Thought for the Week: "...The subjugation of white lands by coloured armies may, of course, occur, especially if the white world continues to rend itself with internecine wars. However, such coloured triumphs of arms are less to be dreaded than more enduring conquests like migrations which would swamp whole populations and turn countries now white into coloured man's lands irretrievably lost to the white world. Of course, these ominous possibilities existed even before 1914, but the war has rendered them much more probable.

"The most disquieting feature of the present situation, however, is not the war but the peace. The white world's inability to frame a constructive settlement, the perpetuation of intestine hatreds, and the menace of fresh white civil wars complicated by the spectre of social revolution, evoke the dread thought that the late war may be merely the first stage in a cycle of ruin.

"In fact, so absorbed is the white world with its domestic dissensions that it pays scant heed to racial problems whose importance for the future of mankind far transcend the questions which engross its attention today..."

- Lothrop Stoddard, The Rising Tide of Color (1920)

"DEMOCRACY", FROM THE TOP OF BOURKE STREET: "The overwhelming poll result on Saturday against amalgamation 'means nothing', according to a spokesman for the Minister of Local Government, Mr. Simmonds".

- LaTrobe Valley Express, August 6th.

Mr. Simmonds is one of the "Socialist Left" Ministers in the Cain Victorian Government, and "Socialist Left" means Communist. It is a political euphemism for Communist, which word frightens many voters, as it should.

The report has it, reliably, that a statement given by the Minister's press secretary conveys the information that the Poll on the amalgamation of the two Traralgon (Vic.) Shires, and the Local Government Boundaries Enquiry on the issue had now been superseded by a statewide enquiry on restructuring that could take months. Mr. Simmonds' press secretary said that "...the poll means nothing at all".

The poll, held on Saturday, August 3rd was ordered by the Minister himself. The result of the poll against amalgamation of the two shires was 74%, but the Minister can still force amalgamation. The Cain Government will have to take the backlash; inevitable we believe, from outraged voters in Gippsland electorates.

The LaTrobe Valley Express has an editorial on the front page of its issue of August 6th, and we shall reprint this for the benefit of Local Government supporters throughout Australia:

"The extraordinary response of the Local Government Minister, Mr. Simmonds, to Saturday's overwhelming 'no' vote against Traralgon amalgamation leaves the Premier, Mr. Cain, with a choice. He can accept his Minister's point of view, thus tarnishing the image of his Government and every Labor politician, or he can demand Mr. Simmonds' resignation.

"It should be remembered that Mr. Simmonds himself ordered Saturday's poll only a few weeks ago, obviously expecting the five-to-one City weighting to carry the 'yes' vote and justify his insistence on Amalgamation. But the crushing 'no' vote left no doubt as to what people involved think of his proposed change. A prudent politician would accept this and bow out gracefully.

"But not Mr. Simmonds. If his official spokesman accurately reflects the Minister's mood, Mr. Simmonds believes he knows far better than the people of Traralgon what is best for them.

"As one of the LaTrobe Valley's Labor men commented yesterday, if the Minister doesn't accept this vote, democracy is dead. If Mr. Cain believes otherwise, he should act immediately to assure Traralgon people that their democratic votes DO count."

There the matter rests. It's democracy versus the Socialist Left. No doubt our many supporters who vote in the Nunawading Province by-election on the 17th of August will keep this state of affairs in their minds.

FURTHER BOOK BANNING IN CANADA: Mr. Ron Gostick, National Director of the Canadian League of Rights, provides the following comments in the July 1985 issue of the Canadian Intelligence Service:

"Censorship and interference with freedom of speech seem to be a policy of the Progressive Conservative Federal Government. At least, they are acting as the willing agents of those interested in censorship and a totalitarian-type of 'closed' society. Our own experiences with the Federal censorship Gestapo in recent months include these incidents.

"Jack Berstein, an American Jew, in 1967 emigrated to Israel, the Promised Land. Some six years later, and much wiser, he returned to the United States, completely disillusioned with conditions in the Zionist State, which he terms both Marxist and 'racist' - a land of terrorism and violence. In his book, The Life of an American Jew in Marxist, Racist, Israel, Berstein gives a short history of Zionism, admitting that he, himself, had been a victim of Zionist propaganda. He relates his own personal experiences and the conditions he found: racial persecution, violence and terrorism, 'using' visitors by way of 'screened' tours, etc. He also deals with religion in Israel, God's Chosen Myth, and the Judeo-Christian Hoax, the New York-Tel Aviv Triangle, the invasion of Lebanon, and a warning to America. On June 20th we received notification from the Owen Sound branch of Customs that they had seized our shipment of the Berstein book, which they have classified as 'seditious under the Prohibitory Provisions of tariff item 99201-1'.

"A few days ago, Customs' Windsor office seized and classified a shipment to us of 132 books, consisting of 5 titles - Occult Theocracy, You Gentiles, Secret Societies and Subversive Movements, The Thirteenth Tribe, and Red Fog Over America - as 'prohibited'.

"No reason was given for this classification. Those familiar with some of these titles will be dumbfounded at this incredible action. For instance, The Thirteenth Tribe is a history of the Khazar stream of history, authored by the world-famous Jewish writer, Arthur Koestler. It has been selling at Coles - but is banned when imported by Canadian Intelligence Publications!

"Last October, Customs seized a shipment of The Rulers of Russia, and The Nameless War, as 'immoral or indecent'. I appealed this seizure on January 15th, but my appeal was disallowed and I then had 60 days in which to challenge the seizure in court. Before this period expired the Customs' seizure practise was overturned in a Vancouver court case, so I asked that our shipment be released. After a further 3 months, the shipment was released to us a few days ago, but with a warning that new prohibitory regulations had been established and 'should you attempt to import material of a similar nature in the future, it may be prohibited under the term of the revised tariff item, 99201-1'. The following are further remarks by Mr. Ron Gostick:

"The Baloney (this is the Canadian nickname for Prime Minister Mulroney) Government feels that Canadians can't be trusted to select their own reading on history. We must be spoon-fed only officially authorised versions. Nasty or embarrassing facts must be suppressed so that we will all arrive at the one approved viewpoint ...Isn't it incredible that Canadians allow Big Brother bureaucrat, in best '1984' style to push them around and even dictate what views we are permitted to read or express. This is Canada I'm talking about, not the Soviet Union nor Cambodia. Our Canada - the home of the free. Isn't it astounding that a people who have battled Caesar for a thousand years for responsible government and fundamental freedoms, would so suddenly succumb to the heavy hand of totalitarian suppression and censorship, which tells us a certain view is immoral or indecent today, but O.K. after a court verdict tomorrow, only to become immoral or indecent again the next day because of some new bureaucratic decree - and thereby prohibited.

"We've just seen the latest Customs' list of banned books, compiled since the new Justice Ministry 'prohibitory' initiative in April. One thing is clear: any book or booklet which probes behind the scenes of our political sham and deception, is to be suppressed...we note in the June 29th issue of the Vancouver Sun, a warning from some foreign publisher that they cannot be held responsible for books shipped to clients in Canada or to prisons, because in both cases the incidence of censorship and seizure is high and there is no insurance against bureaucratic seizure and confiscation. Yes, in Canada, not the USSR! Whitter laid down the challenge in these words:

"Now, when our land to ruin's brink is verging,
In God's name, let us speak while there is time!
Now, when the padlocks for our lips are forging,
Silence is crime.

"THE AUSTRALIAN" NATIONAL FLAG POLL: "The Australian's reader poll on the question of a new national flag has produced an unprecedented response and an unequivocal result" - The Australian, August 10th.

The result of the poll, to the question - "Do we need a new flag?" - was a thundering NO.

Dr. Rupert Goodman, the President of the Australian National Flag Association, said that this vote was in keeping with others around Australia. Dr. Rupert Goodman will be one of the Speakers at the League's National Seminar on Saturday October 5th. He will be speaking on the new assault on the Australian Flag as part of the attack on our Heritage. A referendum now on the Flag seems unlikely. No less than 77% of Australians want NO CHANGE to our Flag, and this number MUST include many ethnic Australians. The comments of the organiser of the Ausflag 88 campaign are ridiculous; so we could not be bothered reprinting them. We suppose he has a job to do and must put the best face on things.

Sir Charles Court, former Premier of Western Australia, has taken Mr. Malcolm Fraser to task over his comments on South Africa. Quite rightly, he said that Malcolm Fraser wasn't all that successful at running his own country, so should not arrogate to himself the right to lay down the law on South Africa. Sir Charles Court also stressed that, whatever view one like to take, South Africa is still superior to many of its neighbours.
