THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: "The fact that the Rhodesian army's immediate enemies happen to be black terrorist armies of Karl Marx in Mozambique... is neither here nor there. The Rhodesians, I imagine, would much prefer to be fighting their real enemies, which are mostly white and out of reach. The Rhodesians do know what they are fighting for. They know they are fighting for the fine and potentially even finer country they have made for themselves, whether they are white or black: and they know they have the only organised military force in the world which is now in action against the forces of International Communism. That is to say, they have the only organised military force in the world which is fighting and dying for the West, or, in plainer terms, for you and me. Shouldn't this rate at least a single cheer?"

— Military strategist General Sir Walter Walker, U.K., 1977

IAN SMITH DIES – HISTORIC WARNING IGNORED: The news that Ian Smith the former Rhodesian PM had died, aged 88, brought back memories of the League's efforts to offer moral and spiritual support to the besieged peoples of Rhodesia as they fought during the 1970s to hold the front line for Western civilisation in Africa. Not only did they have to contend with the Communist revolutionaries led by Marxists such as Robert Mugabe, but also the traitorous White elite of the Western World. Not only is former Rhodesia (Zimbabwe) now under Marxist rule but so is South Africa.

During his 1965 visit to Rhodesia, Eric Butler, during an interview with Prime Minister Ian Smith asked if he had a message for Australians and New Zealanders.

Smith responded thus: "Very briefly, I would ask them to give us a chance.... Give us a chance and I am sure that we will go on maintaining the high standards that we have always maintained in Rhodesia, giving a fair deal to everybody."

At the time Eric Butler wrote: "Surely this is a most reasonable request? But the tragedy is that so many Australians and New Zealanders have prejudged the Rhodesians because they are the victims of one of the most frightening examples of international brainwashing seen for a long time."

After Rhodesia and South Africa came Australia's turn. It is planned that we will also be swallowed up in the NeoCommunist World Order, but we are to be a colony of Communist China – if we let them get away with it.

For those who would like to read more about The Battle for Rhodesia from someone who understood the dark forces setting the agenda for control of the world, look for a second-hand copy on the internet of Douglas Reed's book of that title: "The Battle for Rhodesia".

Archival video-film: The League has a short archival video-film of Eric Butler with his son Phillip visiting Rhodesia during the time of the West-directed 'internationally-imposed' economic sanctions against that brave little nation. Eric is shown presenting a tank-load of fuel to the Ian Smith government representative, Lord Graham, as a token gesture of support on behalf of the Australian and New Zealand group Friends of Rhodesia.

Communism's alliance with Big Money: Thirty years ago veteran South African journalist Ivor Benson warned us of the alliance between Communism and Big Money and what were their plans for Africa. What was in store for Africa could be seen with complete clarity as long ago as 1949, when Douglas Reed published "Somewhere South of Suez": "Once more the paramount fact of our time is established: the actual aims of American high policy and of the Communist Empire are not separate or opposite, but the same. There must be, in America under President Truman as under President Roosevelt, some group or force strong or persuasive enough to 'sell' Communist aims to the political leaders, and simultaneously to convince them that these will 'stop Communism'. Here is a Chinese idea presented to the American Congress and people as one of several ways of thwarting Communist expansion..."

Ivor Benson's important booklets "The Moment of Truth" and "A Message from Southern Africa" are available from all Heritage Book Services. The set of two for $7.50 posted.

COMRAD RUDD'S GREAT ASIAN LANGUAGE PLAN by James Reed: If the polls are accurate Comrad Rudd will be at the steering wheel of the good ship Australia. This will see a continuation of the destructive globalist agenda carried forward by Howard from Keating, with an intensified open Asianist cultural programme.

Rudd, a good Asian citizen, wants to see Australia become the most Asia-literate country in the world. There will be of course, the relentless mass Asian 'yellowing Australia' immigration programme. Our children will be subjected to a relentless onslaught of Mandarin and Japanese, to make our colonial masters happy.

Labor will also sign a U.N. declaration on indigenous rights, that our judges will creatively use to manufacture all sorts of laws on the basis of the "legitimate expectations" created by signing such a declaration. I will be going on and on about Comrad Rudd over the next three years – or more – if I live it out. The dying OZ population will ultimately toss out Paul Keating Rudd, only to be faced with another Liberal Party genetically engineered clone.

This cycle of disintegration will continue unless we as a movement, and other similar movements, can convince the Australian people that there are some things more important than the mortgage. By the way, the French word "mort" means "death".

THE VATICAN VERSUS ISLAM by Brian Simpson: Times they are a-changing. The Vatican once had a policy of quiet diplomacy in dealing with Islam and issues such as the discrimination, and indeed persecution, of Christians in Islamic countries. But demographic shifts have also meant that Nazareth and Bethlehem no longer have Christian majorities. Muslim populations are also expanding in the West.

In reflecting on this threat of Islamisation, Monsignor Velasio De Paolis, the secretary of the Vatican's supreme court, said: "Enough now with this turning the other cheek! It's our duty to protect ourselves."

However, the Catholic Church has done much to prepare the demise of the White Christian West.

WELL DONE RAY KING – Australian League of Rights Council, W.A.: In memory of Ray King who passed away on the 17th October 2007, after a long illness. Ray was the first Australian League of Rights State Director for Western Australia. He served as a Pilot in the RAF during World War II with distinction and valour. After the war he became involved with the League when he was still a young man and, after his retirement as the W.A. State Director, continually served the League with honour until his debilitating illness made it impossible for him to continue. Rest in peace dear Ray, knowing that you gave your all for freedom.

John Paul II was a champion of free immigration and multiculturalism and the Catholic Church, along with the rest of "establishment Christianity", champions anti-White causes with pew-leaving regularity. The "Church" supplied major critics of the White Australia Policy and the American Restriction Act. The end result of this essentially anti-White racism has been the undermining of the West itself. You can see the future by visiting a major Protestant or Catholic Church in one of our main cities. Christianity must now confront the challenge of radical Islam on its home ground, protected by politically correct laws at that.

IMMIGRATION, NOT CLIMATE CHANGE, IS THE MAIN ISSUE by James Reed: Switzerland was once seen as a stable light of direct-democracy in the shaky world of European power politics. However a week before the general elections held last October a violent clash occurred between thousands of anti-racist demonstrators and police.

The protesters had blocked the routes of a march by Switzerland's most powerful party the Right-wing Swiss People's Party (SVP), who went on to gain the highest vote of the various groups in the elections.

The SVP had taken a stand against open-borders-style immigration and wants to deport foreign nationals who commit crimes in Switzerland once they have served their gaol terms. Foreign nationals make up 20 per cent of the Swiss population, but account for 70 per cent of the prison population.

Back in Britain, the asylum crisis worsens: There are so many asylum cases now that to deal with the new ones, old claimants may, according to a leaked Home Office memo, be simply offered backdoor amnesty. (Source: Telegraph.co.uk) It is stated: 450,000 "legacy" asylum cases, some dating back a decade, will be perceived by the public as a full-scale amnesty. Immigration, not climate change, is the most explosive issue of our times.

DO WE SAY GOODBYE TO BRITAIN? by James Reed: Last week's O.T. featured an article by the U.K. journalist Christopher Hitchens in which he wrote: "How will we be able to look our grandchildren in the face when they ask what did you do to stop Britain's taken over by a foreign power – and that includes even you Lady Thatcher. This is too frightening and too important to ignore any longer. If we don't want to become a neglected outstation of the European Superstate, stripped of our nationhood, powerless to decide who lives here, controlled by laws we don't make and can't change, ruled by a government we cannot throw out, we have rather a short time in which to do something about it. You may think none of this matters to you, but the trouble is that it does, whether you think so or not."

James Reed now makes some further observations:

Internal subversion is intent on eliminating Britain – and the date set is May 2009 to be precise. "The Declaration of Berlin" by the Chancellor of Germany, Angela Merkel, was signed by all E.U. nations 25 March 2007. This commits nations to signing the final E.U. treaty thus committing countries to adopting the EU Constitution.

Clause 1 - 46 - 4 will abolish the nation states of Europe, and for Britain, the Monarchy and Common Law – everything the League cherishes in fact. The E.U. will effectively become a massive police state without the rights that Britons have come to take for granted, such as Habeas Corpus (i.e., a writ to bring a person before a court to decide on a matter, rather than being indefinitely held in gaol).

Already the E.U. corruption is massive. Whistleblowers such as Marta Andreason, the E.U. Budget Director have exposed this, but have been sacked for their pains. In 2005 she found that the E.U. could not account for 95 per cent of its •66 billion budget! Corruption therefore is out of control. The E.U. will control the migration of nations and will adopt an essentially open-borders policy so that migrant workers will drive down wages to Third World levels.

Soviet System: In short, Europeans are set to have less freedom than the former Soviet citizens. In fact the E.U. is modelled on a Soviet-style command system. The full horrors are detailed in a long article entitled: "Abolition of Britain Now Set for May 2009" by the New Battle for Britain group at tnbfbg@yahoo.co.uk or fire4effect@tiscali.co.uk.

Britain is also facing disintegration as a nation because of immigration and a public policy think tank has said that Britain could cease to be a country becoming merely a "nation of immigrants".

According to The Times Online, 18 April 2007, the U.K. Immigration Minister has said that large-scale immigration has "damaged the poorest communities and deeply unsettled the country" – producing inequality and child poverty. Pressure on schools and the housing system also resulted from a net immigration level now four times higher than when Labour came to power in 1997. Britain aims to solve this problem by introducing the Australian-style points system. Welcome to our nightmare!

Sharia Law: Sharia law continues to spread in Britain as Muslims are electing to have disputes tried by Islamic judges. Sharia councils operate in most large U.K. cities. One third of British Muslims according to a 2006 opinion poll, said that they would prefer to live under Sharia law than British law. Have the British the will to survive? Do we?

ANOTHER REVIEW OF SOLZHENITSYN'S LATEST BOOK: Alexander Solzhenitsyn and the Jews: Friedrich Braun writes: I just finished reading the French translation of Solzhenitsyn's "Two Hundred Years Together (2003) on Russian-Jewish relations since 1772" in two volumes. (Still no English translation available... "are we powerful or what?"). It's both a quick and fascinating read; among other things, we learn that not only the October 1917 Revolution (really just a well-organized, well-carried out Jewish coup) was dominated by Jewish agitators (a documented fact) but so was the 1905 Revolution (something I didn't know).

We also learn from the grand old man the awe-inspiring extent of the Jewish domination of the Soviet Union during its first two decades of existence, including its ruthless and murderous internal security system: Tcheka, OGPU, NKGB, and NKVD. A Russian in the hands of the Tcheka, etc., was almost certain to be in the hands of Jewish torturers and executioners. The litany of Jewish crimes committed against the long-suffering Russians (and other Slavic peoples: Ukrainians and Belarussians) and coldly listed by the author is simply nauseating and one should approach both volumes on an empty stomach.

To this day there has been no acknowledgment on the part of international Jewry of their overwhelming support of the Bolshevik dictatorship during its first two decades. No asking for forgiveness. No reparations paid out to Russians. No chest-beating. No nothing...how un-Jewish that would be!

Those few, rare Jewish voices who dared to speak about the Jewish role in the establishment of the communist terror machine in Russia were inevitably greeted with hostility and enmity by other Jews and told to shut their "self-hating" mouths. Source: Institute of Historical Review website.
