"DRAW THE LINE" CAMPAIGN NOW UNDER WAY

Every "New Times" Reader Can Help

Speaking at a meeting of Melbourne supporters last Friday, July 19, Mr. Eric Butler outlined the new "Draw the Line" campaign and made suggestions to Melbourne campaigners who are preparing themselves for an intensive house-to-house canvass. In his address Mr. Butler said that it was often claimed that Social Crediters were unrealistic in that they advocated objectives, which were not immediately practical. This claim was not true, because Social Crediters did realise that they had to take one trench at a time. The problem was one of finding tactical issues, which could be used to further the general strategy. Taxation was the major issue, which it was proposed to use between now and the next Federal Elections.

Mr. Butler made the following points: The new campaign being launched was designed to compel responsible members of the community to give consideration to the question of whether it was possible 'to draw the line' concerning the growth of taxation and other restrictions on the freedom of the individual. The campaign would also be an excellent one for extending the work amongst the Christian clergy. Mr. Butler instanced a recent interview he had with a clergyman who readily agreed in principle that the political, economic and financial system should conform to the Moral Law. But he had given no thought to the practical application of the principle. Mr. Butler then suggested that the more Caesar taxed the individual, the less personal sovereignty the individual possessed and the less opportunity he had of serving God. The clergyman again agreed. Mr. Butler then pointed out that the clergy had a special duty to condemn taxation policies, which reduced the sovereignty of the individual. They must surely "draw the line" somewhere. The clergyman admitted that he could see that there must be some line beyond which Caesar was not permitted to advance. Mr. Butler concluded the interview by suggesting to the clergyman that he and his colleagues would have to give some earnest thought to where to "draw the line". The clergyman promised that he would do this, stating that he had been brought face to face with a problem, which he must solve. Mr. Butler said he was certain that if sufficient responsible people were approached along the lines he suggested, a firm foundation could be established upon which it would be possible to build. The fact had to be faced that there were no worthwhile foundations at present. While Social Crediters should continue to outline the type of structure, which it was physically possible to erect, they must be realists and realise that the foundations upon which it was proposed to build had been almost destroyed and would have to be replaced. The philosophy of the anti-Christ was in the ascendant today because there was no effective resistance to the policies rooted in this philosophy. While there was not the slightest doubt that the position would be much worse today if it had not been the valiant efforts of the Social Crediters, who had successfully lead the resistance to many policies designed to undermine individual rights and liberties, it was also true that there had been a general retreat against the constant pressure of the enemy of Christendom. What was proposed in the campaign now being launched, was that Social Crediters should seize the initiative and launch a tactical offensive which, as it gained momentum, could be reinforced with other offensives.

While it was proposed to approach numerous business, professional and other organisations throughout Australia, as well as the clergy and other responsible individuals, this new campaign could not be successful unless enthusiastically supported by all Social Crediters.

For a start all supporters could do the following things: (1) Forward a copy of the letter published elsewhere in this issue (or

OUR POLICY

1. The support of all policies rooted in the Christian philosophy of freedom and based upon the Moral Law.
2. The preservation of Australia's sovereignty as a part of the British Empire, and the exposure of all internal and external groups, which attack that sovereignty.
3. The preservation and extension of genuine local government.
4. The preservation and strengthening of all Constitutional safeguards for the purpose of protecting fundamental individual rights.
5. The encouragement of all activities designed to bring Governments under more effective control by the electors.
6. The preservation and extension of genuine free, competitive enterprise and private ownership, and opposition to all Monopoly, whether it be "private" or State.
7. The support of a financial policy, which will (a) permit free enterprise to make available to all individuals an increasing standard of living and greater leisure for cultural pursuits, (b) result in no further increase to the community's indebtedness and the sound business practice of gradually reducing existing debt. Recognising that the basis of any sound economy is agriculture, the encouragement of agricultural policies which will ensure the preservation and building up of soil fertility by organic farming and gardening; and the prevention of soil erosion and the protection of forests and watersheds.

write a similar letter) to all local papers. The Social Credit Action Group Secretariat will help with any correspondence, which may develop. (2) Obtain a supply of the leaflet, "Satan in Politics", enclosed with this issue, and distribute widely. Make certain the clergy obtains a copy. If possible, discuss the matter personally with the clergy. (3) Write a letter to Federal Members asking them to state in definite terms just where they feel that the Government should "draw the line" concerning taxation, both direct and indirect. We will be pleased to hear from supporters concerning replies received.

Other developments in this campaign, which are still only in the planning stage, will be announced shortly. But all supporters can immediately help get the campaign under way.

Send This Letter to Your Local Newspaper

As one of the opening "shots" in the "Draw The Line" Campaign in your district, we suggest that you submit the following letter, or a similar one, to your local paper under the heading, "Can We Draw The Line Concerning Taxation?"

Sir,

As the time for the presentation of the Federal Budget comes near, worried taxpayers are watching hopefully for some sign that the Federal Government proposes to allow them to spend a little more of their own money in their own way. But an examination of the Government's last statement on financial and economic policy — prepared by the very economic planners who appear to dictate policy — and the recent remarks by the Federal Treasurer, Sir Arthur Fadden, who complains that he has been asked for taxation reductions totalling hundreds of millions, would appear to indicate that taxpayers are expected to resign themselves to a permanent policy of high taxation.

The power to tax is, of course, the power to destroy. And this raises the very serious question, which every responsible person concerned with defeating the growing threat of the policy of growing power for Governments — and Government Departments — at the expense of the individual, must face. Not only is a policy of high taxation having a serious effect upon the economy — this has been referred to on numerous occasions in recent times—; it is also resulting in a lowering of moral standards in the community. There has recently appeared in the U.S.A. a sensational best-selling novel by a Mr. Cameron Hawley in which the hero, a businessman, "degenerates morally under the influence of laws which invite corruption." Mr. Hawley received a flood of letters from people in all walks of life who saw themselves in the same plight as Mr. Hawley's hero. The same thing is happening in Australia today, where most taxpayers feel that taxation bears little relationship to genuine Government requirements, and has become an instrument by which anonymous planners at Canberra use the excuse of alleged "economic necessity", or some similar pretext, to control people's lives.

Surely it is time that people who regard Magna Carta, the Bill of Rights, and Common Law as vital parts of their British heritage, honestly and openly faced this issue. The question, which I desire to ask Sir, is whether or not there is a point where we can draw the line concerning the gradual encroachment of Government upon the rights of the individual? Human rights are moral factors of the greatest consequence and infringements of them, except as a temporary matter on grounds of the direst necessity, are immoral acts.

If a people through sheer feebleness of character are unable to "draw the line" at any plan or policy of economist or politician and assert that they have certain rights which they will not sacrifice at any price then the art of the possible in politics passes out of the hands of men capable of pursuing policies which lead to a higher civilisation into the hands of debased power-seekers, to whom the object of the art of the possible is not the advance of civilisation but how to make men and women more and more the subjects of their will to power.

The purpose of addressing these remarks to whoever will read them is to ascertain if there is in our society a point where a substantial and determined body of people will "draw the line" at sacrificing their liberties and rights, and if so, where it is. If there is no such line of resistance then nothing can stop the whole world becoming a Communist Slave State. On the other hand if there is such a line then that is a firm base on which effective resistance can be organised to stop and defeat the forces, which are working to enslave us.

Perhaps there are others amongst your readers who are concerned about this question of whether we can draw the line. If there are, perhaps some start could be made in the community to make it clear to the Federal Member before the coming Budget that taxation and other policies should be based upon principles that are directly related to morality.

Yours etc.,

We would be pleased to see copies of any papers, which publish the above letter, and any correspondence resulting from the letter.

Patriots Must Fight 'Mental Health' Campaign

The greatest threat to our remaining freedom is the current 'mental health' campaign now being whipped-up by experts in brainwashing. 'Mental health' propaganda, already well advanced in England and the United States, has appeared in Australia. We have reason to believe that psychopolitics (as outlined in our book "Brainwashing", 4/3d. posted) is now being practiced in Australia and that psycho political 'operators' may already be holding important positions in the community where they will be able to inflict terrible damage on unsuspecting minds. The June issue of "Intelligence Survey" includes a report on brainwashing and mental health, just received from the United States. In addition, the "New Times" has just published a six-page brochure warning about brainwashing. All readers are urged to help spread these brochures throughout Australia and free copies are available immediately from the New Times office. (Where possible readers are asked to send Sid. to cover postage.)

Negro Paper in U.S. Attacks Jewish Pressure

A large Negro paper, the "Herald-Dispatch", published in Los Angeles, has been writing articles against Jewish attempts to use Negroes for Jewish ends. In one article the paper said: "The White Citizens Councils are above board and fight above the ground while the Jewish pressure groups use threats, innuendos and boycott in an attempt to control the Negro."

Robert H. Williams reports in his "Intelligence Summary" that "Sammy Gach, Marxist revolutionary who for years has published the California 'Jewish Voice' in his April 19 issue attacked S. Alexander, Negro publisher of the Los Angeles 'Herald-Dispatch', saying 'This particular paper over the months has been keeping up an unrelenting attack on Israel and its friends'. We have also received a report from New Orleans where Police Sergeant Hubert Badeaux, an expert on Communism, says he has 'thousands of documents to support the charge of penetration of the NAACP by the Communist Party.' The NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Coloured People) is run by Jews, Marxists and fellow travellers.

Extensive documentation on the NAACP and the people who run it is to be found in the pamphlet "Communism and the Race Question" available from the New Times office (9d. posted).

Ford Foundation Continues to Aid Reds

The Ford Foundation has decided to give half a million dollars to colleges and educational committees in Poland for the purpose of promoting exchange information on culture and science. Like Mr. John Foster Dulles, the Ford Foundation is extremely consistent in its errors, which follow a definite pattern. It will be big news the day the Foundation makes a large sum of money available to some organisation, which promotes nationalism or genuine economic freedom. (It will be even bigger news the day John Foster Dulles makes an "error" in our favour, instead of against us!)

Two Important Books by Naval Men

Unconditional Hatred, by Captain Russell Grenfell, R.N. (41/- posted). Specially imported from the United States, this book, by the late Captain Grenfell, is a "must" for students of World War II. Captain Grenfell, an acknowledged expert in strategy, who helped direct the Royal Naval Staff College, here exposes the terrible errors of Churchill and Roosevelt. Because no British publisher would handle it, this book had to go to the courageous New York firm of Devin-Adair for its first publication.

Final Secret of Pearl Harbour, by Admiral Theobald (40 - posted). Admiral Theobald, a distinguished American naval officer here reveals the treachery of Roosevelt in forcing the Japanese to attack Pearl Harbour. He shows, step by step, how the commanders at Pearl Harbour were kept ignorant of real events while Roosevelt and fellow warmongers in Washington practically guided the Japanese to their target. Roosevelt sacrificed thousands of men and a number of important ships in order to force the reluctant American public into war.

Taxation And Inflation

The only realistic comment we have seen following the recent announcement of the cost of living figures came from Mr. A. N. Curphey, General Manager of the Victorian Chamber of Manufactures. Mr. Curphey stated bluntly that inflation would continue until taxation was reduced and the burden of Government was eased. We would not agree that a reduction in taxation is the complete answer to inflation. But it would be an excellent start in the right direction. Even Mr. Menzies has supported this view—although it was back in 1949 before the famous Federal Election of that year. It is high time that Liberal and Country Party supporters were strongly reminded of the promise to "put the shillings back into the pound" by reducing taxation and the burden of Government.

Inflation is, in spite of all the theories of the "experts", directly related to taxation. Increased taxation has been used in all the major countries of the world in an alleged attempt to prevent prices from rising. But the results have demonstrated that inflation continues. The present British Government is now facing a major crisis because in spite of its restrictive taxation and credit policies, inflation has continued. Inflation is a major problem in the U.S.A. and most European countries. Judged by results, high taxation has failed to prevent inflation. And the reasons why it has failed are not hard to see.

It is axiomatic that practically all taxation must find its way into prices. Producers and retailers are unpaid tax collectors for the Government. Not only do business organisations attempt to charge all taxation into prices; they must employ extra staff for the purpose of collecting taxes like sales tax and pay roll tax and forwarding them to the taxation department. It is not readily realised that apart from the growing Federal bureaucracy there is a large number of people employed by private enterprise who should also be termed part of the burden of bureaucracy!

At the present level of taxation, both direct and indirect, it has been estimated that approximately half of the average weekly wage of £17 per week goes to meet taxation. It is clear, therefore, that even within the present financial framework, there is considerable scope for reducing prices by reducing taxation. Sales tax and pay-roll tax are directly inflationary and an excellent start in the right direction could be made by abolishing these two forms of taxation completely.

Any demand for tax reductions is, of course met with the query of how the Government is to obtain sufficient revenue for its purposes. But the major tax increases imposed have been justified, not by the alleged necessity that the Government requires more revenue, but by the inflation problem. This has been a most dishonest argument, and for our own part we doubt whether the "experts" believe it themselves. A very big part of taxation is levied for the purpose of ensuring that the Government can exercise what is termed the power of social planning. A large number of people tolerate a high taxation policy so long as they feel it is benefitting them at the expense of someone else. It is essential that it be brought home to all individuals that taxation affects all of them, because they all must purchase goods and pay that part of price, which represents taxation.

Are YOU Attending Annual Dinner and Seminar?

All those supporters intending to attend the Annual Dinner on Friday, September 20, and the Annual Social Credit Seminar, on Saturday, September 21, would assist us if they let us know at the earliest possible moment. We will arrange hospitality or accommodation, for any country and interstate visitors who require it. We are confident that this year's Dinner and Seminar will reflect the development of the Movement over the past twelve months.

The three Seminar papers this year will be given by Mrs. Lucille Quinlan, Mr. John Haywood and Mr. Eric Butler. Mrs. Quinlan's paper will deal with Social Credit From the Women's Point of View. Mr. John Haywood, one of the pioneers of the movement in Melbourne and a recognised authority on the technical aspects of Social Credit, will deal with The Political Implications Of The Deficiency of Purchasing Power. This paper will be of great interest to many of the newcomers to Social Credit. Mr. Eric Butler will deal with Social Credit and The Jewish Problem. This paper should help to remove many misconceptions concerning one of the most important questions of the twentieth century.

U.S. Catholics Attack Penetration of Church

Anthony T. Bouscaren a professor at Marquette University claimed recently that there are "Catholics who, in their eagerness to be 'liberal', conclude that they have something in common with Communists which they do not share with 'reactionaries' and non-'liberals' . . . There is the professor in a Catholic college who was refused academic tenure . . . because he was 'controversially anti-Communist'... There is the professor from a prominent Midwestern Catholic school who wrote in a well-known Catholic periodical on March 1, 1957: 'I see no reason why a past or present member of the Communist Party should be excluded . . . from teaching in a Catholic school.'" Profosor Bouscaren gives a number of other similar examples of permeation of Catholic circles by the poison of liberalism.

A similar warning was given in the Brooklyn "Tablet" of June 1 by the Rev. Hugh Halton, O.P., who is chaplain for Catholic students at Princeton University. The "Tablet" reports: Father Halton deplored the excessive liberalism which sets the tone of the universities . . . This excessive liberalism, the speaker said, has infiltrated even Catholic universities, and some Catholics, both of clergy and laity."

Dr. Adenauer and International Finance

The "Daily Express" in London has recorded an interesting sidelight on the West German Chancellor, Dr. Adenauer. His first call after arriving in New York earlier this year was to the home of the multi-millionaire financier D. N. Heinemann. The "Express" goes on to compare Heinemann to Sir Basil Zaharoff. A. K. Chesterton, writing in "Candour", draws attention to the fact that whenever such comparisons are made, they are always with such names as Zaharoff, never with Rothschild, Warburg, Lehmann or Baruch, the real power masters behind the scenes.

Jewish Scientists in Russia

The following message has been reported from Jerusalem: "An Israeli scientist who returned from a Congress in Moscow reported that there are now 224,000 scientists in Russia working in 3,000 research institutes. Almost 50,000 of these scientists are Jews. The Jewish population in Russia is now 31 million."

I TESTIFY

I Testify, by Robert Edmondson (31/-, post free).

This is one of the most important Anti-Communist books ever written. It is the result of twenty years of intensive research. In 300 excellently detailed pages, Edmondson unmaskes the origins, organizers and promoters of Communism-Socialism-Marxism in the United States and Europe, withholding no punches.

"I Testify" includes more than one hundred confessions "from the horse's mouth". The author shows that Jewish Communists and Socialists direct the Eisenhower Administration just as surely as they directed the Truman-Roosevelt regimes.

Within these pages the reader will find an exclusive diary-account of the flagrantly illegal procedures of the 1942-47 "Mass-Sedition" trial in Washington. This account tells of more than seven years of vile smears, persecution and court-prosecution of patriotic men and women by powerful Reds using the facilities of the American Federal Government.

Edmondson analyses and unveils the false face of "Anti-Semitism"; he quotes extensively to show that not only was Russian Bolshevik Communism established by Jews but that they still guide the Kremlin.

Before the Second World War millions of Americans were reading Edmondson's factual bulletins on Communism. He was considered so dangerous to the international usurers that a number of prominent Jews, including James Paul Warburg, approached him personally in an attempt to make him divert his energies into less fundamental aspects of the fight against Communism.

"BRAIN-WASHING"

Secret Communist Textbook

(4/3 post free)

This synthesis of the Communist manual on brainwashing is one of the most shocking documents ever made available on the worldwide conspiracy against Christianity. The manual is used to train secretly chosen Communists in psycho-politics, which is defined as "the art and science of asserting and maintaining dominion over the thoughts and loyalties of individuals, officers, bureaus, and masses, and the effecting of the conquest of enemy nations through 'mental healing'." In other words, the aim of psycho-politics is TOTAL DEGRADATION of all people, except the "Chosen Few" of the world bureaucracy who will rule over the rest.

The lectures instruct Communists in the corruption of youth and the exploitation of immorality; they explain to "operators" how to hold sane people in insane asylums without civil rights; how to use the frightful electric shock treatment and brain operations for Communist ends. And an introductory chapter to this book, written by Mr. Eric D. Butler, shows that all these vile arts and sciences are being used, HERE AND NOW, and that a certain type of psychiatry is nothing more than a disguised agency for World Communism.

This terrifying document, whose authenticity has been tested by enquiries in many parts of the world, displays an almost superhuman and devilish insight into the foibles and weaknesses of human beings. It boasts of how income tax was slipped into capitalist countries many years ago as a means towards their ultimate destruction; it shows "operators" how capitalist countries, given over to materialism, will co-operate eagerly in their own downfall.

"The Capitalist does not know the definition of war. He thinks of war as attack with force performed by soldiers and machines. He does not know that a more effective if somewhat longer war can be fought with bread or, in our case, with drugs and the wisdom of our art." It is important that Christians do all in their power to get copies of this hair-raising book into the hands of as many Australians as possible, as quickly as possible.

NOTES ON THE NEWS

How Safe is the United States?

There are many honest but misguided people who imagine that the United States is a solid anti-Communist bastion. Recent reports reaching this office from a number of sources in North America illustrate how foolish and dangerous this view is.

Herbert A. Philbrick, former F.B.I. underground agent and an expert on Communist Party techniques, wrote in May this year that U.S. Reds are operating "above ground" again and have greatly intensified their efforts to work in "united fronts" with other left-wing groups. The latest such "united front" is the American Forum for Socialist Education. We have a list of key members and they are the usual fellow travellers and Communist-fronters. One member who will greatly aid the Reds by providing respectable "window-dressing" is an American Catholic editor.

In a hearing before the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee recently it was revealed, "Vital communication lines through New York City are in 'unacceptably high' danger of sabotage because of Communist domination of a labour union representing Western Union and RCA telegraph employees . . ."

Experts testified that saboteurs could put the New York office of Western Union out of operation for weeks or even months. In addition, "practically all employees" of Western Union have access to messages sent over the lines, including military and confidential industrial data.

A report we have from Washington says that Otto Nathan, associate professor of Economics at New York University, has been convicted on three counts of contempt of Congress. Nathan, executor of the estate of the late Albert Einstein claimed in an affidavit to the State Department that he had never been a Communist. Later, when questioned by the House un-American Activities Committee he refused to say whether this statement was true or not.

Another indication of the Red power in the U.S. is the fact that Donald Hiss, brother of the notorious Alger Hiss, has not yet been troubled by investigators. Whittaker Chambers testified that BOTH the Hiss brothers were members of the Communist Party. Donald Hiss is now a member of the law firm of Covington & Burling in Washington, of which the infamous Dean Acheson is also a member.

It should be kept in mind also that two Jews, General Curtis LeMay and General Lyman Lemnitzer are now practically in command of the entire U.S. Army and Air Force.

THE KEYLINE PLAN

By P. A. YEOMANS.

38/9 posted

An Australian book clearly and simply setting out by word and plan the author's method of cultivation for the absorption of moisture and conservation of water. Dam construction and placing, tree preservation and planting, are all stressed. The book is rounded off by many beautiful photographs showing the results of his methods. The main farm implement he uses is the Graham chisel plough, and in this and many other ways P. A. Yeomans closely resembles Louis Bromfield in his writing and methods.

"The Land," 16/7/54: —

The basic principle of the plan is that water conservation on the pastoral areas is the most important factor in developing soil fertility because the decay of vegetable matter depends on the retention of moisture in the soil.

The book deals with the method of doing so efficiently and economically. Every man or woman who loves the land and its trees and is seeking a way to increase soil fertility should have "The Keyline Plan" on his or her bookshelf.

"Protection from Polio"

A most illuminating summary of the causation of Polio and an expose of the failure of orthodox drug methods to solve this problem is contained in a new book under this title by Australia's well-known Health writer, Mira Louise of Adelaide.

We are reminded that during the past 2 or 3 years, while the newspapers have been concentrating upon a build-up for vaccine, not a single paragraph has been published concerning the cause of this much-dreaded complaint. Indeed Organised Medicine, whilst admitting that it did not know the cause, has gone as far as to say that there is no known cure for Poliomyelitis.

In striking contrast to this "don't-know-don't-want-to-know" attitude that typifies orthodoxy in this country, comes the welcome news of the outstanding results obtained by the well-organised chiropractic associations overseas. Men, we are told, who have worked unceasingly without endowment or subsidy for an ideal until their reward came in the remarkable results in such methods as the "Dunn Five-Day Polio Cure" which makes it possible for the worst cases of crippling polio to be completely recovered in a week or less. The same cures are being made in the Mills Chiropractic Clinic in Burlington, Kansas; in the Spears Hospital in Denver and elsewhere.

Dr. Mills has discovered that the cause is generally faulty nutrition, and adds as contributing causes, fatigue, falls, tonsil surgery and D.D.T. sprays while Dr. McClosky of Melbourne Children's Hospital who investigated 375 cases of polio in 1949, disclosed a definite relationship with injections against whooping cough and diphtheria.

A personal friend of Madame Louise's, on a recent tour of U.S.A. writes, "I am having a wonderful time here, investigating the chiropractic five-day polio cure . . . have already been to 3 clinics and seen acute victims restored to complete, normal health, with no paralysis or distortion, in three to five days."

In conclusion, Mira Louise touches on the subject of Animal Experimentation, or Scientific Research as it is known, and after reading these details we thoroughly agree with Mark Twain who declared, "Man is the only animal that blushes . . . or has cause to."

dangerous habit. He declared that many of the deadly infection found now in the bodies of people might be directly caused by the use of these dangerous and deadly antibiotic drugs. He urged the people to either never use such drugs, or to use them with the greatest of caution in time of dire emergency. It is downright tragic to see people trusting their doctors when they have just a slight cold, or some little disorder that could be taken care of by fasting, taking enemas and natural herb laxatives, or living on fruit juices for a few days, yet they receive shot after shot of penicillin and other powerful antibiotic drugs. Little do they realize they are filling their bodies with something that may cause a deadly infection, or cause chain reaction that may result in the appearance of many dangerous symptoms in their bodies later on.

The Parable of Crow and Mockingbird

by Po' Li

"Listen to Mockingbird! He's been sitting on that pole singing all morning!" said Number One Crow.

"Now, there's no reason why any Bird should sing that much," said Crow Number Two. "We don't do it. Well, actually we CAN'T do it."

"Well, anyway I FEEL he must be crazy," said Number One Crow, "Listen! Even the Sparrows are singing. Why is it that we can't sing and Farmer shoots at us?"

"That's because they're prejudiced against us Crows!" said Number Two Crow, "Farmer certainly is! Every time I go to his cornfield he shoots at me. We must stick together."

Number One Crow said, "There's Mockingbird STILL singing and no one shoots at him! Yes, he's crazy. He should be in a mental institution. We'll ask Big Brother what kind of disorder Mockingbird has. Singing all the time. All that singing for nothing. Doesn't he know there's nothing for him to crow about? After all, we're ALL alike! I mean to say, ALL Birds, you know. WHY should HE sing like that? We don't! But then, we're normal. He'll have to be analyzed, if he can't stop singing in such an Abnormal way. All these trills and high notes. Never a caw at all! We must go to Big Brother's. He just flew in from Vienna. It's too shockingly abnormal to sing like that!"

The Iron Curtain Over America

By Colonel John Beaty.

This book is a "must" for every student of international affairs. It is one of the most important books published since World War II, but, like similar books which have been appearing in America over the past few years, it has received no mention whatever in Australia by leftist book reviewers for the "Capitalist" press.

I author of "The Iron Curtain Over America" is not only an outstanding American scholar; his work with the American Military Intelligence Service during the last war enabled him to learn at first hand of the manner in which the Zionist-Communist conspiracy was being furthered under cover of war.

Colonel Beaty deals objectively with the history of the Jews, with particular reference to the fact that the ancestors of most Jews of today were Khazars, originally a people from Central Asia, and had never seen the Holy Land. He writes most penetratingly on the Jewish invasion of the U.S.A. and the subsequent Jewish impact on America's foreign and internal policies.

After outlining the treacherous, pro-Communist activities of Jews in the U.S.A., Colonel Beaty asks — and answers — the question: "Does the high ratio of appointed persons of Eastern European or contacts in United States strategic positions reflect the will of the U.S. people? If not, what controlling will does it reflect?"

"The Iron Curtain Over America" proves conclusively that not only was the second world war organised, but that it was deliberately prolonged, and only concluded when the controllers of the Zionist-Communist conspiracy had achieved their major objectives. Detailed evidence is provided of the manner in which the truth about this conspiracy has been kept from the American people.

Colonel Beaty's conclusion is that America, and other Western nations, can only survive by first defeating "the enemy within." He points out that this first step is essential before a more realistic foreign policy can be implemented, one which would obtain the friendship of all anti-Communist nations and which would seek to widen the gulf which already exists between the Moscow gangsters and their unhappy victims.

It is not surprising that Zionist organisations in the U.S.A. have been campaigning vigorously against Colonel Beaty's exposure and that pressure has been applied to the press to prevent any reference to the book. Even Church "leaders" have been used to smear Beaty. But his book continues to contribute to the general awakening in the U.S.A., an awakening that Australians unfortunately know little about.

HOW RED IS THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT?

The answer to this question is to be found, in part, in Elizabeth Churchill Brown's new book "THE ENEMY AT HIS BACK" which has just been published in the United States. The answer, and the facts which support this answer, do not make very pleasant reading for those who support the Christian way of life.

It is clear beyond doubt from this important publication, with its devastating facts, that there are Communists still holding key positions in the American Government, who are able to erect an impenetrable Iron Curtain whenever some investigator begins to probe after them.

In this book Elizabeth Churchill Brown documents every step she takes. She quotes from Congressional Hearings; from government reports and memorandums; from biographies and private letters; and what emerges is the story of a great nation eaten from within — with its vital insides eaten away by Communists, to a stage where American armies, fighting for their lives, can be deprived of supplies by their own government; where members of Congress seeking answers to important questions can be told, in language hardly less blunt, to go jump in the Potomac River.

All this sounds incredible and yet all these things have happened in recent years. Congressman Francis E. Walter, Chairman of the House Committee on un-American Activities, says of Elizabeth Brown's book that it "picks up the Communist line in Moscow and follows it to the United States assembly line of Communists, fellow-travellers and dupes in our government. For the first time the American public will have a clear-inside view of how Communist strategy influenced U.S. policies."

POETRY AND CRITICISM

The Literary Essays of Ezra Pound (51/-). This book includes in its pages the most important literary criticism of our time. Pound does not talk about "literature", or chatter just for the sake of writing essays, but draws attention to specific poems or prose.

ABC of Reading, by Ezra Pound (15/-). First published in 1934, this book provides a sound guide to the best in English literature and includes substantial quotations from key poems. Written by a man who believes literature has important work to do, such as the protection of the language from corruption, propaganda, etc.

Translations of Ezra Pound (51/-). Poems translated include sonnets by the medieval Italian poet, Guido Cavalcanti; the Anglo-Saxon poem, "The Seafarer"; work by the Chinese poet, Li Po; and songs of the Troubadours of Provence. In some cases the poet recreates the original in English verse of a high order; in others he aims merely at giving the reader some idea of excellences of rhyme or sound or feeling, which cannot be brought over into English.

The Struggle For Europe, by Chester Wilmot (36/3). Masterful work which shows how the Americans, towards the end of the Second World War, accepted Russian predominance in Europe and Asia. Wilmot claims that this anti-British attitude of the Americans provided Russia with the greatest of her victories.

EMPIRE OF FEAR

Empire of Fear, by Vladimir and Evdokia Petrov (23/6 post free). The Petrovs, before they decided to seek refuge in Australia in 1954, were highly skilled technicians in the Red "Security" machine, trained to observe and to remember. In this book they tell their story, including much about their life before they came to Australia. There is splendid detailed information on the ordinary people of Russia, as well as the "cogs" who help to make up the great bureaucratic machine. This book tells of several meetings with the cold, emotionless Beria: and also sheds light on the Burgess-Maclean affair. It includes an Appendix denying some of the assertions contained in Dr. Bialoguski's recent book, "The Petrov Story".
