self-defense

ACTION TARGET

Keep writing urging Federal Members to support the return of coal powered generation of electricity.

It is the only hope of achieving lower prices.

It is always a good move to write to Independent and Minor Party MP's, as they are more in tune with the electorate's wishes and likely to act accordingly.

One actionist received a reply from her Independent Upper House MP, which expressed appreciation for the letter. He wrote, 'It is very important for me to get feedback and information from as many members of the community as possible. It helps to keep me informed and in touch. Again, thank you for your correspondence'.

I am pleased to report the Basic Fund continues to move forward and now stands at a little under $21 000.

Thank you to all those sacrificial donations. - ND embodied in the Constitution established by tradition (in the United Kingdom). This is evidence of an unbridled megalomania that has no respect for individual freedom in the context of natural law and asserts essentially that 'Might is Right', which policy can only end in absolute tyranny. Of course, as Lord Acton so profoundly stated, power exercised without responsibility corrupts—and absolute power corrupts absolutely. Such power corrupts not only those who seize and exercise it over others but the entire remainder of society also upon which it is imposed. The late C. H. Douglas said that the world is never in such danger as when subject to the mercies of the Utopian who has a plan which he wishes to impose on the rest of mankind. The difference is that which lies between an organically developing, dynamic and efflorescing society, where Good is Incarnate, and a repressed society of stasis and arrested development wherein the general good is sacrificed for the benefit of those having appropriated and vested interest, i.e., where Evil is Incarnate. ***
