Big Spending And Big Government Timely Warning By American Senator

The international plotters are not having things all their own way. One of the most significant developments in the U.S.A. at present—even the Australian press has been forced to publish several reports on it—is the revolt of the American taxpayers against vast spending schemes abroad. Although lacking the constructive lead which only Social Crediters can give, they can see that big Government spending abroad is not only designed to help further international planning at the expense of national sovereignties, but that big Government spending is lowering their potential standard of living and destroying their constitutional rights.

One of the most able and courageous of the American Senators, Republican Senator William Jenner, brilliantly analyses the menace of current American policies in the following article in "Human Events" of March 16:

The American Government served the interests of the people when it was limited government, operating within restraints set by the Constitution. But the American Government does not now need to serve the national interest. It is today an unrestrained oligarchy whose ability to ignore Congress and the Constitution comes from spending your money.

Our great mistake is our naive assumption that we have the same Government today that we had from 1789 to 1932. We do not have the same Government or anything remotely like it. The American Government of today bears almost no relationship to the one we knew from 1789 to 1932.

This new American Government has one objective—to keep itself in power by spending. Its objective is the same today as it was in the days of Harry Hopkins—tax and tax, spend and spend, elect and elect.

We cannot understand the political crisis of today unless we understand how completely our Government has been transformed. The three-part Federal Government of the Constitution is still there, but something new has been added. A vast engine of political and police power has been built up, in and around and above the old Federal Executive branch. The names of the old-line agencies are the familiar trusted facade behind which this new Leviathan can operate, almost invisible to Congress and the press.

The strength of this new governing machine can be measured by its resources. It controls at least one quarter of our entire national wealth. It converts at least one quarter of our earnings into political and police power over you and me. The primary aim of this monstrous growth is to secure its stream of tribute, and to keep the voters from protesting effectively.

We have wasted a great deal of precious time, denouncing Franklin Roosevelt, Harry Truman, and Dwight Eisenhower, for the growth of this Frankenstein's monster. We are not going to put an end to a political tidal wave, which has swept over five continents, merely by denouncing individuals. The trend to strong central government is worldwide, and it springs from two world wars and the lure of socialist Big Government. I believe American political leaders could have resisted that trend and helped the rest of the world to erect bulkheads against the erosion of liberty. But it is not too late.

Let us now forget the reasons for bitterness and put our minds on the important question — how can Americans use their magnificent heritage of good government, and their long experience with liberty, to put their own house in order, and to offer once again a model to which the rest of the world will turn in hope?

We must start with our foreign policy. Foreign policy has been, since the war, the most appealing way to continue Big Spending and to render the opposition helpless to resist the machine for which spending provides the fuel. Foreign policy is the post-war WPA of the socialist planners, except that post-war spending is geared to the high levels we were conditioned to accept by the war propaganda. Our foreign policy today is a series of outlets, sometimes called "ratholes", carefully planned to help the spenders keep on thirteen years ago.

In June 1943, the State Department published the proposed text of the first gigantic spending. The Republicans saw this clearly post-war spending programme—that for U.N.R.R.A. Senator Vandenberg read the proposal and found it was planned as an executive agreement, to bypass the Senate. He wrote to Senator McNary as follows:

"It seems to me that this draft agreement involves the broadest possible commitments for the future ... and leaves

OUR POLICY

1. The support of all policies rooted in the Christian philosophy of freedom and based upon the Moral Law.
2. The preservation of Australia's sovereignty as a part of the British Empire, and the exposure of all Internal and external groups which attack that sovereignty.
3. The preservation and extension of genuine local government.
4. The preservation and strengthening of all Constitutional safeguards for the purpose of protecting fundamental individual rights.
5. The encouragement of all activities designed to bring Governments under more effective control by the electors.
6. The preservation and extension of genuine free competitive enterprise and private ownership, and opposition to all Monopoly, whether it be "private" or State.
7. The support of a financial policy which will (a) permit free enterprise to make available to all individuals an increasing standard of living and greater leisure for cultural pursuits, (b) result in no further increase to the community's indebtedness and the sound business practice of gradually reducing existing debt. Recognising that the basis of any sound economy is agriculture, the encouragement of agricultural policies, which will ensure the preservation and building up of soil fertility by organic farming and gardening; and the prevention of soil erosion and the protection of forests and watersheds.

Big Spending and Big Government

us (as usual) to pay the bills without any adequate control over what the bills ought to be. I think this is clearly a preview of the method by which the President and the State Department intend to bypass Congress in general, and the Senate in particular, in settling every possible international war and post-war issue by the use of mere executive agreements."

A few days later Vandenberg wrote: "As it was originally drawn, this draft agreement pledged our total resources to whatever illimitable scheme for relief and rehabilitation all around the world our New Deal crystal gazers might desire to pursue . . . The draft . . . clearly intended that there should be no interference with this worldwide prospectus as it might be conceived by Roosevelt, Lehman, Hopkins and Co., until that long last moment when Congress would be presented with a fait accompli! At that late hour it would be next to impossible for Congress to do anything except acquiesce." Why did the spending continue if the design was so clear, nearly fourteen years ago? It is all so simple. Every time one spending programme became a little spotted and frayed at the edges it was closed out, and a glittering new spending programme was brought forward.

These new models for waste of American money are not trotted out to impress Congress. They are trotted out to be put on the propaganda conveyor belts, leading out into every state, to the women's clubs, the churches, the colleges, the unions, the press and radio. This "show" is managed by experts in what is called "the engineering of consent", who know how to keep the viewers happy, and how to make tax paying almost painless.

Obviously members of Congress know their districts are being saturation-bombed by these flying squadrons. But they have no money or staff or patronage to counter-attack.

The spenders in the Executive branch know the Congressmen will be either converted or defeated by their mass propaganda. So why worry?

Now this adds up to one simple fact. We shall never rid ourselves of Big Spending or Big Government by arguments that the money is wasted. The money is not wasted. Every dollar the spenders can get is spent to very good purpose from their point of view. Like W.P.A. money, it buys political support for Big Spending. It builds up vested interests and the vested interests carry on the campaigns for more spending. What could be more logical than that?

Now, you will say that "foreign aid" cannot effect domestic elections. But that is where words fool you. Most of the foreign aid money is spent to buy products, which are important politically — wheat, coal, radio, engineering, shipping and many others.

I have pointed out many times, that our hidden absolute government operates independent of the legislative, executive or judicial branches set up in the Constitution.

To understand what we have to fight—we must add one more diagram showing the change in our political system.

Our two party system has not been abolished. It has simply been enveloped by something much more powerful. The spending oligarchy in Government operates as a political super-party, by its ability to direct this constant stream of invisible propaganda into our political districts. The political parties try to operate as in the past, by vigorous local organization, all unaware of the hidden forces, which pull down the constitutionalists, and push upward the men who have sold their birth-right.

The only political power in the nation stronger than this colossus on the Potomac with its 70 billions of dollars a year is—the Congressional district. The voters can end its power in their own Congressional district, any time they take the trouble.

The spenders will not cut spending of their own free will. It is your problem to organize so that no man can be nominated in your Congressional district unless he has pledged himself to cut spending where it hurts—where the vested interests will punish him for taking away their easy money. But he must have protection against their wrath. Only you can give it to him.

Such an uprising will succeed if our angry people combine by Congressional districts and State party organizations, to make sure party nominations go only to men who are truly devoted to the Constitution, and who are ready to fight spending in all the forms the spenders love to devise.

Members of Congress either have no power, or they have the greatest political power in the nation. Senators and representatives have no power of their own. Their only power is what they get from their active constituents.

When his constituents have been brain-washed by the spenders into believing foreign aid is an elixir guaranteed to cure all illnesses, a Senator or Congressman has no power and no influence. He is like an ambassador, all dressed up in uniform and gold braid, whose country has been taken over by subversion. He must go over to the enemy, or resign.

Congress is powerless, or very powerful. It will be very powerful only if the men sent to Washington as representatives are the front line of an angry, determined, well-organized, and devoted band of patriots, working together to make each district into a fortress fighting to the bitter end in defence of American liberty.

MONETARY HISTORY

"History of Netherlands Monetary Systems", by Alexander Del Mar (2/- post free). This pamphlet by the great American historian. Del Mar, is indispensable for those interested in the history of modern Europe and the vast changes wrought by the modern money system. Del Mar shows how England and other nations were influenced by a disease emanating from Holland. This short work, written before the turn of the century, shows clearly why Del Mar was suppressed from American colleges and universities. He points out that the modern usurers had done more harm in two centuries than all previous racketeers had been able to do in more than a thousand years.

PALESTINE

THE REAL STORY

Palestine: Britain's Honour at Stake, by Frances Newton (1/- post free). Miss Newton, who lived for many years in Palestine, here sets down, without comment, the key documents connected with the treacherous invasion of Palestine by Talmudic Khazars. For those who want the facts about our betrayal of the Arabs, this booklet sets them down, with brevity and clarity.

Fifty Years In Palestine, by Frances Newton (11/9 post free). This book, which tells the history of Palestine over the past fifty years, has not been pushed through the normal book channels because it dares to put the case for the Arabs. Miss Newton is not critical of those Jews who lived in peace with their Arab neighbours for many years, but of the Zionist intruders who pushed the Arabs from their age-old homeland.

Notes on the News

THE ATTACK ON THE MIND

Since publishing the secret book on brain washing we have made an exhaustive study of this frightening subject. We are convinced that the attack upon the mind has gone much further than most people realise and that it is the responsibility of every true Christian to face up to the reality of this menace.

Writing in the February issue of "Task Force", published by Defenders of the American Constitution, a Stephanie Williams claims that Malenkov stated that there would be no more lobotomies in Russia. A lobotomy is a relatively simple operation upon the brain, which can produce disastrous results for the individual operated upon. It is mentioned in the text-book on brain washing.

The article in "Task Force" quotes Professor Alois de Chelly, member of the Academie Francaise and of the Legion d'Honneur, and an opponent of lobotomy, as saying:

"The age of psychoanalysis born with the great Charcot and developed by Freud is dead. We are now entering the era of scalpel-therapy. For this we must thank the mercenary physicians of Hitlerism, when mass lobotomies were performed on the mentally disturbed, so that they could be put to simple but useful tasks. Approximately 10 million morons were thus created by Hitler's doctors. Since the war the medical men of Germany, France and Italy have added another 3 million to that deplorable number. The lobotomy is an essentially fascist technique, comparable to sending the social offender to a gas oven. It was worthy of Hitler; it is a disgrace to the rest of us."

It is certain that the worldwide campaign to foster interest in "mental health" is related to the general campaign against Christendom.

FRAUDULENT FINANCE

It has been widely stated that the newly elected Liberal Member for Went-worth, Mr. L. H. Bury, made an impressive debut at Canberra in his maiden address, we have taken the trouble to examine closely what this former official of the International Monetary Fund had to say. It is true that Mr. Bury did direct attention to the menace of bureaucratic government, but Mr. Bury's views on finance leave no doubt that he is far removed from reality. After drawing attention to the problem of inflation, he then said, "I believe that both the governments concerned have pursued the right course in suffering this inflation." This means that Mr. Bury endorses robbery of the individual by fraudulent financial rules. One of the true purposes of Government is to ensure that the individual is not robbed by a dishonest monetary system. At one time in history the dilution of the value of money by coin-clipping and similar practices was rightly regarded as one of the most serious of crimes. The Christian Church concerned itself about the matter. But today it is regarded as "inevitable" that money should progressively lose its value.

We hear much about "scientific thinking" these days, but few politicians appear to be able to grasp the fact that an honest monetary system must automatically reflect economic reality. The true cost of production can only be consumption. And surely only those who have been completely brain-washed will deny that units of production per man hours worked have steadily increased; that the real cost of production has fallen. Our financial book keeping should faithfully reflect this truth.

TRADE WITH COMMUNISTS

We have often stressed the fact that politics are dominated by what appear to be economic "axioms". Until such time as these "axioms" are challenged, certain political policies, however distasteful to some people, appear to be inevitable.

The British Government's decision to try and build up big new foreign markets for the production expected to flow from factories affected by a reduction in the British defence programme, is an example of the truth of our statement. The Chinese produce little or nothing, which the British people require to maintain a civilized standard of living. But because it is an economic "axiom" that a nation grows wealthy through its exports, the British Government has announced that it is going to foster increased British exports to Communist China.

This news will delight the Chinese Communists, who are pleased to know that the British are going to help them industrialise China. It will also help further the campaign to have the Chinese communists seated in the "United" Nations. American business groups can be expected to react to the British policy by demanding from the American Government that they also be given the right to trade with Communist China. They are also obsessed with the "export or perish" mania.

A Jewish Lie Exposed

One of the biggest Jewish propaganda lies circulating in the post-war years, has been that Hitler murdered six million Jews. It was Hitler himself who said that the bigger the lie the greater the chance of having it widely accepted. Jewish propagandists have certainly demonstrated the truth of this, because nearly every writer or speaker who comments upon the position of the Jews under Hitler, repeats as a unquestioned fact that six million Jews were murdered under the Nazi regime.

We have on occasions exposed this lie, as have various individuals who have taken the trouble to examine the facts. But

An Introduction To Social Credit

By Bryan W. Monahan

This excellent book is specially recommended to those who desire a clearly written, but authoritative introduction to the subject of Social Credit. Dr. Bryan Monahan is Chairman of the Social Credit Secretariat, a body established by the late Major C. H. Douglas.

Social Credit concerns much more than monetary reform, which was one of the reasons why Major Douglas established the Social Credit Secretariat. Dr. Monahan writes: "Social Credit is a way of looking at things, a point of view that seems to bring every branch of knowledge into a new and more clear perspective. Equally, all knowledge is relevant to Social Credit."

"An Introduction To Social Credit" is divided into four parts: Physics, Economics, Politics and Metaphysics. The chapter on physics shows how increasing leisure and security for every individual are physically possible. The author writes: "Clearly, only either leisure, or 'unemployment' outside production can dispose of the 'unemployment problem'. The problems of economics and politics are absolutely conditioned by the physical realities described: short of sabotage or cataclysm, the progress of the situation is inexorable..."

After dealing simply but comprehensively with the Social Credit A — B theorem in the chapter on Economics, Dr. Monahan points out that the emphasis in Social Credit has passed from purely technical considerations to the subject of credit control and policy. This leads naturally to an examination of the policy of Social Credit and the Christian philosophy from which it stems, as compared with the various totalitarian policies based upon an anti-Christian philosophy.

Dr. Monahan's book is well produced, has a comprehensive index, and contains two appendices: one giving Douglas's analysis of the financing of a long-term production cycle in order to present a simple and convenient formal proof of the Social Credit theorem, and the other outlining the reasons for the establishment of the Social Credit Secretariat.

WHITEWASHING ISRAEL

No matter how strongly Federal political leaders disagree about some matters, they are all united in their defence of Israel. Very few present-day politicians, in this or any other country, are prepared to risk the inevitable smear tactics, which follow any criticism, however mild, of Zionist policies. Striking evidence of this was provided in the recent foreign affairs debate at Canberra.

In his review of the Middle East situation, Mr. Casey, Minister for External Affairs, said that Israel had not been blameless, but then hastened to say that "on the net balance of the past ten years she had been more sinned against than sinning". This fantastic statement alone should be sufficient to disqualify Mr. Casey from his present ministerial position. Mr. Casey apparently thinks that all Australians have been so effectively brainwashed that they cannot remember that the state of Israel was the result of a terrorist campaign which cost the British many lives and which resulted in nearly a million Arabs being driven from their homes out into the deserts of the Middle East. Mr. Casey's criticism of Dr. Evatt made no mention of the fact that Dr. Evatt had played a prominent role in the "United" Nations in having the terrorist campaign run by the international Zionists rewarded by recognition of Israel as a new State. Mr. Casey pointed out that the Communists had added to the turmoil in the Middle East, but he apparently felt it politically unwise to recall how the Communist leaders had played a vital role in the establishment of Israel, knowing full well that it would create the necessary conditions for penetration of the Arab world.

Although he disagreed with the use of force by Israel, Dr. Evatt also made it clear that he was not challenging the right of Israel to continue to exist at the expense of the Arabs who had been robbed. He said that he had always regarded Israel "as the bastion of democracy in the Middle East". This statement provides further evidence of Dr. Evatt's remarkable views concerning democracy. He is surely not unaware, for example, that the Jewish leaders in Israel impose a policy of vicious vindictiveness towards the 750,000 Arabs still existing in Israel. Judge Gerald Sparrow, in his recently published book, "The Sphinx Awakes", provides irrefutable evidence of how brutally the Jews treat the Arabs in Israel. Judge Sparrow relates how one respected American leader, when taxed about this crime, said that the truth was known, but that it was "dynamite". "The press here would tear one to bits if one said it." It is clear that neither Dr. Evatt nor Mr. Casey is going to risk being torn to bits. And Mr. Menzies, in spite of his courage in attacking the "United" Nations and disagreeing with American policy, was also careful to depict Israel as an innocent victim of Nasser's aggression.

At a dinner given in Melbourne by the Jewish Board of Deputies on April 8, Mr. Menzies is reported as having said, "I never regard as honest any settlement of the Middle East problem that does not restore to Israel its independence..." Is Mr. Menzies' memory concerning recent history so faulty that he does not know that Israel has never had real independence; that it was brought into being by the Zionist leaders and financially and economically sustained by them ever since?

Israel is as much a pawn in international power politics as is Nasser. Until Western politicians have the stomach to face this fact, they can make no realistic contribution towards solving the growing unrest in the Middle East.

A Social Credit House Party

As part of the new Social Credit drive launched at the special meeting in Melbourne on April 5, it has been decided to hold a series of house parties throughout Melbourne during the next six months. The first house party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Butler on Saturday, May 4.

These house parties will serve three major purposes: they will help raise urgently required financial assistance to enable our work to proceed; they will enable Social Crediters to get to know one another much better and to discuss common problems; and they will provide an opportunity for introducing potential supporters to Social Crediters and Social Credit ideas. Needless to say, it is hoped to make these parties as enjoyable as possible.

The first party will demonstrate what can be done to make a social and financial success with the minimum of physical effort and expense. Make a note of the date now: Saturday, May 4. And bring any friends. Guests may arrive from 7.30 p.m. onwards. Entrance charge will be 7/6 per head.

Those requiring directions of how to reach Mr. and Mrs. Butler's home, Alma Road, Panton Hill, may ring the office. It would assist catering arrangements if the organisers had some idea how many were likely to attend.

Organisers for the Social Credit Action Group would also like to hear from any supporters prepared to make their homes available for house parties. Details of what is necessary can be provided upon request.

Financial Dividends for Albertans?

In his budget speech, the Hon. E. W. Hinman, Treasurer in the Government of Alberta, forecast the distribution to all adult citizens of the Province, who have resided in Alberta for five consecutive years, of one-third of the oil and gas royalties for the previous fiscal year. This is expected to yield a "dividend" of about twenty dollars per head, subject to Federal Government income tax.

The proposal, while bearing no relation to Social Credit technique, is important in that it recognises the right of citizens to an unconditional and unearned dividend as shareholders in their country. Mr. Hinman is reported to have said that the government believes the present generation is contributing assets to future generations, which more than offset the amount of capital required to pay the royalty dividends. A widespread recognition of the truth of this, and of the importance of its corollaries and implications, might be the beginning of an appreciation of Social Credit philosophy, leading ultimately to the implementation of Social Credit political economy.—"The Social Creditor," March 30.

NOTES ON THE NEWS

exposure has been greeted with cries of "anti-Semitism". Even a few friends have felt that the story of the six million murdered Jews must be substantially correct. We therefore draw attention to a report in American "Time" of April 1, which should put the matter beyond further argument. No one will accuse "Time" of being "anti-Semitic". And "Time" prides itself upon being factual. The "Time" report reads: "Of the 600,000 Jews who once lived in Germany, only a mere 15,000 were left after the war. An estimated 300,000 fled to safety; the rest were either deported or killed."

We are in no way endorsing Hitler's anti-Christian policy concerning the Jews. But we believe it necessary to point out that we should not permit false Jewish propaganda to be used to obtain support for Jewish objectives. Other people suffered as much if not more during the war years. But the controllers of world propaganda are not very concerned about these people.

COMMUNISTS SUPPORT MONOPOLY

Socialists and Communists skilfully create the impression that they are opposed to monopoly. But in reality they favour monopoly because they understand that it helps them reach their objective. Communist leader R. Dixon, writing in the April issue of the "Communist Review", makes this clear:

"Lenin regarded state monopoly capitalism (resulting from nationalisation) as of importance in the advance to socialism. He spoke of socialism as 'the next step forward from state monopoly capitalism'.

"State monopoly capitalism simplifies the transfer of the means of production to the working class state and their control by the working people."

As monopoly stems from the centralised control of financial credit, it is logical that the Communists and Socialists should strenuously resist the Social Credit policy of decentralising credit control back to the individual.

JEW'S PLEAD GUILTY TO SPY CHARGE

Two of the three Jews charged with having organised a Communist espionage system in the U.S.A., Mr. and Mrs. Soble, have pleaded guilty to the charges made against them. The press continues to hide the fact that these two Communist agents are Jews. It is a significant thing that the majority of anti-Communists refuse to make any comment whatever on the fact that the majority of leading Communist agents are Jews. They will not even attempt to offer any explanations for this indisputable fact.

One prominent anti-Communist speaker in Melbourne refused to appear on the same platform as Mr. Eric Butler, not because he was unfriendly to Mr. Butler or because he did not appreciate his knowledge of Communism. But he said that he could not afford to appear on the same platform as an "anti-Semite"! There is nothing like the smear of "anti-Semitism" to make even the most courageous speak in bated press concerning the Jewish support for Communism.

I TESTIFY

I Testify, by Robert Edmondson (3/1 -, post free).

This is one of the most important Anti-Communist books ever written. It is the result of twenty years of intensive research. In 300 excellently detailed pages, Edmondson unmaskes the origins, organizers and promoters of Communism-Socialism-Marxism in the United States and Europe, withholding no punches.

"I Testify" includes more than one hundred confessions "from the horse's mouth". The author shows that Jewish Communists and Socialists direct the Eisenhower Administration just as surely as they directed the Truman-Roosevelt regimes.

Within these pages the reader will find an exclusive diary-account of the flagrantly illegal procedures of the 1942-47 "Mass-Sedition" trial in Washington. This account tells of more than seven years of vile smears, persecution and court-prosecution of patriotic men and women by powerful Reds using the facilities of the American Federal Government.

Edmondson analyses and unveils the false face of "Anti-Semitism": he quotes extensively to show that not only was Russian Bolshevik Communism established by Jews but that they still guide the Kremlin.

Before the Second World War millions of Americans were reading Edmondson's factual bulletins on Communism. He was considered so dangerous to the international usurers that a number of prominent Jews, including James Paul Warburg, approached him personally in an attempt to make him divert his energies into less fundamental aspects of the fight against Communism.

"BRAIN-WASHING"

Secret Communist Textbook

(4/3 post free)

This synthesis of the Communist manual on brainwashing is one of the most shocking documents ever made available on the worldwide conspiracy against Christianity. The manual is used to train secretly chosen Communists in psycho-politics, which is defined as "the art and science of asserting and maintaining dominion over the thoughts and loyalties of individuals, officers, bureaus, and masses, and the effecting of the conquest of enemy nations through 'mental healing'." In other words, the aim of psycho-politics is TOTAL DEGRADATION of all people, except the "Chosen Few" of the world bureaucracy who will rule over the rest.

The lectures instruct Communists in the corruption of youth and the exploitation of immorality; they explain to "operators" how to hold sane people in insane asylums without civil rights; how to use the frightful electric shock treatment and brain operations for Communist ends. And an introductory chapter to this book, written by Mr. Eric D. Butler, shows that all these vile arts and sciences are being used, HERE AND NOW, and that a certain type of psychiatry is nothing more than a disguised agency for World Communism.

This terrifying document, whose authenticity has been tested by enquiries in many parts of the world, displays an almost superhuman and devilish insight into the foibles and weaknesses of human beings. It boasts of how income tax was slipped into capitalist countries many years ago as a means towards their ultimate destruction; it shows "operators" how capitalist countries, given over to materialism, will co-operate eagerly in their own downfall.

"The Capitalist does not know the definition of war. He thinks of war as attack with force performed by soldiers and machines. He does not know that a more effective if somewhat longer war can be fought with bread or, in our case, with drugs and the wisdom of our art."

It is important that Christians do all in their power to get copies of this hair-raising book into the hands of as many Australians as possible, as quickly as possible.

The Strange Case of Egerton Herbert Norman

The worldwide campaign to white-wash E. Herbert Norman, Canadian diplomat who recently committed suicide in Cairo would appear to indicate that some powerful individuals may be concerned about possible future disclosures concerning Norman's activities while in Cairo during the critical developments of the past six months.

All those defending Norman make no attempt to deal objectively with the charges made against him. They infer that the charges of pro-Communism made against him by American investigators are baseless without making any reference whatever to facts. And the facts concerning Norman's association with Communism are clear.

Some of the facts were reported in the following item, which appeared in the League of Rights "Intelligence Survey" for August 1954:

Shortly after the Petrov affair occurred. Mr. Pat Walsh, a former Canadian Communist leader who, in a coming book, is going to outline his adventures as an undercover agent in America, Europe, Africa and the Middle East, issued a long press statement to the B.U.P. in Canada. But this important statement was suppressed; apparently because it made references to Canada's High Commissioner to New Zealand, Mr. E. H. Norman, who Mr. Walsh suggests might be involved in a vast Soviet spy ring connecting all countries bordering the Pacific.

The following is that portion of Mr. Walsh's statement, which deals with Norman's case history: Egerton Herbert Norman, like a few of our Canadian leftists was born in Japan. It certainly is a poor reflection on their parents that so many sons and daughters of Canadian missionaries were born in either Japan or China and have deserted Christianity for atheistic Marxism. In my Communist files I have the names of about fifty LPP (Labor Progressive Party) members who fall into this category. It now seems that the Canadian Academy at Kobe was a veritable breeding ground of Communist ideology.

I met Norman when I was with the Canadian League Against War and Fascism in Toronto in the late thirties. I was introduced to Norman by A. A. McLeod, who later became a Communist LLP Member of Parliament in Ontario. Because of Norman's ability to speak both "Chinese and Japanese, the Communists utilized him the Chinese People", an affiliate of the "American Friends of the Chinese People". Both these organizations were controlled by the Communists but many "dupes" were roped in who did not suspect that these organizations were merely "fronts" of the Communist Parties of the U.S.A. and Canada. Our diplomat then was known as "Herbie" Norman. He did not stay very long around Toronto. He was a very brilliant student in the Japanese department at Columbia for a while, and whilst there he belonged to the Communist student group that went to a special Communist summer school in Cape Cod. A former Communist, Dr. Karl Wittfogel, has testified under oath that Norman attended this school along with other students.

We next find Norman at the Canadian Legation in Tokyo where he was leading a double life, apparently a young assiduous staff worker but in reality serving as a "mail drop" for a whole network of old-time Communist wheel-horses who operated all over the Far East and amongst whom we find Gunther Stein (deported from France in 1950 for Soviet espionage activities), Edgar Snow (author of "Red Star Over China"), our old friend Dr. James Endicott, Kenneth Woodsworth (also born in Japan), who was Secretary of the Canadian Youth Congress from 1937 to 1940 and was active in trying to pooh-pooh the 1946 Canadian Spy Trials on behalf of the LPP Emergency Committee. During the war Woodsworth successfully infiltrated the Canadian Intelligence Corps and was sent to Tokyo in 1945 to assist in the repatriation of the Hong Kong prisoners. Prior to this he had been in Australia with No. 1 Special Wireless Company, a top secret Canadian unit . . . incidentally, he was "Captain Woodsworth" at the time!

E. C. Carter, writing to W. L. Holland (two IPR leaders) September 5, 1940: — "Any very secret messages might be sent in care of Herbert Norman at the Canadian Legation." (See p. 375 of IPR investigation.) The fact that Norman is a Canadian citizen made him "otherwise unavailable for subpoena" when the IPR hearings were going on.

Japanese pamphlets and other publications of the Communist Party of Japan have expressed gratitude to E. H. Norman because of his personal intervention in 1945 in effecting the release of imprisoned Japanese Communist leaders.

Although the Canadian government tried to hush up Norman's participation in the "Amerasia" spy case of 1946 (when confidential U.S. State Dept. documents were found in the office of the Communist publication "Amerasia"), the U.S.A. government is in possession of facts that Norman was involved with his friend Andrew Roth in this case. Norman had been a regular contributor to "Amerasia" under his name (E. Herbert Norman).

The Iron Curtain Over America

By Colonel John Beaty.

This book is a "must" for every student of international affairs. It is one of the most important books published since World War II, but, like similar books which have been appearing in America over the past few years, it has received no mention whatever in Australia by leftist book reviewers for the "Capitalist" press.

The author of "The Iron Curtain Over America" is not only an outstanding American scholar; his work with the American Military Intelligence Service during the last war enabled him to learn at first hand of the manner in which the Zionist-Communist conspiracy was being furthered under cover of war.

Colonel Beaty deals objectively with the history of the Jews, with particular reference to the fact that the ancestors of most Jews of today were Khazars, originally a people from Central Asia, and had never seen the Holy Land. He writes most penetratingly on the Jewish invasion of the U.S.A. and the subsequent Jewish impact on America's foreign and internal policies.

After outlining the treacherous, pro-Communist activities of Jews in the U.S.A., Colonel Beaty asks — and answers — the question: "Does the high ratio of appointed persons of Eastern European or contacts in United States strategic positions reflect the will of the U.S. people? If not, what controlling will does it reflect?"

"The Iron Curtain Over America" proves conclusively that not only was the second world war organised, but that it was deliberately prolonged, and only concluded when the controllers of the Zionist-Communist conspiracy had achieved their major objectives. Detailed evidence is provided of the manner in which the truth about this conspiracy has been kept from the American people.

Colonel Beaty's conclusion is that America, and other Western nations, can only survive by first defeating "the enemy within." He points out that this first step is essential before a more realistic foreign policy can be implemented, one which would obtain the friendship of all anti-Communist nations and which would seek to widen the gulf which already exists between the Moscow gangsters and their unhappy victims.

It is not surprising that Zionist organizations in the U.S.A. have been campaigning vigorously against Colonel Beaty's exposure and that pressure has been applied to the press to prevent any reference to the book. Even Church "leaders" have been used to smear Beaty. But his book continues to contribute to the general awakening in the U.S.A., an awakening that Australians unfortunately know little about.

The Church and Politics

The following letter by S. Morrow, in "The Anglican" of April 5, is an excellent statement of the true Christian view of the relationship between the Church and politics.

The article of March 22 concerning the frustration of the Reverend H. J. V efforts to spend a few dollars recalls my own experience of a few years ago when my desire to transmit 1.07 dollars to the U.S.A. for a small article of personal use was regarded by the ruling bureaucracy as a challenge to the national economy. After four months of letter writing, and several visits to the local Customs House I duly filled in the lengthy questionnaire in sextuplicate, and my bank was allowed to let its head go.

Your article recognises it as government operating "unjustly against individuals" and one of "thousands of incidents in which 'they' push ordinary citizens around."

This state of affairs presents, surely, the most serious challenge to the Church, if it is to survive as an effective force in human affairs. The conflict of today is between Power and Authority. Political, economic and financial forces so control the lives of individuals that materialist attitudes dominate human affairs. If we look back to, say, the Middle Ages we find the Church filling the role of expressing Truth, the Divine Authority, to which even kings and princes bowed, an Authority which they must recognise as superior to their earthly power, and according to which their power should be exercised. That Authority no longer exists as a binding force to direct political power.

There is an old saying that "The Devil is God inverted." Today we find the Church too often seeing anti-Christian manifestations in the political world, and taking the attitude that the Church has no concern with politics. Surely if Christianity is to affect the lives of individuals, with whose welfare Christ concerned Himself, His Church must at least lead its sheep in firm denunciation of every aspect of power which conflicts with Christian teachings. It is inconceivable that in the complex modern world each individual can have the necessary information, the time, or the intellect, to find for himself "the Truth that shall make him free." He must be helped by the guidance of trusted Authority, and surely the Church is the place to seek it.

The Roman Catholic hierarchy has to some extent carried out the responsibility of making a firm decision on the incompatibility of Christianity and Communism, so that adherents have no doubt where they stand and are free to choose the one or other, but not to try to mix incompatibles. While such action has doubtless meant the loss of some members it does not appear to have lessened the influence of that denomination amongst its remaining adherents.

While other denominations generally agree with the Roman view on the matter, they too often appear to take the view that a member of the congregations, or even a cleric, may hold and express views of similar nature to Communist philosophy, without corrective criticism from religious Authority.

The harassing of individuals by bureaucrats, denial of homes in the interests of financial policy, and the thousand other daily scourges of the individual by our alleged servants do not meet with the united, concerted and unequivocal denunciation of Authority, which alone will exalt Authority above Power in the eyes of the multitude, and lift the morality from the degradation to which it has been dragged by lawless Power. If Satan secures victory through political influence, surely the manifestations of his work in political fields must be attacked and exposed, irrespective of any "party" through which he works.

(Needless to say, Mr. Morrow is a supporter of this journal. We would like to see dozens of other supporters following his lead and sending similar letters to their Church papers. Ed. "N.T".)

New Times Lending Library

Since launching our Heritage Bookshop twelve months ago, we have discovered that there are many supporters who are keenly delirious of obtaining the information obtained in the books which we have in stock, but who cannot afford to buy the books. Most of these books are unobtainable elsewhere in Australia.

In order to try and extend our book service, we have now decided that Melbourne supporters who cannot afford to buy books may now borrow them from a Lending Library we have established. A charge of 2/6 per book will be made, and the book must not be out of the library for more than a fortnight. A fine of a 1/- per day will be imposed for every day books are not returned after a fortnight.

We regret that books cannot be sent by post. Readers must call at the office.

WITNESS

By Whittaker Chambers

Price 27/6, post-free.

It was the evidence of ex-Communist secret agent, Whittaker Chambers, before the House Committee on Un-American Activities, which caused top Communist espionage agent in the U.S.A., Alger Hiss, to be indicted and convicted on a charge of perjury. Not only the American people but many people in other countries were startled by the disclosure that the official who advised President Roosevelt, helped draft the disastrous Yalta Agreement in 1945, and who was the first Secretary-General of the United Nations Organisation, was a Communist agent.

Before being finally convicted, Alger Hiss, aided by some of the most influential people in America, fought back against Chambers, who was subjected to a whispering campaign described by one prominent American writer as "one of the most repellent in modern history". Chambers replies to this campaign in one of the most important autobiographies of our times. Not only does this book deal exhaustively with the Hiss-Chambers battle before the Committee on Un-American Activities and the Courts; it is a moving human document which explains how Chambers first became a Communist, his work in the secret Communist apparatus, how he met Alger Hiss and worked with him, and how eventually he came to repudiate Communism.

Near the conclusion of his book, Chambers makes one of the most important observations yet made on the Hiss-Chambers case: "No feature of the Hiss case is more obvious, or more troubling as history, than the jagged fissure, which it did not so much open as reveal, between the plain men and women of the nation, and those who affected to act, think and speak for them. It was, not invariably, but in general, the 'best people' who were for Alger Hiss and who were prepared to go to almost any length to protect and defend him. It was the enlightened and the powerful, the clamorous proponents of the open-mind and the common man, who kept their minds shut in a pro-Hiss psychosis, of a kind which, in an individual patient, means the simple failure of the ability to distinguish between reality and unreality, and, in a nation, is a warning of the end." "Witness" must be read and studied by those who want to know the truth about Alger Hiss and his part in the Communist conspiracy in the U.S.A. Every student of Communism and international affairs must have this work on his shelves. No one with an unbiassed mind can read it without realising that Hiss was undoubtedly guilty of the charges made against him.

Communism and The Race Question

In the fight against Communism and allied movements, it is important that Christians be armed with information as to the 'parentage' and financial backing of organisations active in the political, social and economics spheres.

One such organisation, which has been getting a lot of publicity in the secular and religious press, is the National Association for the Advancement of Coloured People, which is waging a vigorous campaign in the United States for "racial desegregation".

Many well-meaning people have been praising the NAACP without realising that it is a Communist-front organisation run by Communists, Communist-fronters and International Financiers.

To keep the record straight the Victorian League of Rights has issued an 8-page pamphlet documenting the pro-Communist leadership of the NAACP and showing the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court to end 'segregation' in American schools was a pro-Communist manoeuvre carried out by men very much under the influence of Justice Felix Frankfurter who is one of the leaders of the world conspiracy against Christianity.

FROM ADMIRAL TO CABIN BOY

By Admiral Sir Barry
Domville . . . . . 14/6

This book may be described as a biographical history of international affairs from the end of World War I to 1943. Admiral Domville has an excellent knowledge of the part played in world affairs by the Jews; this knowledge caused him to be imprisoned for three years.

AN INDIVIDUAL

An Autobiography, by Frank Lloyd Wright (57/- post free). With 76 illustrations. This is the story of a great architect who has spent his life trying to make buildings MEAN something, in the cultural sense. His turbulent career brought him up against the money problem and he was not slow to speak out. Any mistakes he made regarding current affairs were not so much Wright's fault—he was a busy man—but the fault of the weak-minded literati who did not provide him with the real facts. A lively book.

TO WHAT END? An Analysis of Modern Society

By James Guthrie, B.Sc.

Why has the revolution in the supply market not been paralleled by a revolution in the buying market?

What is the purpose of industry?

Are important political problems essentially religious?

What is the Christian concept of freedom?

These and many other fundamental questions are answered in this thought-provoking booklet.

This booklet can be specially recommended to all those desirous of introducing responsible citizens to the Social Credit approach to the problems of the day. It should be placed in the hands of all clergy.
