THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: Who is Responsible for the Parlous* State of Australia?

This article below owes its origin to Charley Reese's final column for the Orlando Sentinel. He had been a journalist for 49 years. Upon his retiring he penned HIS LAST COLUMN. He hit the nail directly on the head, defining clearly, who it is, that in the final analysis, must assume responsibility for the judgments made that impact each one of us every day

**dangerous, hard to deal with-ed*

This is not Charlie's article but has been adapted to give an Australian perspective. Remember those 'gifts' from John Howard — 'there will never ever be a GST' ... and Julia Gillard's — 'no government I lead will have a 'carbon tax' ... well the Australian people got both! Mendacity by specialists! Now read on...

832 VS. 24.7 MILLION PEOPLE by Louis Cook (606 State & 226 Federal Politicians in Australia, 832 in Total)

Politicians are the only people in the world who create problems and then campaign against them. Have you ever wondered if both the Labour and Coalition are against deficits, WHY do we have deficits? Have you ever wondered if all the politicians are against inflation and high taxes, WHY do we have inflation and high taxes?

You and I don't propose a federal budget. The Treasurer does.

You and I don't have the Constitutional authority to vote on appropriations. The House of Representatives does.

You and I don't write the tax code, The Politicians do!

You and I don't set fiscal policy, The Politicians do!

You and I don't control monetary policy, the Reserve Bank does.

In the Federal Government there are Seventy-six senators, 150 Members of the House of Representatives, one is Prime Minister, and with the Cabinet equates to 226 human beings out of the 24.7 million who are directly, legally, morally, and individually responsible for the domestic problems that plague this country. This does not include State politicians but the message for them is the same!

The Commonwealth Bank, was established in 1912 with a fund of Ten Thousand Pounds as the 'People's Bank'. In a short period, the bank provided a sound currency as a federally chartered Bank. In 1925, the Parliament abrogated its Constitutional duty by handing control of the Commonwealth Bank to a group of 'bankers' stooges'. They later morphed the Commonwealth Bank into the Reserve Bank of Australia. The original Commonwealth Bank was eventually 'sold off' and the proceeds invested (?) in the 'Future Fund', setup to cover the superannuation benefits of politicians and senior bureaucrats ... please note – not for working Australians!

I now exclude members of the Reserve Bank Board because the problem was created by the Parliament.

I excluded all the special interests and lobbyists for a sound reason. They have no legal authority. They have no ability to coerce a Senator, a Representative, or a Prime Minister to do one cotton-picking thing. I don't care if they offer a politician $1 million dollars in cash. The politician has the power to accept or reject it. No matter what the lobbyist promises, it is the legislator's responsibility to determine how he/she votes.

226 human beings spend much of their energy convincing you that what they did is not their fault. They cooperate in this common con regardless of party.

What separates a politician from a normal human being is an excessive amount of gall. No normal human being would have the gall of a Politician, who stood up and criticized the Treasurer for creating deficits. The Treasurer can only propose a budget. He cannot force the Parliament to accept it.

The Constitution, which is the supreme law of the land, gives sole responsibility to the House of Representatives for originating and approving appropriations and taxes.

Who is the speaker of the House now? He is a member of the majority party. He and fellow House Members can approve any budget they want. If the Parliament vetoes it, they can even get around the veto if they agree to.

It seems inconceivable that a nation of 24.7 million cannot replace 226 people who stand convicted — by present facts — of incompetence and irresponsibility. I can't think of a single domestic problem that is not traceable directly to those 226 people. When you fully grasp the plain truth that 226 people exercise the power of the federal government, then it must follow that what exists is what they want to exist.

If the tax code is unfair, it's because they want it unfair.

If the budget is in the red, it's because they want it in the red.

If the Defence Forces are in Iraq and Afghanistan it's because they

Tax his land, Tax his bed,
Tax the table, at which he's fed.
Tax his tractor, Tax his mule,
Teach him taxes are the rule.
Tax his work, Tax his pay,
he works for peanuts anyway!
Tax his cow, Tax his goat,
Tax his pants, Tax his coat.
Tax his ties, Tax his shirt,
Tax his work, Tax his dirt.
Tax his tobacco, Tax his drink,
Tax him if he tries to think.
Tax his cigars, Tax his beers,
If he cries tax his tears.
Tax his car, Tax his gas,
Find other ways to tax his ass.
Tax all he has, then let him know that you won't be done till he has no dough.
When he screams and hollers; then tax him some more,
tax him till he's good and sore.
Then tax his coffin, Tax his grave,
Tax the sod into which he's laid...
Put these words upon his tomb,
"Taxes drove me to my doom..."
When he's gone, do not relax, it's time to apply, the Inheritance tax.

want them in Iraq and Afghanistan. If they do not receive social security but are on an elite retirement plan not available to the people, it's because they want it that way.

There are no insoluble government problems.

Do not let these 226 people shift the blame to bureaucrats, whom they hire and whose jobs they can abolish; to lobbyists, whose gifts and advice they can reject; to regulators, to whom they give the power to regulate and from whom they can take this power. Above all, do not let them con you into the belief that there exists disembodied mystical forces like "the economy," "inflation," or "politics" that prevent them from doing what they take an oath to do.

Those 226 people and they alone, are responsible. They and they alone, have the power. They and they alone, should be held accountable by the people who are their bosses, provided the voters have the gumption to manage their own employees...

We should vote all of them out of office and clean up their mess!
Vote the Sitting Member LAST!*****

GO AHEAD, BE AUSTRALIAN—Make these People Redundant at the Next Election!

Our elected representatives have a lot to answer for and should be made accountable; after all, they sought office and took an oath to serve the Australian people.

You have a duty to yourself, your family, and the Australian Nation to replace the 'failures' at the next election. If you feel in any way connected to this message then please reword it to suit yourself and pass around your friends and families and then send it to your elected representatives and ask for a good reason why they should not be replaced at the next election. If they will not take personal responsibility for the 'parlous state' of Australia today then they should be sent packing to be replaced with someone who will vote in your interest ... nothing less would suffice!

You should consider voting the sitting Member last!

Keep in mind who owns the 'political seat' ... it is not the elected Member or the Political Party but the people of the respective electorates!

Politicians who think they own the seat can be disabused of the idea at the next election. Voting is compulsory and secret, but it is still YOUR VOTE and any methods to coerce a voter when casting their vote is illegal.

Act responsibly and take charge of YOUR VOTE ... cast it how YOU want!

The nation is so effectively divided (try 'divide and rule') it would only take a small percentage of people to effect a radical change in direction. It is not a change or replacement of politicians needed but a CHANGE OF POLICIES.

If the 'sitting member' will not vote for a change in policy direction, then they must be replaced!

If you are still unconvinced then maybe you should look at 'Parliamentary Question Time' when shown on ABC television. Their 'play-acting' and 'adversarial politics' is disgraceful whilst constituents struggle to live under their rule.

WARMTH IS NO WORRY BUT COLD KILLS By Viv Forbes, Qld

It was ice, not global warming, that killed and entombed millions of mammoths and woolly rhinos in Siberia and Alaska.

It was unrelenting cold and then ice, not global warming, that forced the Vikings out of Greenland.

It was bitter winters, not heat waves, that finally defeated the armies of Napoleon and Hitler in Russia.

George Washington's army also suffered from an unusually bitter winter at Valley Forge in 1778, in the depths of the Little Ice Age.

Snowy blizzards periodically kill more cattle than heatwaves in Colorado, South Dakota and Texas.

When the Tambora volcano exploded in 1816 it spewed massive volumes of ash and "greenhouse" gases including carbon dioxide into the atmosphere. There was no global warming from the greenhouse gases, but the heat-blocking ash-filled atmosphere and a quiet sun caused "the year without a summer".

Failed crops and famine stalked Europe, Asia and America.

It is icebergs, not warm oceans, that sink ships like the Titanic, and spreading sea ice trapped "The Ship of Fools" in Antarctica.

Every major geological era has ended with massive volcanism on land and under the seas. Molten lava heats the seas and eruptions on land fill the atmosphere with dust which blocks incoming solar energy. There is rapid evaporation from the warm seas followed by rapid condensation in the cold dark atmosphere.

This process dumps massive snowfalls which become ice sheets on land, starting a new ice age and bringing the extinction of many species.

It is lethal global cooling we need to fear, not life-sustaining global warming. ***

HERE COMES PAEDOPHILIA THE NEXT BIG THING By Mrs Vera West

Paedophilia is the next big thing of the evil elites. A vote will be taken in a few days to lower the age of consent to 13 years: <http://yournewswire.com/european-union-age-consent/>

"Laurent Henry proposed the motion which "could free thousands of unjustly convicted prisoners" if the parliament decides to pass it.

"Our prisons are filled with young men that have been robbed of their youth, condemned to rot in jail for an act that should not be a crime. Why are we denying these young men the chance to play a more positive role in modern society?", he said before the assembly Tuesday.

"Some even argue that a law on the age of consent has become superfluous and should no longer exist."

Outdated laws:

Laws on pedophilia are outdated claims top German immigration attorney, Hans Goldsberg.

"There will be the need for a consolidation of national laws under the current European system on the legal aspects of sex. Most of these national rulings don't represent the modern social complexities of our times and are legally baseless. Some even argue that a law on the age of consent has become superfluous and should no longer exist," claims the lawyer who has worked for more than 35 years in his field of work."

So there you have it. This is what the elites here will be moving on in a few year's time. Do your best to promote the No vote. Time is fast running out. ***

THANKS TO CANADIAN WALLACE KLINCK FOR THE FOLLOWING:

What nonsense and mischievous use of words to manipulate human minds and emotions!

Transgender? No such thing—a pure fabrication.

Homophobic? Another linguistic construct.

Any one who is not "phobic" in front of a lava flow, or during an earthquake, or a deadly plague, or a violent riot, or while facing the barrel of a gun is not likely to be long for this world.

If it can be shown that homosexuality has adverse consequences then any minimally intelligent individual would surely be "phobic" of it to the extent warranted—which is anything but inconsequential.

We are, I think, being subject to a colossal psychological and social experiment conducted by egotistical and ruthless people who have insinuated themselves into places of power and influence—with innocent and malleable young minds being their primary targets for ideological indoctrination.

People who are obsessed with the "Will-to-Power" derive their greatest sense of perverse satisfaction by controlling the minds of others, the psychological weapon being more efficient and effective in any case than mere crude physical means which are reserved without mercy for the more recalcitrant victims. ***

A CALCUTTA ELECTION; WHY NOT?

The Show is over and the next big event on the social calendar is the Melbourne Cup—'the race that stops a nation'.

Enthusiasts study the 'form guide' and place their bets on the horse most likely to guarantee a return in relation to the odds offered by the bookmaker or betting agency; it can be great fun!

Others enjoy the occasion by 'investing' what they can afford to lose in 'Calcutta Sweeps' which is also great fun and even better if you draw the winning horse!

Much depends on 'Lady Luck' or perhaps in these politically correct times, 'Person Luck'!

Generally, before the race the 'starters' must qualify and the 'field' is reduced to the number of available barriers on the course. There are 'race rules' and other efforts to see the event is conducted as a fair and open race, otherwise, it has great acceptance by governments as they skim off taxes and charges to legitimise the 'sin' of gambling.

I find it interesting – why can't the 'Calcutta System' be used to select candidates for local government? It would go something like this: the candidates would nominate as they do at present. They would pay their nomination fee, declare they are an Australian Citizen, have lived in the Council area for at least five years and taken an oath to serve the people with clear conscience and to the best of their ability before nomination is accepted. This is the 'form guide'.

After nominations close it then passes to the overseeing electoral office to check the qualifications as required, e.g. not an undischarged bankrupt, felon, etc. and the other foregoing requirements. For this part of the process, responsibility would pass from the candidate to the electoral office.

When candidates are approved the Calcutta begins and if you wish to gamble, place your bets and proceeds for the winner go into a pot for the eventual winner's favourite charity.

The electoral office then conducts a ballot for the number of candidates required to govern the council and they are sworn into office with great celebration!

The successful candidates get their deposit back and all the others lose theirs, they lost!

Just think about it; no electioneering, no broken promises, no career politicians or party involvement ... they would not be needed to coerce the chosen incumbents. After thirty days the elected councillors would choose a mayor and deputy to lead them for the remainder of the term of office.

The bureaucrats would have their work cut-out managing the new councillors instead of harassing businesses trying to make a living in a deteriorating economy ... e.g. road signs trying to promote a business!

BASIC FUND APPEAL

The 'New Year' for the League follows the National Weekend where the Seminar, Dinner and other meetings take place. This year, the Basic Fund has a target of $60 000 which will ensure the continuation of all existing operations and an expansion in the video field. Whilst there are a few matters still to be finalised regarding the new videos; our staff are very enthusiastic about its potential. It will be a better means of reaching younger audiences. By reaching them, we will be investing in the future of the League and our Nation.

We have On Target; the New Times Survey; the two Blogs and all the archived journals available on the Internet. This requires writers, editors and constant updating of material on the web. Fortunately we have the skilled support to achieve this service.

Readers have the opportunity to assist the League programme by supporting the Basic Fund. During the National Weekend several supporters gave the fund a good start with their generous donations amounting to several thousand dollars. Please consider donating so the good work can continue.

There is also the opportunity for you to increase our 'supporter base' by using a 'Christ-mass gift subscription' of the printed On Target and New Times Survey journals. As a special initiative for the future of the League and our Nation, I am prepared to offer the 'Christ-mass gift subscription' to both journals for $50.00. It is time they knew! And finally there is the electronic version of our journals that can be sent on to 'your contacts'. Please forward the email addresses to Head Office and our staff will ensure they receive the electronic version of our journals. Everyone can do something! - K Grundy National Director
