THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: Just When You Think It Can't Get Any Worse: "The FBI removes potential evidence from the Broadwell home". But why? Why isn't the Pentagon doing this?

The FBI visited the West Point grad and fast track career girl on Veterans Day Monday evening. Lt. Colonel Broadwell has not been referred to by her reserve Army rank for some reason. It is not an oversight. There has to be a reason.

But she got a little more attention than I am sure she wanted when they began exiting with evidence boxes, and even taking her expensive large Mac monitor. Ouch!! It will be a Veterans Day she will not forget. We knew when Gordon ran the first article on this scandal that it would unravel within a few days but we never expected it to become Email-Gate, served with a twist of half naked FBI agent. As we love to say around here, "You just can't make this stuff up."

One of the clues that intrigued me in the initial reporting, which was most brief, was the very clear mention that Mrs. Paula Kranz Broadwell was 'under investigation'. It begged the question as to why an investigation at this stage of the game that would require the CIA top pilot to eject from a perfectly operational plane, would leave the other party still under investigation.

The 'All in' Paula: There is something else strange that the corporate media has missed or dodged. If Lt. Col. Broadwell, and General Petraeus had a thing going on, the military would have had jurisdiction to take action. But they have not. What would hold the FBI into a case like this is concern that one of the parties was linked to a foreign intelligence operation.

Noam Chomsky On Gaza; "Its kind of amazing and inspiring to see people managing somehow to survive, as essentially caged animals, and subject to constant, random, sadistic punishment only to humiliate them"

World-renowned political dissident, linguist, author and MIT professor Noam Chomsky joins us to discuss his recent trip to the Gaza Strip, where he publicly called on Israel to put an end to the blockade on the Hamas-ruled coastal enclave. "[Gaza] is a lesson for people from the West," Chomsky says. "If they can struggle on under really harsh and brutal conditions, it tells us we ought to be doing a lot more." Posted November 14, 2012

CIVIL WAR 'TIPPING POINT' OF THOMAS CHITTUM HAS BEEN REACHED

"Obama and the End of White America", by Chris Knight (an American in exile).

The San Francisco Chronicle has neatly summed up the demographic/racial reason why Obama won and gave us the reason why there may never be another White American president (my inference not theirs): "A demographic tidal wave became a democratic tidal wave as President Obama won a decisive re-election victory Tuesday with the help of record-breaking support from Hispanic voters, massive turnout from African-Americans and continuing enthusiasm from young Americans".

"Although Republican nominee Mitt Romney won a larger share of the white vote than any presidential candidate since Ronald Reagan scored a landslide re-election victory in 1984, the former Massachusetts governor ended up a loser at the polls because of the racial, ethnic and generational changes that have altered the US electoral landscape.

Exit polls tend to confirm this "browning of America" view. Obama won 93 per cent of the African-American vote, 70 per cent of the Hispanic vote (the fastest growing ethno-racial group in America due to illegal and legal immigration and high birth-rates), 74 per cent of the Asian vote and 58 per cent of the other races.

Obama's agenda, as with the Left, was essentially, as Lawrence Auster put it in View From the Right, to create for the future, a country ruled by a coalition of "parasites" and "leftist scum", but that did not matter to these voters.

If Obama had not won, there would have been race riots like the London riots of last year. The 18-29 year old cohort voted overwhelmingly for Obama and this is the social media super-me generation, brainwashed on hyper-liberalism, early sex, homosexuality and all aspects of "deviance, defeat and decline", which they see as cool, trendy, progressive values. Obama had 23 million twitter tweets twitting; Romney only an eighth of these tweets. And Facebook, the new bible for young women, seeming had young women "liking" Obama all day, having too much time on their hands. Hence Obama, Mr. Cool, won it with the cool, "beautiful" people of today.

The Republic Response: The Republican response was to hope to push the Party towards embracing Hispanics, as Republican presidential contender Newt Gingrich advised. Republicans need to connect with "minority votes" who make up an ever-bigger part of the electorate as the proportion of Whites in the population declines. No concern about why these demographic changes are occurring (immigration), or how to stop it (stop immigration). South Carolina senator Lindsey Graham said of these demographic changes: "We're losing 95 per cent of African-Americans and two-thirds of Hispanics and voters under 30 because we're not being hard-ass enough".

Disillusioned White Voters: In fact as Sean Trende has observed, the African-American vote only increased by 0.2 per cent from 2008 to 2012 and the Latino vote by 1.7 million votes. But seven million less Whites voted in 2012 than in 2008. Absolute numbers of White Americans have not decreased, only their proportional representation in the population. Non-white groups increased their vote but by less than would have been predicted by population growth. (See Peter Brimelow at www.vdare.com 7 November 2012 for a refutation of the Hispanic vote scenario for the Republican Party). Romney would have won if he had three million more White votes.

Whites probably did not go with Romney because he was already seen as too Obama-like: many conservative sites had photo-shopped the images of Obama and Romney to produce a hybrid "Obamaney" or "Romobama". Romney, a Mormon, and hence already a minority, did what he could to pander to fellow minorities, Blacks, Hispanics and women. A White engineering student at v.dare, 8 November 2012 said that he did not vote for Romney because Romney wanted "to import all of Asia to compete against me". Like Obama he promised amnesty for Hispanic illegals.

It is instructive that the majority of Hispanics support illegals, even though they are illegal and contrary to US law. This indicates that racial thinking for that segment of the population over-rides US national thinking. This is a lesson for the liberals.

The other lesson for liberals is that non-Whites will vote for a non-White president. Race does matter. Whites will need as well to think racially and back their own kind just as other races do. The liberal ideals of America have died and the tipping point has been reached as predicted in the brilliant little book by Thomas Chittum, "Civil War Two: The Coming Breakup of America" (1996).

Voting fraud is now, just accepted, indicating that even the shadow of democracy has gone. Natural News.com 7 November 2012 reports on these phenomena: some voting screens registering Romney votes for Obama; there are 3020, 112-year olds registered to vote in North Carolina (i.e., using dead people's names); one out of eighty voter registrations are inaccurate, out of date or a duplicate; 2.8 million Americans are registered in two or more states; 1.8 million registered are dead. My guess is that this fraud has largely served the Obama camp. But back in the Bush v Gore (2000) case the Left cried "murder" when Bush came out in front after the US Supreme Court decision.

US Economic Collapse: US government debt levels are now US$16 trillion and according to the US Treasury will reach US$20 trillion by 2015, during Obama's reign. Then debt will be more than GDP. Add to this US$5 trillion from the bailout of Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae, and a staggering unfunded obligation of US$65 trillion for Medicare Medicaid and Social Security. Then finally add US state government debt of US$3 trillion – and you have economic collapse. (The Australian 29 October 2012, p.10)

Attempting to solve the debt crisis by orthodox finance (rather than Social Credit) by increasing taxes and reducing government spending will produce a deep recession, and race riots. Whatever way one turns, the US economy is doomed, which will have shock effects on all economies producing a global depression, if not complete economic collapse.

The US Police State: The American power elites are no doubt getting ready for all of this. Before Hurricane Sandy, Obama signed an Executive Order merging Homeland Security with the private sector, vastly expanding government control creating "a secret force comprised of spies from schools, community groups, churches, and various other local institutions". (Natural News.com 7 November 2012) The Surveillance State will be created as the American republic dies. And less than 24 hours after being re-elected Obama re-affirmed his backing of UN gun control and his promise to destroy the Second Amendment. No doubt, only White America will surrender their guns. Then it will be "show time" folks!

US Whites, and Whites everywhere, will come to learn the meaning of fear. They deserve it, as do we who have forgotten that the world was on the Social Darwinist principle of survival of the fittest: which is, those who look after their own kind, survive. Those that don't end up in the trash can of history. ■

ON WINNING THE BATTLE FOR WESTERN CIVILISATION by James Reed

Having read American-born Chris Knight's piece "Civil War Tipping Point Has Been Reached", I pondered the future of the West given a seemingly inevitable American collapse. I read Alexander Forrest's "Rediscovering Eternity: The Ultimate Weapon in the Battle Against Modernity" (Alternative Right.com 8 November 2012) in this context. "The worse, the better", communist Lenin said; that is, for communism. The worse the socio-economic conditions, the more likely people will turn to communism. Likewise for the hopes of developing a White racial consciousness. But to do so, Forrest argues, "we must reconnect our souls with eternity by vanquishing the false prophets of individualism and multiculturalism", or as I would say, the whole bag of tricks of modernity. The situation has occurred because the WASPs have allowed materialism and modernist beliefs to erode their sense of ethnic and racial identity.

Not so, for say, US Blacks and Hispanics who have ridden the tiger and not become emasculated and deracinated.

Forrest sums up our plight accurately: "Renouncing loyalty to the group is a political behaviour practised by no other peoples of the world. Non-Whites in the West and inside their own nations certainly do not worship at the altars of multiculturalism and individuality. (We would use the word individualism rather than individuality... ed)

Instead, they prudently, by what Sir Arthur Keith called a Dual Moral Code, an evolutionary strategy of promoting empathy for group members and enmity for outsiders".

Whites must regain a lost sense of ethnocentrism, something which is normal and rational, Domitius Corbulo argues, at the Occidental Observer.com 7 November, 2012. Then connecting with our ancestors may lead us to have once more, a sense of eternity. ■

JULIA DOES NOT MENTION OUR FOREIGN AID! ASIA THRIVES ON IT!

From a media release by Denis McCormack: "Asia Thrives on Western Foreign Aid" - In the last year Australia gave Indonesia two and a half billion dollars aid! $500,000,000 was specifically for building Madrasas- Islamic religious colleges. $200,000,000,000 (2billion) was given as the usual annual aid. The Philippines gets more cash from Australia than from America. The list of recipient countries is endless. That's how "The Asian Century" became a reality.

All white European nations have given to Asia their technology, their inventions, their industries, their expert personnel, entire factories, monetary aid and the training of Asians in our Universities. And their polluting industries pay no Carbon Tax to 'change the globe's climate'.

On top of government aid, individual Westerners and organisations such as aid groups and churches have poured in more wealth and knowledge into Asia. Asians are using our money to buy up our farmland. Our soldiers die in Asian wars. We get their refugees when there is inter-cultural strife in Asia.

When will this madness stop or even get a mention in our lying media? How come the White Paper makes no mention of foreign aid? How come the talking heads on the wretched ABC don't mention aid while lauding Asian achievements? What has Asia achieved?

Below is the only book showing how, on current policy settings, our not-so-gradual but definite dilution, displacement and disappearance. The Australian majority has been put through unpopular mass immigration, socially engineered and designed by both major political parties and MSM since the mid 1970s. ■

STALIN WOULD BE PROUD! RUSSIANS UNDERSTAND BETTER THAN US

Reminded that the great Russian writer Solzhenitsyn warned the West, even while his people were still under communist oppression, "We are living your future". In 2009, online Pravda.Ru repeated Solzhenitsyn's warning, "American capitalism gone with a whimper".

Stanislav Mishin's article originally appeared on his blog, Mat Rodina, 27/4/2009: "It must be said, that like the breaking of a great dam, the American descent into Marxism is happening with breath taking speed, against the back drop of a passive, hapless sheeple, excuse me dear reader, I meant people.

True, the situation has been well prepared on and off for the past century, especially the past twenty years. The initial testing ground was conducted upon our Holy Russia and a bloody test it was. But we Russians would not just roll over and give up our freedoms and our souls, no matter how much money Wall Street poured into the fists of the Marxists.

Those lessons were taken and used to properly prepare the American populace for the surrender of their freedoms and souls, to the whims of their elites and betters.

First, the population was dumbed down through a politicized and substandard education system based on pop culture, rather than the classics. Americans know more about their favourite TV dramas than the drama in DC that directly affects their lives. They care more for their "right" to choke down a McDonalds' burger or a Burger King burger than for their constitutional rights. Then they turn around and lecture us about our rights and about our "democracy". Pride blinds the foolish.

Then their faith in God was destroyed, until their churches, all tens of thousands of different "branches and denominations" were for the most part little more than Sunday circuses and their televangelists and top protestant mega preachers were more than happy to sell out their souls and flocks to be on the "winning" side of one pseudo Marxist politician or another.

Their flocks may complain, but when explained that they would be on the "winning" side, their flocks were ever so quick to reject Christ in hopes for earthly power. Even our Holy Orthodox churches are scandalously liberalized in America.

The final collapse has come with the election of Barack Obama. His speed in the past three months has been truly impressive. His spending and money-printing has been a record setting, not just in America's short history but in the world. If this keeps up for more than another year, and there is no sign that it will not, America at best will resemble the Weimar Republic and at worst Zimbabwe.

These past two weeks have been the most breath taking of all. First came the announcement of a planned redesign of the American Byzantine tax system, by the very thieves who used it to bankroll their thefts, loses and swindles of hundreds of billions of dollars.

These make our Russian oligarchs look little more than ordinary street thugs, in comparison. Yes, the Americans have beaten our own thieves in the sheer volumes. Should we congratulate them? These men, of course, are not an elected panel but made up of appointees picked from the very financial oligarchs and their henchmen who are now gorging themselves on trillions of American dollars, in one bailout after another. They are also usurping the rights, duties and powers of the American congress (parliament). Again, congress has put up little more than a whimper to their masters.

Then came Barack Obama's command that GM's (General Motors) president step down from leadership of his company. That is correct, dear reader, in the land of "pure" free markets, the American president now has the power, the self-given power, to fire CEOs, and we can assume other employees, of private companies, at will. Come hither; go thither, the centurion commands his minions.

So it should be no surprise that the American president has followed this up with a "bold" move of declaring that he and another group of unelected, chosen stooges will now redesign the entire automotive industry and will even be the guarantee of automobile policies.

I am sure that if given the chance, they would happily try and redesign it for the whole of the world, too. Prime Minister Putin, less than two months ago, warned Obama and UK's Blair, not to follow the path to Marxism, it only leads to disaster. Apparently, even though we suffered *70 years of this Western sponsored horror show, we know nothing, as foolish, drunken Russians, so let our "wise" Anglo-Saxon fools find out the folly of their own pride.

Again, the American public has taken this with barely a whimper... but a "freeman" whimper.

So, should it be any surprise to discover that the Democratically controlled Congress of America is working on passing a new regulation that would give the American Treasury department the power to set "fair" maximum salaries, evaluate performance and control how private companies give out pay raises and bonuses?

Senator Barney Franks, a social pervert basking in his homosexuality (of course, amongst the modern, enlightened American societal norm, as well as that of the general West, homosexuality is not only not a looked down upon life choice, but is often praised as a virtue) and his Marxist enlightenment, has led this effort. He stresses that this only affects companies that receive government monies, but it is retroactive and taken to a logical extreme, this would include any company or industry that has ever received a tax break or incentive.

The Russian owners of American companies and industries should look thoughtfully at this and the option of closing their facilities down and fleeing the land of the Red as fast as possible. In other words, divest while there is still value left.

The proud American will go down into his slavery without a fight, beating his chest and proclaiming to the world, how free he really is. The world will only snicker.

REMEMBER GRAEME CAMPBELL? DEFENCE OF OUR NORTH

Graeme Campbell in 1998: There have been many articles in the press since November 97 covering the prospect of civil unrest and a backlash against the Chinese in Indonesia, who comprise about 5% of the population and control about 80% of the economy. A recent article in the Australian 27/1/98 dispelled any connection between prominent Sino-Indonesian business tycoon Safyan Wanandi, his brother Jusuf who is Director of the Indonesian Centre for Strategic and International Studies, and the bomb blast in Jakarta.

In 1991 Jusuf Wanandi attended the 25th Anniversary Strategic and Defence Studies School

Conference in Canberra where he put the following scenario to Australian participants: if for whatever reason things become messy in Indo China or China proper, ensuing chaos may well be made manifest to the region in the form of continuous waves of boat people who would be given passage through the Indonesian archipelago, not permission to stop at it.

No response was offered by the Australian delegates at the Conference. When Peter Reith was Shadow Minister for Defence a few (1994) years ago, he held a Defence seminar at the Liberal's Melbourne HQ where Denis McCormack outlined the above Wanandi scenario. Reith's answer was that "the government of the day" would have to deal with the problem.

As Italy is presently seen by Holland, Germany and others to be Europe's weak link in the face of escalating middle Eastern, sub-Continental and African illegal immigration, so too has Northern Territory Shane Stone (on Australian TV News, 1140pm 23/1/98, broadcast both here and to Asia) nervously recognised the vulnerability of Australia's northern shores to the potentially large scale arrival of boat people/illegal migrants as fallout from Indonesia's financial/political (or future environmental?) woes. The rich Chinese will fly into their properties here.

In Jakarta on 9/12/97 Denis McCormack and I discussed this very scenario with Mr Hadi Wayarabi, Director of Asia Pacific Affairs in Indonesia's Foreign Affairs Department.

Charles Heyman who is editor of Janes, (1995 until 2004) he was the Senior Defence Analyst for Jane's Consultancy Group, the most respected Defence journal in the world said Australia had to start preparing now if it was to defend itself, "it takes years to build up proper defence posture but I don't think you have it now" (Expert warns of invasion - Sunday Herald Sun 24/11/96). We can only hope that our "government of the day" in conjunction with our military are now taking this seriously.

Graeme Campbell 30 January, 1998 (at the time Parliamentary Leader Australia First Party). ■

ENDURING HOWARD LEGACY

In 2005 in the Sydney Morning Herald Michael Duffy asked the rhetorical question: 'Is it perhaps the first time in history that a nation's elite have invited another group to come in and replace it?'

Dr Peter Wilkinson (website: <http://www.theindependentaustralian.com.au/>) collected together both readily available and hitherto unpublished data to show that indeed traditional Australia is being displaced from the professional and managerial classes. This is the enduring legacy that Prime Minister John Howard's regime has bequeathed to the future of Australia.

How has this come about? It arises from a complex web of policies, largely bipartisan, particularly the selective immigration policies which favour applicants with an Australian university degree. Recent arrivals, i.e. the overseas born and non-English speaking background resident students, predominately Chinese, are now in a majority in some fields of education in the universities. They are concentrated in the lucrative and prestige careers. At the UNSW they are the majority overall.

The Chinese presence in Australia has been analysed: numbers, distribution, school and university enrolments, social attitudes and political influence. With near one-fifth in the electorates of the Prime Minister and the Shadow Minister for Immigration, they are influencing immigration policies. The conclusion is that on present policies Australia will have a Chinese minority dominating the economy.

reviewed Dr. Wilkinson's excellent book, but not our media, even after hundreds of copies were sent to Australian editors, journalists and academics.

Thomas Jackson's review: "A mirror image of our own crisis". Dr. Wilkinson writes that if current immigration continues, Chinese will be 6 to 10 percent of the population by 2030, and will be concentrated in the best-paid management positions. "The Chinese have become an economy dominant minority everywhere that they have a significant presence," he writes.

"Why would the situation be any different in Australia?"

There will be more than economic consequences: "Australia will gravitate over time into the Chinese sphere of influence . . . Traditional links with the UK, Europe and USA will fade...

The leading politicians will be traditional Australians, in the pockets of the Chinese, as is the case in SE Asia."

Dr. Wilkinson says whites will become rare in selective schools and in the corridors of power: "The cognitively gifted traditional Australian will be a minority. Traditional Australian culture is unlikely to survive in such an environment. Links to Anglo-European culture will evaporate."

Dr. Wilkinson makes the obvious recommendations: immigration should be cut, colleges should not have to depend on foreigners, and an Australian degree should not be a ticket to citizenship. He even suggests preferences for whites. None of this seems likely...

What is happening in Australia is yet another example of why racial diversity does not work. The Chinese who can afford to immigrate are well above average in ability and even further above the Australian average. There is nothing to stop them from displacing the WASP ruling class, and changing the country in ways whites will not like. Had these talented immigrants been Britons, Canadians, or white South Africans, there would be nothing like the friction that is sure to come. There might be a few murmurs of discontent if Boers, for example, took over a few major banks, but in a generation Boers would be indistinguishable from old Australian stock. The Chinese will remain Chinese, whether they are running a corner laundry or the foreign ministry. And, as Dr. Wilkinson points out, when the old WASP elite discovers that its children and grandchildren are sweeping floors in Chinese-owned factories, they will have only themselves to blame.

EXCUSE ME WHILE I VOMIT by columnist Alan Hart

Source: <http://www.veteranstoday.com/2012/11/16/excuse-me-while-i-vomit/>

I imagine I am not the only one who feels the need to vomit (dictionary definition - "to throw up the contents of the stomach through the mouth") when Israel's Goebbels justifies the Zionist state's ferocious and monstrously disproportionate attacks by air and sea on the Israeli-blockaded Gaza Strip, the prison camp which is home to 1.5 million besieged and mainly impoverished Palestinians. The Israeli to whom I am referring is, of course, Australian-born Mark Regev, the prime minister's spokesman, for which read spin doctor. The more I see and hear him in action, the more it seems to me that he makes Nazi Germany's propaganda chief look like an amateur.

In a piece for The Observer on 6 June 2010, Ruth Sutherland wrote the following. "If the men from Mars ever wanted to manufacture a PR man, they would model their robot on Regev. No matter how formidable the interviewer, or how aggressive the questioning, he never buckles under pressure. His disarming Aussie accent and unfailing politeness - he calls interviewers 'Sir' and uses phrases like 'I beg to disagree' - almost lulls listeners into overlooking his aggression. He is always regretful about death and horror - he regrets that the non-Israeli victims brought their fate on themselves. Viewers are reduced to a trance of slack-jawed amazement at what he is prepared to say with a straight face. He is unlikely to win sceptics to Israel's cause, but as a PR performer he is horribly compelling."

Compelling he certainly is but, as Sutherland indicated (I will be more explicit), only to Westerners and Americans in particular who have been conditioned for decades by Zionist propaganda and, as a consequence, know nothing or little worth knowing about the truth of history as it relates to the making and sustaining of the conflict in and over Palestine that became Israel.

In the immediate aftermath of Israel's targeted assassination of Hamas's military commander, Ahmed al-Jabari, Regev was at his best. Via the BBC and many other networks his main message to the Western nations was that Israel is just like them - democratic and civilized. "I would ask them all," he said, "how would you act?" (respond to rocket fire from "terrorists"). By obvious implication he was saying something very like, "You would take all necessary action against the terrorists to defend and protect your people, and that's why I am sure you will understand and support what we are doing."

The flaw in that presentation is that Israel is NOT like the Western nations. It is a brutal occupying power, and the cause of the incoming rockets is its occupation and on-going colonization and ethnic cleansing of the West Bank including East Jerusalem, and its blockade of the Gaza Strip. That plus the fact that Israel's leaders have no interest in peace on terms the Palestinians could accept.

Regev also appealed for Western understanding and support on the grounds that "they" (Hamas) say my country should be wiped off the map." That's one of the many big, fat Zionist propaganda lies. The truth is that Hamas is firmly on the record with the statement that while it will never recognize Israel's right to exist, it is prepared to live in peace with an Israel inside its 1967 borders.

Regev's master, Netanyahu, was also up to his old tricks - diverting attention. He played the Iranian nuclear threat card to get Palestine off the international community's agenda. With Israel's next election less than 70 days away, one of his reasons for authorizing Operation Pillar of Defense was, as a report in The Times of Israel put it, "to divert public discourse from social justice to security issues and silence the government's critics."

The Mossad's motto is "By way of deception, thou shall do war". Netanyahu obviously believes that by way of deception he can not only retain power but emerge from Israel's next election with more power than ever. (Enough to tell Obama to go to hell if that ever becomes necessary).

The support (by default if not design) of Western governments for Israel's latest ferocious and monstrously disproportionate attacks also makes me want to vomit.

Important reading....."Europe The Shattering of Illusions" by Vaclav Klaus. Price (HC) $27.50 + postage. We are proud to promote the new book by Vaclav Klaus, President of the Czech Republic.

Here is Vaclav Klaus at his best: "We see that a group of the economically most powerful and politically most influential states of the world seek to become the informal precursors to a global government. A government clearly detached from the democratic legitimacy previously given by citizens, a government which, whatever its formal framework, will de facto run our lives without any participation or influence on our part.

In this structure, the phenomenon of citizenship will disappear quickly. Democracy without the citizen is an oxymoron and the frivolous concept of world citizenship is nothing but a manipulation, a mystification confusing the issues".

"Revolution from Above" by Dr. Kerry Bolton: A self-appointed elite that Huxley called the 'World Controllers' and Carroll Quigley described as 'an international network' has for generations been intent on establishing a 'World State' (Huxley) or what D. Rockefeller himself calls a 'World Order', and what President George W. Bush and others, such as Rothschild employee Linnett, call the 'New World Order'. In more common parlance it is called 'globalisation,' but it is seldom understood in its wider ramifications, as set forth here, especially by the Left, whose activists support aspects of the same globalisation process: multiculturalism, feminism, marijuana liberalisation, abortion rights, open borders, and feel-good causes in the name of 'democracy' and 'human rights', the results of which are further control by global plutocracy. Price $25.00 + postage from all League Book Services.

"Hilaire Belloc 1870-1953" by Anthony Cooney. "If we do not restore the Institution of Property we cannot escape restoring the Institution of Slavery". An introduction to this celebrated thinker and writer. He challenged the State on social and economic issues by contending that the dignity of man as a rational being requires both freedom and security. Price $5.00 plus postage.

DVDs are so important and need to be spread around. Just $10.00 + postage

• DVD "Centre for Technocracy, Global Elitism and Findings and Forecasts" by Patrick Wood at the Eagle Forum, USA.

• DVD "The Developing Threat of World Government": Jeremy Lee in 1984, at his best! Jeremy refers to a reporter who had looked at the mountains of food storage the public didn't know about. Butter in New Zealand, dairy products in the U.S.A.

In a huge canyon, the size of a football pitch, he saw (and there were 500 more caves), enough food to provide the whole world for 12 months. This was in 1984. Hour-long DVD.

"Clifford Hugh Douglas" by Anthony Cooney. Heralded as the Einstein of economics, Douglas gave a glimpse of reality to the world. He warned that debt, heavy taxation and inflation was inevitable under centralised financial policies which are in need of correction. Price $4.50 plus postage.

"One Sword at Least: G.K. Chesterton" by Anthony Cooney.

DISTRIBUTISM, LIBERTY, PROPERTY. A glimpse at the genius of Chesterton, author of over 100 books, poet, journalist, editor, controversialist, biographer, publisher, playwright, debater, traveller, lecturer, illustrator and prophet. Readers are challenged to discover Chesterton for themselves. Price $6.00 plus postage.

"Social Credit: Asterisks" by Anthony Cooney. A century ago C.H. Douglas revealed to the world that banks create money out of nothing. He challenged the monopoly of credit and those who control it. Increasing and unpayable world debt has rekindled interest in Douglas' works, his practical proposals and glimpse of reality. Price $5.00 plus
