

The truth is that so far from Christianity failing, only Man has failed to remain faithful to those Truths which Christianity revealed. But God in his great wisdom has provided Man with free will by which he can repent for past mistakes and make a fresh start. That is what is urgently required today, a fresh start. For the true Christian, this is a most challenging and exciting prospect.