Thought For The Week: A 'Problem' correctly stated is already half solved - CH Douglas

THE NEW DESPOTISM: Implementing World Government Policy By Arnis Luks

In my attempt to understand the rising expression of the policy of eugenics, my research opened a Pandora's box of policy initiatives within different committee branches of both the United Nations and the European Union. The structure of both being run by bureaucracy and committee rather than a parliament of differing points of view, with open debate, and a balance of powers across differing but co-dependant branches of government. The representatives who attend are simply place-holders for decisions made elsewhere other than the parliament.

I've heard it said - "Nature abhors a vacuum". My take on this statement of truth, is that the retreat of Christian thinking from the hallways of political power have allowed other philosophies to storm through, while Christian thought is deliberately brought to bear on issues of little consequence in the periphery of life's major problems.

Eugenics is the selective disposal of humans to purify a race or racial qualities. Some sources allude to this being limited to birth defects. 1930s through 1940s Germany stands accused of putting in practice this policy to whole peoples. Germany is not alone by a long shot. Eugenics has been practised since recorded history, generally by the victor of a war over the vanquished. We see this expressed with nearly all despot revolutionaries. The atomic bombing of the defeated Japan was unnecessary and simply a blood-lust demonstration of power over the vanquished. Old Testament records affirm similar events. René Girard's "The Scapegoat" presents the deep psychology behind this phenomenon of human sacrifice to restore the well-being of the group. <https://youtu.be/-HS3wD0HNfI>

While not all humanists are eugenicists, we can see eugenics as a major policy shift emanating in rapidity by nearly all Australian state-governments, sourcing their belief system from Darwinistic-Humanism, with the latest expression in euthanasia of the terminally-infirm. <https://www.brisbanetimes.com.au/politics/queensland/queensland-becomes-fifth-australian-state-to-legalise-voluntary-euthanasia-20210914-p58rfr.html>

The 1972 publication of the report to the private Club of Rome "Limits to Growth", pessimistically argues that we would in future be unable to feed ourselves. The natural world demonstrates that we are nowhere near achieving a food production limit. <5% of our working population are capable of producing sufficient food for all Australians while also being a major food exporting nation. What we may actually be threatened with is a deliberate policy of "supply chain disruption and economic collapse" emanating from public/private institutions and UN initiatives to bring into being the New World Order and Carbon Currency in the form of central bank digital currency CBDC. An entirely un-natural famine-event planned by world powers operating above all governments. <https://www.donellameadows.org/wp-content/userfiles/Limits-to-Growth-digital-scan-version.pdf>

The Event 201 Scenario : <https://www.centerforhealthsecurity.org/event201/>

The Johns Hopkins Center for Health Security in partnership with the World Economic Forum and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation hosted Event 201, a high-level pandemic exercise on October 18, 2019, in New York, NY. The exercise illustrated areas where public/private partnerships will be necessary during the response to a severe pandemic in order to diminish large-scale economic and societal consequences. Event 201 simulates an outbreak of a novel zoonotic coronavirus transmitted from bats to pigs to people that eventually becomes efficiently transmissible from person to person, leading to a severe pandemic. The pathogen and the disease it causes are modelled largely on SARS, but it is more transmissible (gain of function-ed) in the community setting by people with mild symptoms...

Cyber Polygon to focus on secure development of digital ecosystems :

The cyberattack simulation, Cyber Polygon, occurred in July 2021. The WEF, Russia's Sberbank, and its cybersecurity subsidiary BIZONE announced in February 21 that a new cyberattack simulation would occur July 9, 2021. The event will simulate a supply-chain cyberattack similar to the SolarWinds attack that would "assess the cyber resilience" of the exercise participants....

Australia's many capable dry-land farmers are producing sufficient crops to feed many millions more than we ourselves require, and should we choose to exploit our abundant water resources, further sparsely-utilised arid areas could be re-directed toward more intensive food production. Eyre Peninsular in South Australia, (the size of Tasmania), could be directed towards high-density irrigated food production should we choose to harness the massive freshwater overflows from Lake Argyle. The Gordon below Franklin Dam in Tasmania, a listed world heritage area, could also be directed towards a similar purpose, if we were willing. But what of the high court decision and UNESCO you say? Let us take a look at UNESCO as a private/public partnership and revisit again the humanist policy of eugenics emanating from that organisation.

Purpose and Philosophy of UNESCO

Julian Huxley (UK) 1946-1948 was the inaugural director-general of UNESCO. He was brother to fellow 'humanist and eugenicist' Aldous Huxley, author of the futuristic utopian novel 'The Brave New World'.

Julian Huxley was Life Fellow of the Eugenics Society from 1925, active on its Council from 1931, its Vice-President 1937-44, and President from 1959-62. He supported the campaigns for voluntary sterilisation legislation in the early 1930s, and for negative eugenic measures against persons carrying the scientific stigma of "mental defect". Julian Huxley straddled science and social action. He saw biology as a means to solve social welfare problems. He consequently built bridges between eugenics and the social sciences by working on behalf of Political and Economic Planning (PEP), of which he was a founder member in 1931.

Humanist Lionel Murphy

Former federal Labour attorney general and High Court Justice Lionel Murphy received the inaugural Australian Humanist of the Year award in 1983. In that same year 1983, High Court judges decided 4:3 majority to usurp power from the states, redirect it towards federal government via a radical 'foreign affairs' interpretation overturning our limiting constitution - the highest law in the land - by overriding states rights to govern themselves, and stopping the state project - the Gordon-below-Franklin dam. This novel interpretation of our constitution set the ball rolling to what we now experience as the "Great Reset", the policy of 'World Government'. The Environmentalist movement was also actively opposed to the building of this dam as was the federal Labor party under PM Hawke. Naturalist and Conservationist Harry Butler spoke, (against his own better interests), in favour of building the dam.

The 1983 Tasmanian Dam High Court findings, happen to directly benefit UNESCO interests. How convenient. If you make the effort to read the High Court judgement you will find many direct references to UNESCO and agreements with this private / public partnership over vast areas of land and other nation assets

In 2013, UNESCO announced that the collection : "The Life and Works of (Ernesto) Che Guevara" became part of the Memory of the World Register. Cubans were lined up and summarily executed by this merciless Argentinian Marxist revolutionary Che Guevara and his mercenaries, this 'memory' serving as a direct contradiction to the UNESCO ideals of encouraging peace and universal respect for human rights.

Eugenics, Politics, and Fiction By Joanne Woiak

extract: Aldous Huxley, (brother of UNESCO Julian), writing shortly after the 1932 publication of Brave New World, despaired about the real-world significance of one of his novel's principal themes: About 99.5% of the entire population of the planet are as stupid and philistine . . . as the great masses of the English. The important thing, it seems to me, is not to attack the 99.5% . . . but to try to see that the 0.5% survives, keeps its quality up to the highest possible level, and, if possible, dominates the rest. The imbecility of the 99.5% is appalling—but after all, what else can you expect? ¹

False Narrative to Take the Heat Off 'World Policy'

Australian PM Morrison is attempting to divert attention towards a false narrative - somewhat of a threatening and foreboding China, with Australia needing to be defended by a nuclear submarine option. Anything to take the public gaze away from increasing adverse reactions and fatalities from the mRNA injections, (eugenics) and increasing demonstrations of growing public resistance to this 'World Government Covid Policy' - the Great Reset.

The previous submarine choice by the Liberal Turnbull government, while certainly a poorly considered decision, the truth of the demise of our national security and loss of primary industry falls heavily onto the shoulders of both major political parties as a consequence of imposing of another 'World Government Policy'.

20 March 1992 On Target Vol 28 No 10 TUGGING THE FORELOCK TO JAPAN - our On Target archives record the real but hidden truth of Lima Declaration complicity by successive Australian governments with the deconstruction of our industry and tugging the forelock of the UN and other world bodies that are in fact public/private foundations issuing 'World Government Policy'.
https://alor.org/Storage/Library/PDF/Lima_Declaration.pdf

I was drawn to the "histomap of history" by John B Sparks (online library) to consider the rise and fall of civilisations across the past 4000 years.

Histomap of History : https://alor.org/Storage/Library/PDF/Sparkes_JB-Histomap.png

As we move from one political convulsion to another, looking at this chart shows the time-line of 'civilisational collapse', but not 'how each collapse came about'. We can see the great corruption of our administration and further centralisation of power by all our governments implementing the root of 'World Government Tyranny'. Should we not consider the rules / laws that hold societies together in the first place? The outcome, rest assured if we fail to put into right order, will be the same. We are witnessing man's abstract defiance against the natural order : Darwinistic-Determinism against God.

The World is Upside Down

Truth is lies - a medical doctor, in reporting of the adverse side-effects of the experimental mRNA injections, is called to account before the Therapeutic Goods Association TGA.

Lies is truth - adverse reactions and increasing causal fatalities by the same experimental mRNA injections are actively suppressed from the same Therapeutic Goods Association. The power structure above the TGA is a privately run not-for-profit foundation titled the World Health Organisation, whose policy provides massive profits for individuals such as Bill Gates and Antony Fauci. While this structural template appears capitalistic, it imposes a communistic totalitarian policy across the entire world - the nexus as a new synthesis of both capitalism and communism (dialectical materialism).

Out of Order

The role of government has changed across our short Australian political history. While corruption has been ever prevalent within the elites, the role-switch from servant to master has more readily occurred by the concentration of political power into fewer and fewer hands. That same power, that rightfully belongs to the people to govern themselves by electing and controlling their own representatives, has been usurped with capture of our political parties by a centralised money power.

Humanism, as espoused by inaugural director-general of UNESCO Julian Huxley and others, promotes rule by the elites and when necessary; euthanasia against those who are 'mentally defective', objecting to this rule. Atheistic communism holds a similar world view.

What is the Christian Answer to This Question of : Where Should Political Power Reside?

'Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's' is not a simple platitude, but a powerful political pronouncement of natural law, sufficient to establish our limiting constitutionalism in its right order. Our Christian Federal Constitution limited the federal parliament to specific areas (Section 51 heads of power), allowing states to continue to govern themselves as they saw fit, thus allowing individuals in society to render unto God those other things - a functioning federation of interdependent but also independent states under a federal but limited commonwealth constitutional monarchy.

The humanist (amongst others) redirected this limiting power to a communistic organisation managed by other humanists to further their 'World Government Agenda'. Further; Power was transferred from the Australian people towards, as PM Paul Keating once described when referring to our Senate, un-representative swill. PM Keating, along with predecessor PM Hawke, were both instrumental in transferring further political power across to the UN by allowing individual Australians the ability to seek UN deliberation above our own courts - a private institution run for their own benefit. These treacherous steps, along with many other disloyal acts were instrumental in erosion of our limiting Constitution.

Crossing the Rubicon

In order to salvage our nation, our civilisation, we must do something novel, original, by taking us as a civilisation forward while also crossing the Rubicon (the point of which there is no return). We would do well to consider setting clear and understood objectives, perhaps those suggested in the words of CH Douglas:

...First, we have to know how to bring into our consciousness what sort of a world we want, and to realise that we alone can get it, not in detail, but in objective; and I might say at once that there is not one person in this room who is secure in the world that he now has. In my opinion, we want, first of all, security in what we have, freedom of action, thought, and speech, and a more abundant life for all. Every one of these is possible, and every one of them in the present state of progress of the world can be reduced to the possession of more purchasing power, so that it is not too much to say, even though it may sound banal, that the first objective of a democracy should be a national dividend.

A second aspect of the problem has been clarified by the courageous utterance of the Lord Chief Justice, Lord Hewart, in his objections to the encroachments of bureaucracy. If I may restate them – the business of bureaucracy is to get us what we want, not to annoy and hinder us by taking from us by taxation and irritating restrictions those facilities which we otherwise should have.

Thirdly, and most important, we have to obtain control of the forces of the Crown by genuine political democracy...

.....We of the official (Douglas) Social Credit Movement are concentrating upon this problem of devising a (political-ed) mechanism, to enable the individuals who comprise the public to impose their policy on the organisations which have no sound reason for existence other than the will of the people...

Begin Here: Australia's Constitution was modelled after the Christian Trinitarian Godhead of Father, Son and Holy Spirit - dividing power across independent but co-dependent branches of government, (legislative, executive and judicial) and reflected again across each structure of our federated Constitution (Upper House, Lower House and Monarch; and also Federal, State and Local Government). Departure from this harmonious and balancing model demonstrates the current tyranny of Darwinian 'World Government' - survival of the fittest. The Words of Christ and the Athanasian Creed being the establishment point from which any Constitutional review should begin. ***

Athanasian Creed

Whosoever will be saved, before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholic Faith. Which Faith except everyone do keep whole and undefiled, without doubt he shall perish everlastingly. And the Catholic Faith is this, that we worship one God in Trinity and Trinity in Unity. Neither confounding the Persons, nor dividing the Substance. For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, and another of the Holy Ghost. But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Ghost is all One, the Glory Equal, the Majesty Co-Eternal. Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Ghost. The Father Uncreate, the Son Uncreate, and the Holy Ghost Uncreate. The Father Incomprehensible, the Son Incomprehensible, and the Holy Ghost Incomprehensible. The Father Eternal, the Son Eternal, and the Holy Ghost Eternal and yet they are not Three Eternals but One Eternal. As also there are not Three Uncreated, nor Three Incomprehensibles, but One Uncreated, and One Incomprehensible. So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Son Almighty, and the Holy Ghost Almighty. And yet they are not Three Almighty but One Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Ghost is God. And yet they are not Three Gods, but One God. So likewise the Father is Lord, the Son Lord, and the Holy Ghost Lord. And yet not Three Lords but One Lord. For, like as we are compelled by the Christian verity to acknowledge every Person by Himself to be God and Lord, so are we forbidden by the Catholic Religion to say, there be Three Gods or Three Lords. The Father is made of none, neither created, nor begotten. The Son is of the Father alone; not made, nor created, but begotten. The Holy Ghost is of the Father, and of the Son neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is One Father, not Three Fathers; one Son, not Three Sons; One Holy Ghost, not Three Holy Ghosts. And in this Trinity none is afore or after Other, None is greater or less than Another, but the whole Three Persons are Co-eternal together, and Co-equal. So that in all things, as is aforesaid, the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity, is to be worshipped. He therefore that will be saved, must thus think of the Trinity.

Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting Salvation, that he also believe rightly the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ. For the right Faith is, that we believe and confess, that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is God and Man.

God, of the substance of the Father, begotten before the worlds; and Man, of the substance of His mother, born into the world. Perfect God and Perfect Man, of a reasonable Soul and human Flesh subsisting. Equal to the Father as touching His Godhead, and inferior to the Father as touching His Manhood. Who, although He be God and Man, yet He is not two, but One Christ. One, not by conversion of the Godhead into Flesh, but by taking of the Manhood into God. One altogether, not by confusion of substance, but by Unity of Person. For as the reasonable soul and flesh is one Man, so God and Man is one Christ. Who suffered for our salvation, descended into Hell, rose again the third day from the dead. He ascended into Heaven, He sitteth on the right hand of the Father; God Almighty, from whence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies, and shall give account for their own works. And they that have done good shall go into life everlasting, and they that have done evil into everlasting fire. This is the Catholic Faith, which except a man believe faithfully and firmly, he cannot be saved.
