THOUGHT OF THE WEEK: Children ‘seem less capable of spreading virus’

<https://www.bbc.com/news/av/health-52695995/children-seem-less-capable-of-spreading-virus>

Children appear to be “less capable” of spreading coronavirus than adults, the World Health Organization’s chief scientist has said. Soumya Swaminathan told the BBC’s Andrew Marr that the WHO hasn’t observed any big outbreaks linked to regular school attendance. While she also said children were at “very low risk of getting ill” from Covid-19, she added that more information is needed about a rare syndrome that may be linked to the virus.

PILPUL FOR BEGINNERS By Gilad Atzmon

<https://gilad.online/writings/2020/5/18/pilpul-for-beginners>

Americans may be surprised to learn from Alan Dershowitz that their constitution is far more intrusive and oppressive than what they and their forefathers have believed for generations. The law ‘scholar’ declared yesterday that “you have no (constitutional) right to not be vaccinated.”

Watch Video: You Have NO RIGHT to NOT be Vaccinated - Alan Dershowitz: <https://youtu.be/bLbp2uw5sZQ>

One possible explanation for Dershowitz’s peculiar constitutional ‘interpretation’ is that some parts of the American constitution were actually written in Yiddish, Hebrew and Aramaic. As such, their meaning is only accessible to a small privileged segment within the American population, one that amounts to 2% or less. But there is a far better explanation that shines light into the ‘reasoning’ offered by Dershowitz.

In a spectacularly brave Huffpost article titled What Is Pilpul, And Why On Earth Should I Care About It? author David Shasha writes, “Pilpul is the Talmudic term used to describe a rhetorical process that the (Jewish) sages used to formulate their legal decisions... It is a catch-all term that in English is translated as ‘Casuistry.’”

Casuistry: the use of clever but unsound reasoning, especially in relation to moral questions; sophistry.

Dershowitz, is a pilpul master. He often employs peculiar reasoning in relation to moral questions especially when it comes to his own morality and conduct.

Shasha writes of the history of pilpul tradition that “the Ashkenazi rabbis were less concerned with promulgating the Law transmitted in the Talmud than they were with molding it to suit their own needs. Pilpul was a means to justify practices already fixed in the behaviors of the community by re-reading the Talmud to justify those practices.” Pilpul, as described, is not about understanding of the law and its meaning but about the deliberate miss- interpretation of the law so it fits with one’s core interests. Shasha points out that “even though many contemporary Jews are not observant, pilpul continues to be deployed.

Pilpul occurs any time the speaker is committed to ‘prove’ his point regardless of the evidence in front of him. The casuistic aspect of this hair-splitting leads to a labyrinthine form of argument where the speaker blows enough rhetorical smoke to make his interlocutor submit. Reason is not an issue when pilpul takes over: what counts is the establishment of a fixed, immutable point that can never truly be disputed.”

Pilpul is basically a legalistic exercise that is removed from truthfulness, ethical thinking or even logic. What we see from Dershowitz is a dramatic pilpul-ization of the American legal culture and ethos.

“In this context,” Shasha continues, “the Law is not primary; it is the status of the jurist. Justice is extra-legal, thus denying social equality under the rubric of a horizontal system. Law is in the hands of the privileged rather than the mass.”

In a pretty accurate description of Dershowitz’ modus operandi Shasha writes, “Pilpul is the rhetorical means to mark as ‘true’ that which cannot ever be disputed by rational means.”

Shasha, obviously had Dershowitz in mind when he wrote his Huffpost article. But Dershowitz is not the only one. In Shasha’s article Noam Chomsky is equally guilty of pilpulism. “The contentiousness of the Middle East conflict is intimately informed by pilpul. Whether it is Alan Dershowitz or Noam Chomsky, both of them

Ashkenazim who had traditional Jewish educations, the terms of the debate are consistently framed by pilpul.

What is most unfortunate about pilpul — and this is something that will be familiar to anyone who has followed the controversies involving Israel and Palestine — is that, since the rational has been removed from the process, all that is left is yelling, irrational emotionalism, and, ultimately, the threat of violence.”

DATA EXPERTS ATTACK THE FERGUSON COVID-19 MODEL By Brian Simpson

We recently did an article where one computer expert cited took apart the coding foundation used in the Neil Ferguson model, that predicted doom, unless there was a society-wide lock-down. Now more have begun to attack the model:

<https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-8327641/Coronavirus-modelling-Professor-Neil-Ferguson-branded-mess-experts.html>

“Scientists have levelled a flurry of criticism against Professor Neil Ferguson’s modelling which warned 500,000 people could die from coronavirus and prompted Britain to go into lockdown. Modelling from Imperial College London epidemiologist Professor Ferguson, who stepped down from the government’s Sage group at the start of May, has been described as ‘totally unreliable’ by other experts.

The coding that produced the sobering death figures was impossible to read, and therefore cast doubts on its strength, The Telegraph reported. It is also some 13 years old, it said.

When other scientists have tried to replicate the

LIVING NOW UNDER THE CHINA/SOVIET REGIME By James Reed

The corona bug has been a gift from the Dark Lords to the centralised powers. Who would have thought that the power to regulate everything from exercise to bowel movements would come down from the oppressive state so quick? Talk about prison planet:

<https://quadrant.org.au/opinion/qed/2020/05/kommissar-of-all-the-kiwis/>

“New Zealand Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern has joined Australia’s National Cabinet to contribute to the COVIS-19 response, Prime Minister Scott Morrison saying he was delighted to invite his New Zealand counterpart to attend the meeting with all Australian states, territory premiers and chief ministers.

Curiously, Mr Morrison suggested to Ms Ardern a similar app to the controversial COVIDSafe app be developed for New Zealand. The app, which is used to trace Australian citizens, allows officials to de-encrypt contact information from the user’s phone on the basis of a positive COVID-19 result. According to Dr Vanessa Teague, chief executive of Thinking CyberSecurity and an adjunct professor at the Australian National University, this “centralised”

I agree with Shasha. The Middle East conflict has been reduced into a pilpul battle ground between Zionists and their Anti Zionist Zionist twins. The question for Americans is whether Pilpul, a Jewish Ashkenazi litigious practice that is removed from truthfulness, ethics and reason should interfere with American’s constitutional rights, way of living, politics, culture, spirit and vaccination policies. *** findings using the same model, they have repeatedly failed to do.

Prof Ferguson’s model is understood to have single-handedly triggered a dramatic change in the Government’s handling of the outbreak, as they moved away from herd immunity to a lockdown.

Competing scientists’ research - whose models produced vastly different results - has been largely discarded, they claim.

David Richards, co-founder of British data technology company WANdisco said the model was a ‘buggy mess that looks more like a bowl of angel hair pasta than a finely tuned piece of programming’.

He said: ‘In our commercial reality we would fire anyone for developing code like this and any business that relied on it to produce software for sale would likely go bust.’”

Yet, it was this modelling that provided a foundation for the lock-downs that are set to deliver economic devastation to the West, and probably mark the decisive point where the West goes down a blind alley.

Don’t blindly trust “experts.” ***

tracing app “inevitably means the authorities are getting a complete list of your contacts”.

Morrison will most likely not be interested to discuss how his National Cabinet “ludicrously delayed reopening of the economy to repair the very mess for which it is totally responsible”. By entirely trusting the anointed advice of carefully selected medical advisers, writes emeritus professor David Flint, Morrison’s National Cabinet has not just “failed to protect the vulnerable to the high degree necessary”, but it “went beyond the pale in imposing a draconian and wholly unnecessary lockdown”. By assessing the matter from an essentially constitutional law perspective, Professor Flint concludes:

In clear breach of the [Australian] constitution as originally intended, the National Cabinet imposed massive and unprecedented debt on the people, unlawfully suspending and destroying jobs, small business and much of the economic life of the nation as well as grotesquely limiting the people’s freedom with something approaching house arrest. The [Australian] people never agreed to this coup, this unconstitutional seizure of power ... There was never an emergency which justified the use of such extreme powers.

As for New Zealand, on March 23, 2020, a month after the country recorded its first case of coronavirus, Prime Minister Ardern announced a draconian national lockdown when it had only 102 cases and zero deaths. While people can argue the NZ government was only trying to stamp out the virus, during this crisis it has been patently obvious that such lockdown was used to increase the arbitrary power and control of the State over the citizens. "Undoubtedly we now have a tightly-knit oligarchy running New Zealand", writes NZ political commentator Amy Brooke, who goes on to say:

Initially, most New Zealanders acquiesced to what has been assessed as 'the most significant impact on human rights in living memory', with government imposing lockdown level four. However, the estimated number of deaths of those unable to access hospitals for scheduled cancer, kidney, heart and other urgent surgery and care is apparently going to be far greater than from Covid-19. Reportedly, 20,000 operations and 60,000 specialist appointments have been cancelled. This does not include the mental stress and anxiety of some who may well commit suicide, forced into financial ruin, with business collapsing nationwide, the loss of jobs and savings being eaten away."

Just have a captain cook at the power the polities gave themselves; you would think that we faced a zombie apocalypse, with people turning into flesh-eating monsters, as in movies such as 28 Days Later and 28 Weeks Later and now 28 Months Later.

What is true for New Zealand, as detailed above, is equally true for the rest of the West, as the final grab for total power is made. I say "final" as I do not see Western civilisation surviving the gutting of its core values, if this continues. We will enter a new Dark Age, if it has not already begun. Tyranny will rule, as never before.

It is sad that the sheeple never saw this one coming, but grazed on with the rich pastures of consumer bliss. ***

DEGENERACY DURING LOCKDOWN By Mrs Vera West

Even during lockdown, it is important for the politically correct schools to keep up the programming, making sure children of a tender age are continually indoctrinated, this time with degenerate sex exercises. Safe schools, (using cognitive dissonance), are not safe at all, but rather, a place of cultural abuse. This could go a long way to explain why the WHO advocates 'not' shutting down schools over COVID, that children might spend a couple of months of quality time with their parents and thus avoid this nonsense :

<https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-8336201/Mother-blasts-school-11-year-old-daughter-asked-define-hardcore-pornography-homework.html>

"A mum is 'fuming' over her 11-year-old daughter's school work which asked children to define hardcore pornography - among other 'inappropriate' topics. Children in Years 7, 8 and 9 at Archbishop Sentamu Academy in Hull were set the work in their Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE) class as part of their home learning.

Teachers have asked the 11 to 14-year-olds to 'define' pornography, soft pornography, hardcore pornography and transsexual pornography, as well as female genital mutilation, wet dreams, trafficking, male circumcision, breast ironing and more.

They were also asked questions about alcohol, drugs and smoking.

Following complaints from parents, the academy has now apologised for any offence caused.

The mother, who wished only to be referred to by her surname, Mrs Taylor, from east Hull said if her daughter had searched these phrases online in order to define them, the results would have 'destroyed her mind' and 'scarred her for life'.

Luckily the mum of children aged seven, 11 and 16 was warned about the work in a Facebook post by another parent before her daughter began working on it.

The 34-year-old said: 'My daughter is still very much a child, we've still got magic elves, her bedroom is done in My Little Pony. She is very innocent and naive.

'She was only in primary school last year living her best life, now she is being asked to search for hardcore pornography.

'She's 11, she should be doing stranger danger, and don't share your info online, but genital mutilation is another thing. It was asking about male circumcision, breast ironing...I don't even know what that is myself."

Why mom, it is the gender agenda and the end game of feminism/cultural wars, in full living colour, and it is horrible!

If you have ever wondered why the West is disintegrating, then look no further than the (conservative sponsored-ed) universities as the producer of our teachers, who go for teaching this ... stuff ... over traditional family orientated cultural history, mathematics and physics. Western civilisation has already gone down the drain and these products from our elite learning institutions are happy to hose it down further.

Rightly written are the biblical 'End Times Prophecies' warning all who would not listen, take heed and turn away from civilisational destruction (repent), for we really have, as Solzhenitsyn said 'forgotten God, that is why these things happened'. Can we turn away? ***

A HOPEFUL SIGN By Mrs Vera West

With the great conflict set to loom over mandatory vaccinations, perhaps, in the US at least, at military gun point, it is of interest to observe what the general public is thinking about the ultimate causes of all of this. Surprise, surprise, Bill Gate's name crops up:

<https://www.zdnet.com/article/australian-poll-finds-1-in-8-blame-bill-gates-and-5g-for-coronavirus/>

“When it comes to believing stupid conspiracy theories related to coronavirus, young Australians are the most susceptible, or at least that's what they're telling pollsters. According to a poll conducted by Essential Research, one-fifth of all 18 to 34-year olds said they had some belief that Bill Gates was involved in the creation and spread of coronavirus, with the same number responding positive to the question: “The 5G wireless network is being used to spread the COVID-19 virus”.

These numbers decreased with age, with 13% of 35 to 54-year olds responding positively to the theories, and only 4% and 8% of the 55+ cohort, respectively, subscribed to the 5G nutbaggery and Gates idiocy.

Broken down by gender, 15% of the 524 male respondents said they believed in the 5G conspiracy, compared to 9% of the 549 female respondents, while the gender split was 14% and 13%, respectively, on the Gates theory. In total, the poll indicated that just under one in eight respondents, 12%, believed 5G has been used in the coronavirus pandemic, while 13% subscribed to Microsoft founder Bill Gates playing “a role in the creation and spread of COVID-19”.

On Tuesday morning, Communications Minister Paul Fletcher attempted to slap down any link between 5G and the virus, saying that spreading such misinformation was irresponsible, dangerous, and potentially harmful to the community. “Any suggestions that there is a link between 5G and coronavirus are utterly baseless. As the Chief Medical Officer has said, 5G does not cause the coronavirus and it does not spread coronavirus,” Fletcher said. Fletcher also said that attacking mobile towers was a criminal offence. “The Australian Government will not tolerate any vandalism of communications infrastructure and I urge Australians to report any suspicious activity to their local police,” he said. “Causing damage to mobile phone networks can cut vital connectivity, risking serious harm, even death, if a person is unable to contact Triple Zero.” As states around Australia seek to lift restrictions, the poll found around a quarter of respondents thought that government should let people back in workspaces and restaurants within the next month; another quarter said by the end of June and 25% said it was too soon to lift restrictions. Only 9% said restrictions should be lifted as soon as possible.”

Silly young folk; every man and his vaccinated dog (complete with 666 microchips) knows that Bill at the Gates is a great humanitarian, who has humanities' survival at heart, with a great love of Africa. ***
