

A WEEKLY COMMENTARY

ON TARGET

- NEWS HIGHLIGHTS
- BACKGROUND INFORMATION
- COMMONWEALTH AFFAIRS

The price of Freedom is eternal vigilance -

Print Post Publication Number 381667 00258

Vol.41, No.49

December 16th, 2005

Peace & Joy to All This Christmass Season

"He who has come to men, dwells where we cannot tell, nor sight reveal him, until the hour has struck when the small heart does break with hunger for Him." – Jane Tyson Clement

"By far the most significant event in the whole course of human history will be celebrated, with or without understanding, at the end of this season, Advent. What we are in fact celebrating is the awe-inspiring humility of God, and no amount of familiarity with the trappings of Christmas should ever blind us to it. God's intervening into human history came about with an almost frightening quietness and self-effacement, and as millions will testify, he will come once again with the same silence and the same devastating humility into any heart ready to receive him." – J.B. Phillips

GREETINGS FROM ERNST ZUNDEL TO HIS FRIENDS WORLDWIDE: In one of his many Christmas messages to On Target readers, Eric Butler wrote: "Regeneration of a dying civilisation must start with decentralised activities served by men and women of complete integrity."

Ernst Zundel, now incarcerated in a German prison, is for us all an inspiring example of that 'complete integrity'. Awaiting trial for his non-violent dissent from the Hollywood version of WWII, Ernst wrote to friends of free thought around the world through Paul Fromm of the Canadian Association for Free Expression.

My Dear Friend:

The week before, I received a letter from Ingrid that took 3 months and 17 days to reach me – no explanation of what took so long. A stamp indicated that it had reached the Mannheim Court in 9 days! You wonder what goes on in some public officials' heads and hearts who do things like that.

Regarding your lovely card! I don't know if you knew that I was 2 weeks away from realizing a lifetime dream of opening a gallery as a kind of cultural centre [when I was arrested in Tennessee in February, 2003] – where not only paintings, prints, sculptures and music CDs, etc., would be offered, but also lectures, musical presentations, poetry and health lectures.

The name for which I had to lobby Ingrid long and hard, I wanted to have for it was "The Soaring

IN THIS ISSUE: • Greetings From Ernst Zundel To His Friends Worldwide • Truth Is A Defence!
• The Seditious Slaughterhouse • Fascist Liberalism

"ON TARGET"

December 16th, 2005

Page 1 (193)

Eagles Gallery". I was working hard to frame and prepare pictures and prints when I was arrested 2 weeks away from the opening day. So, your "Soaring Eagle" motif hit home hard!

Do not weep for me! I knew decades ago what my life would be like and did not shirk my duty, even though I knew what this struggle was going to be like, for the Bible gives lots of indications how these people treat ideas and the carriers or expressers of ideas these people find a threat to their designs and agenda.

Thus, I must tell you, for those who managed to convict and crucify Christ – an innocent man if ever there was one – to hound, torture and convict, a mere mortal like Ernst Zundel is "child's play". They have tons of time of experience in these methods and have, through all history and at all times, in every country or culture that they victimized someone – always found more than willing flunkies to do their dirty work.

Frankly, I was always grateful that I was given such a long period of being able to fuse the latest methods of communications, and technology, to bear witness to the truth, as I perceived it!

When I think of the "powers and principalities" I was up against, it is clear that I could only have survived so many dangers, traps, assassination attempts, arsons, bombs and finally expulsions and deportations – because I must have been given legions of guardian angels along the way.

I don't know if I ever told you of the day the postman brought the parcel bomb to my severely burned out and damaged building. About 12 May 1995, the moment the postman came in the door and handed me an arm full of mail along with the an extremely heavy small parcel, about the size of a shoe box, a voice, clearly audible as if in a telephone call, told me in Canadian accented English: "Ernst, do not open that parcel!!!"... Only in a far more urgent and firmer command-like voice, as I stood there with my mail, looking at my secretary: "Ernst do not open that parcel: there is something wrong with that parcel."

Whereupon I gave my secretary the mail minus the parcel, which I stored on the shelves between the monitors of my security cameras in front of my desk.

The parcel exercised a great attraction with my staff, which came by, picked it up, turned it and some even shook it, because something rattled in it. And I had to repeatedly admonish them to put the parcel down. When I was asked why, I repeated the mysterious message I had been given, at least a half dozen times in the [next] few days until eventually I loaded it into my car, padded it on some bird seeds and delivered my scary cargo to the local 51 Division Police Station, driving very carefully, believe me! Three to four hours of interrogations followed and then I was released that evening. I saw that parcel being blown up by the Metro Toronto Police Bomb Squad.

A police spokesman told the media that it was the most powerful parcel bomb every dealt with by the police and that it contained 4-inch construction nails and a powerful explosive which would have killed everybody in 90-meter radius. That's almost 300 feet.

What are the mathematical chances of "a voice warning a man from not opening a bomb parcel"? That's why I say to you and would ask you to pass on to Paul and all other friends, not to fear for me, not to worry. I have been given a mission to fulfill and to accomplish in this life and I will fulfill it to the best of my abilities within the realm of my gifts, talents and possibilities.

It is important that our friends know that this is how I feel and how I perceive things!

Few people are granted to know and fully comprehend and understand what their life's purpose was/is! I am one of those fortunate people! I realized very early at the age of 21-22 years old that there was a crying need for a historical wrong to be righted and it did not take me long to also realize that I was uniquely situated and given some talents by training and by inheritance to take on just that task! The rest was easy. It was like a sleepwalker navigating a mine field emerging on the other side shaking and in a cold sweat but, nevertheless, emerging in one piece – unscathed!

That's the way it has been for the last three years! In another 4 weeks, I will experience my third year's Christmas in prison – still unconvicted!

Naturally, I will miss my brave wife, the beauty of a snow-covered and magically transformed Tennessee Smoky Mountains Christmas, I will think of my children, my grandchildren, my brothers, sisters, stepsons and Ingrid's beautiful grandchild. I will think of them all and in my mind, will blend back to the magic of my childhood Christmases spent in wartime Germany!

I think of the soldiers encircled at Stalingrad, those starving and freezing in Siberia and the gulag and count my blessings! Good health, a reasonably sound mind, a loving wife, millions of loyal friends, many thousands of supporters and helpers – all over the planet! Many a "free man" is not that fortunate. – Thanks for the help. All the Best. E. Zundel.

TRUTH IS A DEFENCE – Send Zundel greetings: Paul Fromm writes, "Please let the minority-run German State know that freethinkers around the world have not forgotten. Zundel's address is: Ernst Zundel, Prisoner, JVA Mannheim, Herzogenrieder Str. 11, 68169, Mannheim, Germany.

There are others who would be glad to be remembered by the outside world, send them cards also:

CANADA: Brad Love – the letter writing bricklayer, now back in prison because he wrote letters to his local newspaper criticizing the immigration invasion.

Brad Love, Prisoner, Maplehurst Correctional Complex, 661 Martin St., P.O. Box 10, Milton, ON., L9T 2Y3, Canada.

AUSTRIA: David Irving – historian and author of more than 30 best selling books about World War II. Arrested in Austria, November 11 on a 1989 warrant, he is accused of "denying the holocaust", a crime that can bring 10 years in an Austrian prison. [Denying the existence of God or the tooth fairy are not crimes in Austria.]

David Irving, Prisoner, 70306 Justizanstaltwejn Josefstadt, 1080 Vienna AUSTRIA.

These prisoners are not allowed gifts. Just send a card – no inserts. If you have German postage stamps, you can send up to three to Ernst Zundel for his use.

It's a lonely feeling being in jail. It's even more wearing when you know you're in prison, not for some evil deed you did, but because you voiced your belief, you spoke your mind.

THE SEDITIOUS SLAUGHTERHOUSE by James Reed:

Kurt Vonnegut, author of the anti-war novel Slaughterhouse Five has recently described terrorists as "very brave people". He praised terrorists saying that it was "sweet and honourable" to die for one's beliefs. "They are dying for their own self-respect. It's a terrible thing to deprive someone of their self-respect. It's like your culture is nothing, your race is nothing, you're nothing." The Australian, 19-20/11/05, p.11.

Vonnegut witnessed first-hand the firebombing of Dresden by the Allies and expressed his disgust at this war crime in his novel Slaughterhouse Five. From this one noble act he produced other works celebrating leftist causes.

Under Australia's new sedition laws, if the old man is unfortunate enough to wander down under, he may find himself in prison on sedition charges. The Senate Legal and Constitutional Affairs Committee reached precisely that conclusion. The sedition laws make it an offence for one to urge a group of people to use force or violence against another group of people. According to Liberal Senator George Brandis: "The best legal advice we have to the committee is that there is no conduct that they would catch that is not already caught." Liberal Brett Mason said: "it is difficult for the Committee to come to a recommendation other than that which the majority of submissions has come to."

The drafter of the laws, Attorney-General's Department assistant secretary Geoff McDonald disagreed and said that the internet made it easier to disseminate violent material – and he cited as an example a website teaching people how to shoot foreigners in Jakarta. (The Weekend Australian, 26-27/11/05, p.2).

However, as the website was not set up in Australia the only way of controlling such material will be a blanket censorship of the web. That is, probably, the government's less than hidden agenda.

FASCIST LIBERALISM by James Reed:

Gregory Mellheuish "Fascist Label a Cheap Shot Against Liberalism" (The Australian, 21/11/05) takes journalists to task for comparing the Howard government's policies with fascism. Fascism, he says involves the suppression of individual freedom by state power. Howard is a liberal attempting to increase freedom.

Of course with regard to most of these reforms, such as industrial reforms, there is a paradox because the legislation centralises power in Canberra. But IR reform is an attack upon egalitarian values upon which Australia was built.

Dr. Edgar of the Centre for Workplace Culture Change at RMIT Melbourne has released a family impact statement showing that Howard's workplace changes will not "help workers and their families" but rather undermine family life.

As Dr. Edgar puts it: "There is no guarantee built into this legislation of workers' choice and flexibility to decide the working conditions most appropriate to their family-caring responsibilities. Instead everything depends on negotiation with those who have the power to say "no". (The Australian, 28/11/05) Family life will be undermined because there is no upper limit placed upon working hours, beyond 38 hours per week.

Howard is an internationalist who serves the interests of global capitalism and international finance, not the interests of the Australian people. This is the structuralist result of his actions whatever goes on in his head.

Our racist, Yellow Australia immigration policy, designed to Asianise Australia and historically destroy White people, was never put to the vote. The elimination of the White Australia policy was by deception not democracy. Likewise for the policy of multiculturalism. Our post World War II immigration policy was implemented by Fabian Socialists to dilute the WASP (White Anglo Saxon Protestant) core of the population.

And when did we have a say on Australia becoming a part of Africa as Africans now fill our streets? No, our governments since at least the end of WWII have been Fascist – pushing a form of multicultural fascism more lethal to us than anything we have seen before. This form of fascism is directed against US – an attack, superficially by our own kind, against us, our race and our fundamental values.

That is what Howard, consciously or not, is doing now. If Howard is a liberal, then paradoxically he is a Fascist Liberal.