THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: "Has it ever occurred to you how remarkable it is that out of the welter of world blood there has arisen this opportunity (to establish the Zionist State of Israel)? Do you really believe that it is an accident? Do you really in your hearts believe we have been led back to Israel by a fluke?" - Zionist Leader Sir Alfred Mond as reported in the London Jewish Chronicle of 8/11/1928.

POLITICAL ZIONISM AND THE DAVID IRVING AFFAIR by Eric D. Butler:

The Political Zionists may be congratulating themselves on having kept, at least for a short period, British historian David Irving out of Australia. But in the process they have suffered a major defeat which will become increasingly obvious as events unfold. Comments concerning the powers of a small number of Zionist Jews have been publicised. Writing in The Weekend Australian of February 20th-21st, regular columnist Humphrey McQueen says that the banning of Irving "is political in the meanest sense because even without the election the Labor Party is terrified of losing votes and donations from local Zionists". McQueen could also have said that the "Opposition" Parties are also terrified, as demonstrated by the cowardly behaviour of their spokesmen, who are also endorsing the Irving ban. This is helping to strengthen the growing perception in the community that there are no basic differences between the Parties.

A survey of the Australian media reveals that every daily paper in Australia, including provincial dailies like the Albury (NSW) Border Morning Mail, has criticised the Irving ban, most, of course, observing how "abnoxious" Irving's views are, but that a nation allegedly committed to freedom of speech should permit Irving to express his views. Clearly the Irving case is not going to go away, as witnessed by the growing interest in the case. David Irving has been given millions of dollars of free publicity. People who had never previously heard about David Irving now know about him, and are asking questions. Even amongst the torrent of sloppy and vicious writing about Irving, with large numbers of elementary errors of fact, a glimpse of Irving's views has come through. Mass circulation Herald-Sun, whose editorial opposing the ban on Irving was relatively one of the best, felt obliged to commission Irving to write an article, this appearing in the Saturday, February 20th, edition. Here Irving outlines how his 30 years of research in the world's archives had led him to the view that while tens of thousands of Jews, along with others, had been murdered by some of the Nazis, the story of the alleged mass gassing of Jews at Auschwitz was obviously a gigantic hoax. A recognised master of research, Irving quotes from intelligence sources which tens of thousands of Australians are reading about for the first time. This is explosive material, as is the video film of the director of the Auschwitz museum, Dr. Piper, admitting that the alleged gas chambers of Auschwitz were built after the war.

David Irving concludes his Herald-Sun article by asking, "Why the hysteria against Irving? Why have Australians like Dr. Jacques Adler and Professor Konrad refused invitations to debate me? What are my opponents frightened of?" What they are frightened of is that the world's greatest authority on documents and other information concerning the Second World War is destroying the foundations of a gigantic hoax which is still being exploited in the interests of an ongoing global programme. As far as possible the Zionist strategists are going to avoid open public debate with Irving, taking refuge in the claim that debating with Irving only serves to give him credibility. But Irving has already forced them to show their real motives.

If the Zionists leaders had any commonsense, they would perhaps have achieved more by ignoring Irving. But the Zionists desperately require some method by which Irving can be prevented from extending his growing international influence. A study of the Jewish press reveals that the introduction of the Racial Vilification legislation is a top priority. This legislation would take Australia towards the German situation where it is, as David Irving has found, a criminal offence to publicly dispute the Auschwitz myth. A major battle concerning the future of what is left of Christian Civilisation is now being fought out in Australia. But at last the eyes of the Australian people are being opened to the nature of the Zionist terror machine.

BRIEF COMMENTS: One of the most absurd comments on the David Irving affair came from Foreign Minister Gareth Evans who told ABC Melbourne interviewer Ranald McDonald that the Government had acted as it did because of tensions in the community. Evans said, "It's because those (Irving's) views are so palpably offensive to such a significant proportion of the Australian community that the judgment was made that it was likely to generate, particularly in the volatile pre-election atmosphere, a violent community response." Presumably those directing Evans did not bother to tell him that David Irving was scheduled to visit Australia AFTER, not BEFORE, the coming Federal Elections! It is to be hoped that Evans is better informed on foreign affairs than he is about David Irving's proposed Australian visit.

The late Dr. Fred Hollows was a classical example of those sincere people attracted to Communism, not by studying Karl Marx on capitalism, but for emotional reasons - concern for the underdog and sympathy for those he perceived to being unjustly discriminated against. However, Hollows lost much of his charm for the liberal pseudo-intellectuals when in latter years he criticised those whites and part whites who were manipulating the land rights movements in their own interests, and for his politically incorrect statements on the AIDS question. An essentially honest man, he came to understand the brutal nature of the African National Congress, lamenting how as a Communist sympathiser he had suffered because he had participated in protests against the South African Government. His scathing comments were in typical Hollows lurid style!

Someone should direct Prime Minister Paul Keating's attention to a significant development in Hawaii, where an upsurge of support for greater Hawaiian sovereignty against the dictates of Big Brother in Washington, has resulted in a recent State order which bans the flying of the American Stars and Stripes flag on official buildings, these replaced by the traditional Hawaiian flag, which has a large Union Jack in the left hand corner. Affection for Britain has remained high in Hawaii. The ban on the American flag has been proclaimed by John Walhee, the first native Hawaiian governor. The upsurge in national feeling is so strong that Washington has become most concerned. The Hawaiian experience is another striking manifestation of a world-wide upsurge of different groups seeking to go back to their roots.

URGENT CALL TO ALL WIMMERA SUPPORTERS FROM THE REGIONAL DIRECTOR:

Advisory National Director, Eric Butler, will address a meeting in the Quantong Hall, Victoria, at 8.00 p.m., on Tuesday, March 9th. Due to the state of the Nation no supporter in the district should stay away from this meeting. Please bring a friend (or friends). Eric Butler will detail, arguably, the most important Federal elections in Australia's history (to be held only four days after this Quantong meeting).

A light supper and fellowship at the meeting's conclusion ....
Tuesday, March 2nd.

HISTORIC LAUNCH IN MILDURA ON MARCH 8th

The recently formed Union of Farmers announces that in Mildura on Monday, March 8th, it will be launching a programme which will then extend nation-wide. The launch will take place in the Mildura Football Club rooms, starting at 10.00 a.m. A feature of the launch will be the showing of a professionally produced video film of Mrs. Jeanine McCrae, current administrator of the Union of Farmers, in a powerful appeal to all Australian women to take a lead in saving what is left of traditional Australia. The video will be on sale at the launch. There will also be a professionally produced video of an expert on the Bank Watch programme outlining the steps people can take in dealing with their banks - the first of its kind in Australia. This video will also be on sale. Those attending the launch will also have the opportunity to purchase bulk supplies of a striking 12-page journal, STRIKE A LIGHT, packed with hard hitting material on all aspects of the national crisis. We have been given a pre-view of this journal and are most impressed. National distribution will start with the Mildura launch.

A light lunch will be available at the Football Club and there will be a three-course dinner at a charge of $16.00. It is anticipated that there will be adequate motel accommodation available for those coming in from interstate. Mildura is a major Provincial City and is well served with planes, buses and trains. A well-known national speaker will be addressing the dinner.

In a hard-hitting news release, Bank Watch founder Mr. Jim Cronin paints a grim picture of the extent of the national crisis, warning that the Federal Elections will not resolve the crisis. Those requiring information concerning the Union of Farmers and the Mildura launch, may contact Mrs. Jeanine McCrae, (069) 651 383; Fax (069) 651 205. Visitors can book at Grand Hotel - Toll Free Number 008 034 228, mentioning Union of Farmers.

BASIC FUND EDGES FORWARD: Steady contributions from League supporters continue to edge the Basic Fund forward. Another $2,795 was donated last week, taking the total to $48,379. But time is starting to run out and we need a really big "push" over the next few weeks to ensure success. All contributions to Box 1052J, G.P.O., Melbourne, 3001.
