Douglas Social Credit Movement Across Canada Now Mobilizing for Democratic Action

DETONATORS

ALBERTA BILL WORRIES REDS—The Alberta Government's strong labour legislation providing penalties for illegal strikes and lockouts (mostly Communist inspired) has drawn the fire of Jan Lakeman, Alberta Communist, who compares it to the Taft-Hartley law in the United States, with which the Reds are not in favour.

"The (farm) strike made history and is a harbinger of things to come."—from the minutes of the Alberta LPP 4th Annual Convention.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND CANADA—Czech communists get rid of democratic cabinet ministers by pushing them through windows.

Can it happen here?

FAIR WARNING—In a brief passage, entitled "How To Keep Your Son, Husband, Father Out of War," the eminent Jew, Benjamin H. Freedman, tells every American to write to his Congressman: "Tell him that this country should not be dragged into war to create a nationalist sovereign Jew state in Palestine. If the United States sponsors the Zionists' political ambitions in Palestine, war is inevitable. Territorial aggression by a world-minority nationalist group is no reason to plunge us into war. Act before it is too late!"

The Marshall "Plan"

"... Two years after a war for global freedom we have almost global servitude. We find chaos, revolution and famine increasing as 'planned.' And we find not 'peace,' but war.

"Out of that war, and chaos, and famine, has emerged the 'Marshall plan.' This 'plan' is named for the man who cannot recall where he was, as Chief of Staff, the night before the unspeakable event that precipitated our Nation into the war. Marshall has now become a Statesman. A failure with his half billion (taxpayer-) dollar cumshaw to the Chinese, Marshall's name is given to a pourboire affair for Europe, forty times as large. Strangely, here, too, left-ist names or aliases are intimately allied—Lewis Levine Lowin Frederick Strauss and Katherine Jacobson"

Free To Subscribers

Subscribers to THE CHALLENGE and the Information Service will be receiving shortly copies of an important speech on the present world situation delivered in the House of Commons, February 19th, by Norman Jaques, M.P. for Wetaskiwin.

So important is this speech that, after its delivery to the Canadian parliament, Solon E. Low, national leader of the Social Credit Association of Canada, along with the president and vice-president of the Ontario Social Credit League, ordered the editor of "The Canadian Social Crediter" to publish it in his pages. The newly-appointed editor declined. Likewise, radio station CJCA refused to broadcast a radio version of this speech.

We therefore feel it necessary to distribute this to our members as part of our information service.

Other data will be released as promptly after initial publication as possible.

MANY THANKS

Shortage of space in this first issue of THE CHALLENGE prevents us describing in detail the generous response and help we have received in reply to our first circular letter and from all those who have otherwise aided us in rallying Canada to a dynamic Social Credit action crusade.

Again — many thanks. We do not have to urge you to keep up the good work, so vital to the welfare of the country today.

Do everything you can to help. Talk political realism. Study THE CHALLENGE and the data which you will receive as part of our information service. Help organize the electors on non-party lines of action. And donate when you can, to facilitate the work we are doing.

Challenge To Be Larger In Future

It is our intention to build up THE CHALLENGE as speedily as circumstances permit, into a modern, streamlined newspaper packed with vital information on topics of the day. In the meantime, the first few numbers will be highly-condensed, containing the choicest material we feel you should have.

Help us build a better CHALLENGE!

Press Statement Explains Purpose and Policy Of Canadian Movement

EDMONTON, March 19. —A press statement released simultaneously in Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia outlined to Canadians the purpose and policy of the Douglas Social Credit movement of Canada which is now mobilizing for effective action on a full, national scale.

It was made abundantly clear that the Social Crediters will NOT enter the party-political field — but it was emphasized that they will work to establish Social Credit action groups in every electoral division, on the Union of Electors' pattern, to restore sovereign, democratic power to the people of Canada.

Because of its importance, particularly at this time, we are re-printing the official press statement in full, herewith. This statement was endorsed by the Social Credit Secretariat of Great Britain, the recognized authoritative channel through which the advice of Major C. H. Douglas is made available to all sections of the Social Credit movement throughout the world.

Something Has Happened

This is a Social Credit publication. Its policy is Social Credit as enunciated by Major C. H. Douglas, recognized by the world-wide Social Credit Movement as the author and THE authoritative exponent of Social Credit. There is no other "brand" of Social Credit, and any deviation from its principles and their application in the sphere of human affairs constitutes a perversion that cannot fail to bring forth disaster.

That is our stand and we shall adhere to it without compromise.

We make no apology for this publication. In the perilous and rapidly deteriorating situation, there is an urgent need for a reliable source of essential information on the deliberate and evil conspiracy to enslave mankind, which has Christendom in its grip.

Until a few months ago, this information was available through The Canadian Social Crediter. But this is no longer the case. That periodical has become an instrument of propaganda for a single political party, and even the writings of Major C. H. Douglas on world affairs have, according to its new editor, been banned from its columns.

Readers of this first issue of THE SOCIAL CREDIT CHALLENGE should be aware of the circumstances which have led up to this amazing state of affairs. They will, then, be able to draw their own conclusions and appreciate more fully the impelling necessity which has given birth to this information service.

On May 31st, 1943, the Social Credit caucus of the Alberta Legislative Assembly issued a statement of policy, which stated in part:

"... and further we shall strengthen and maintain the harmonious relationship existing with Major C. H. Douglas and with the Social Credit Movement throughout the world.

"We solemnly pledge ourselves to pursue with unabated and renewed vigour... the great crusade for social justice initiated and carried forward by our late beloved leader with such inspiring devotion, courage and faith..."

In the issue of June 10th, 1943, "Today & Tomorrow," the official organ of the Alberta Social Credit League, under the editorship at that time of the Hon. Lucien Maynard, stated editorially:

"Unfortunately too often we are prone to get our knowledge of Social Credit from somebody's interpretation of it instead of going to the source of authoritative information—the writings of the founder, Major C. H. Douglas.

"There is no essential aspect of Social Credit which has emanated from any other source, and, moreover, by getting their knowledge from Douglas, Social Crediters are assured of gaining it with a right perspective."

On April 4-6, 1946, the national convention of the Social Credit Association of Canada met in Regina and adopted the following resolutions:

RESOLVED that this convention go on record as FULLY endorsing THE PRINCIPLES AND TENETS OF SOCIAL CREDIT AS ENUNCIATED BY MAJOR C. H. DOUGLAS.

RESOLVED (1) that the main efforts of the Movement be directed henceforth to THE ESTABLISHMENT OF NON-PARTY ELECTORS' ACTION GROUPS in as many polling divisions as possible.

(This was followed by an outline of the Union of Electors organization and policy.)

The foregoing action policy was being carried out at that time by the Social Credit Movement in Quebec through L'Union des Electeurs, and subsequently was initiated in Ontario as the Union of Electors.

The Convention also endorsed the vigorous policy of The Canadian Social Crediter under the editorship of John Patrick Gillese and the fearless crusade of Norman Jaques, M.P. against political Zionism and Communism.

* * * *

During the next eighteen months SOMETHING HAPPENED and a growing uneasiness developed within the movement that all was not well—a feeling that was strengthened by the events which preceded and culminated in the annual convention of the Alberta Social Credit League held in Calgary last November.

Following this convention a meeting of the national council of the Social Credit Association of Canada was held. At this:

(1) The policy of The Canadian Social Crediter was denounced.

(2) An Alberta M.L.A. was appointed editor-in-chief over Mr. Gillese.

(3) Major Douglas' writings were repudiated, except for the economic principles contained in his Swanwick address of 1924.

(4) The Quebec movement, L'Union des Electeurs, and the Union of Electors of Ontario were denounced.

(5) The writings of Norman Jaques—one of the best-informed and fearless exponents of Social Credit—were denounced.

* * * *

On taking up his duties, the new editor-in-chief issued a statement to the press, declaring that the policy of The Canadian Social Crediter had been changed drastically—that there would be no more "anti-ism" articles, that the "anti-Semitic" writings of Norman Jaques and Major C. H. Douglas would be banned from the paper.

Mr. Gillese, the editor; Mr. Burton, the associate editor; and Miss Nanette Jaques resigned from the paper.

* * * *

In January, 1948, Following (a) a violent attack on the Quebec movement by Dr. J. N. Haldeman, Chairman of the National Council, published in "The Canadian Social Crediter" and (b) the repudiation of that paper by "The Social Crediter" of England (official organ of the Social Credit Secretariat, carrying Major Douglas' views) Mr. Ernest Gregoire, Vice-President of the Social Credit Association of Canada, resigned from that position.

In its issue of January 9, 1948, The Canadian Jewish Chronicle (a Zionist publication) published the following news item:

"Leaders of the Social Credit Party have finally announced a ban on the publication of anti-Semitic (sic) articles in the organization's official organ, following conferences with Joseph H. Fine, chairman of the public relations committee of the Canadian Jewish Congress.

"In addition to the ban, party leaders forced the resignation of the editor and assistant editor..." (Our emphasis.)

Those are some of the facts. Others, particularly those of more recent date, are familiar to our readers.

However, there is a great deal more to it than that. As the situation rushes towards its appalling climax and, in the process, the issue becomes increasingly plain, the full implications will emerge in regard to recent events in Alberta, their impact on the national Social Credit movement and the roles of certain professing Social Crediters occupying key positions.

For the time being, we must let the matter rest there.

Now it will be evident that the enemy, who, by the use of tactics all too familiar to us, has created the present situation within the Social Credit Movement, is viewing his handiwork with smug satisfaction. He hopes that he has, at long last, succeeded in creating "a split" in the Movement—thereby weakening it to the point of impotence. Nothing would please the enemy better than a battle between "the two sections" of the Social Credit Movement. If there was no other reason, no Social Crediter in his senses would be so stupid as to obligingly play the enemy's game.

IF THERE IS TO BE A SPLIT, REST ASSURED WE SHALL NOT PROVOKE IT.

Simply because a handful of men and women within our ranks—and they are by no means confined to Alberta—have become contaminated by the evils of party politics, that provides no reason for sabotaging the strength of the national movement by picking a quarrel with them. For their own good reasons they have become enamoured with party politics and succumbed to the external influences to which the "party" system opens the door. They have convinced themselves that party politics is the right way to gain Social Credit objectives.

In order to rationalize this view, they are forced to abandon fundamental Social Credit principles—including the Social Credit concept of genuine democracy. Therefore, they must repudiate Major Douglas—except for his economic theories, with modifications. Also they must trim the sails of their principles to the political expediency of vote catching. They must, at all costs, avoid the Communist smear of "fascist" and "anti-Semitism." To do this, they must quit fighting effectively. They must avoid the challenge of political zionism they must avoid naming guilty men and exposing their actions. And at all costs, they must avoid action. To talk more than ever about what they think people would like to hear and call it Social Credit, to attack "communism" and "socialism" in a vague abstract way, helps them to "catch" votes and to protest that they have not abandoned Social Credit. And they believe that by pursuing this course, they will elect a Social Credit government in Ottawa.

It is no use quarrelling with these misguided views within our ranks. Those professing Social Crediters who are imbued with them do not realize that they are, in point of actual fact, abandoning Social Credit. They do not recognize that they are playing right into the hands of the enemy. They cannot appreciate that even if they succeeded in electing a majority of members to the House of Commons (which they will not be permitted to do, so long as finance, the press and the red network continue to manipulate elections) they still would be as powerless to introduce Social Credit reforms as has been the Alberta Government so long as the electorate remains unorganized and subject to mass propaganda.

Rather, let us be sorry for these victims of party politics. They are convinced that they are right. Well, let them go ahead with their party politics. Do not let us obstruct them or waste any valuable energy in opposing their ideas. They want to be "just another political party"—so let us extend to them that courtesy. They will find that, unfortunately, their party will progressively attract every type of opportunist and schemer.

For the genuine Social Credit Movement there is a job—a terribly urgent and formidable job—to be done. This involves ACTION—the fearless exposure of the enemy, the mobilization of forces to defeat him and the use of those forces in a manner which will ensure his defeat.

In order to avoid confusion and avert conflict between the professing Social Crediters who are using that term to take "party" political action, the genuine Canadian Social Credit movement will be known as the DOUGLAS Social Credit Movement of Canada.

Elsewhere in this issue is the full text of the statement of policy, which has been endorsed by the Social Credit Secretariat of Great Britain, headed by Major C. H. Douglas, and adopted by leading Social Crediters in Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba, Alberta and British Columbia.

Even as we go to press, the war clouds are gathering. The hideous carnage of the coming conflict will be the most terrifying ordeal in human history. The forces of evil have all but succeeded in gaining their fiendish goal of a cowed, degenerate and servile world state. Out of the shambles they are preparing for a bewildered and floundering mankind, they confidently expect to emerge victorious.

The Social Credit Movement has a terrific responsibility—for it alone has the complete answer to the world political situation. But let us remember that the issue is spiritual, and that we shall triumph only by reaching out to derive our inspiration and our power for CANADIAN FIFTH COLUMN — In the Saskatchewan legislature, A. T. Proctor, the Liberal member for Moomsion, charged that there was a strong Communist element among CCF members. Mr. Proctor was interrupted by Mr. Hansen (CCF) who asked if he could name the Communists among the CCF.

"Yes, I can," replied Mr. Proctor. "You are one of them."

TIM BUCK AND PARTIES — In attempting to prove the loyalty of the Canadian Communist party, Tim Buck declared: "The Labour Progressive Party is prepared to prove . . . that it is a genuine political party . . ."

All the more proof that it isn't democratic.

OH, WELL—On March 17th, Premier King declared the world situation was "never worse" — due to Communism. At the same time Truman told Congress: "The situation in the world today . . . is chiefly due to the fact that one nation (Russia) has not only refused to co-operate in the establishment of a just and honourable peace, but — even worse — has actively sought to prevent it."

When Social Crediters told Canada the same thing four years in advance, they were smeared in every conceivable manner — as anti-Semites and Fascists.

It is not out of place to comment that very few of our "leaders" and little more of our people are even yet aware of what the war scare is about. On every score for which we are smeared today, we shall be vindicated—probably in a lot less than four years' time.

The expatriation of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, which is now owned by the University of Chicago, was a matter for regret and some misgiving, says the London Spectator. The latter sentiment will be considerably intensified by an occurrence which the Daily Telegraph reported the other day. The article on Palestine in the current Britannica Year Book has, astonishingly enough, been entrusted to Rabbi Israel Goldstein, chairman of the World Zionist Federation, and contains such observations as these:

"British military forces turned Palestine into a police state. Military searches were conducted, curfews imposed, elementary civil rights were violated, some of the troops behaved with barbaric cruelty, Jewish property was destroyed and thousands of Jews were placed in concentration camps."

The fact that some of the statements here are true does little to mitigate the gross partzanship of the passage.

If the encyclopaedia loses its objectivity it loses its reason for existence. —Regina Leader Post, Jan. 23, 1948.

In the light of recent mass murders by Zionist terrorists, the above is a gross understatement.

the battle from the Source of ALL Power.

The promise of Easter is the promise of Christ's resurrection. And if we remain true to our principles as His faithful (full of Faith) soldiers and servants, the furies of Hell cannot prevail against us.

Let us go forward in confidence.

RE: EDMONTON COUNCIL

Statement Issued by the Douglas Social Credit Council, March 20, 1948

The Douglas Social Credit Council is not, as press reports have indicated, a rival organization to the Alberta Social Credit League. It is not opposing nor attempting as has been suggested, to undermine the Alberta Government. To do so would be contrary to the principles for which it is striving, particularly as it is conceded generally that over the past twelve years the Social Credit Government has given better administration than any previous Government, and in important respects has contributed to the advancement of Social Credit.

The D.S.C.C. is not a political party organization. It is composed of a group of Social Crediters who recognize that disruptive influences have infiltrated the Canadian Social Credit Movement, causing the abandonment of the principles and the policy of Social Credit as enunciated by Major C. H. Douglas. Because of these influences in some sections of the Movement, the official organ of the Social Credit Association of Canada has adopted a policy which renders it ineffective as a source of essential information. It is, therefore, necessary that Social Crediters and others have access to such information. The D.S.C.C. proposes to provide this necessary service.

The D.S.C.C. is not formed to oppose any government, nor to organize any political party, but simply to serve as an information agency and to assist the people to organize on a non-party basis so that they can bring all their elected representatives, municipal, provincial, and federal, under their effective control, thereby obtaining genuine democratic government.

ADDRESS

R. E. Ansley Ousted From Alberta Cabinet

Minister Remains True To Fundamental Social Credit Principles

On February 20, 1948, the Alberta cabinet considered a report submitted by L. D. Byrne, Deputy Minister of Economic Affairs and Technical Advisor to the Alberta Social Credit Board. The report, which has not yet been made public, dealt in the light of Social Credit principles, with the critical national and international situation; urged the need for immediate and effective action against the deadly menace of communism, centred in political Zionism; and pointed out the disastrous results of the lack of effective action and the ineffectual policies being pursued by the national Social Credit movement at the present time, outside of Quebec and Ontario. The report made specific recommendations for dealing with the situation.

At this meeting of the Cabinet, it was decided to request the resignation of Mr. Byrne, to be effective immediately.

The Hon. R. E. Ansley, Minister of Education, took the stand that he agreed fully with the report, which he considered to be in strict accordance with Social Credit principles and the facts of the present critical situation.

Mr. Ansley was thereupon asked for his immediate resignation, and on the same day he submitted the following letter to the Premier, after the latter's concurrence with the wording used.

Edmonton, February 20th, 1948.

Hon. E. C. Manning,
Premier of Alberta,
Legislative Building,
Edmonton, Alberta.

Dear Mr. Manning: At your request, following a difference of opinion on matters involving fundamental principles of Social Credit policy which precluded me being able to make an Executive Council decision unanimous this morning, I hereby tender my resignation as a member of the Executive Council.

I wish to express my deep appreciation for the co-operation I have had from you and other members of the Government during my tenure of office as Minister of Education.

Yours sincerely,
(Sgd.) R. E. Ansley.

In response to this, he received the following letter of acknowledgement from Mr. Manning:

Office of the Premier
Alberta

Edmonton, February 20th, 1948.

Mr. R. E. Ansley,
11248-127th Street,
Edmonton, Alberta.

Dear Mr. Ansley: I wish to advise you of the acceptance of your resignation from the Executive Council effective as of this date.

In doing so, I want to express my sincere regret at having been obliged to request this action by yourself but I know you realize that it is necessary to preserve at all times unanimous adherence to decision arrived at within the Executive Council on all matters of major government policy.

In regretfully accepting your resignation, I desire to express my appreciation for the co-operation you have at all times extended to myself and to other "Communism and other subversive forces are seeking the destruction of all democratic constitutions in favour of a ruthless tyranny patterned on the U.S.S.R.

"Human freedom is in deadly peril on every hand. Step by step centralized power vested in governments, monopolies and institutions have imposed increasing controls and regimentation upon the individual citizen.

"The dominant policy in the world today is anti-Christian and has as its objective the enslavement of the individual to centralized power.

Christian Policy

"Social Credit is a policy, fundamentally Christian, having as its objective the freedom of the individual within a genuine democracy.

"In the economic sphere the policy of Social Credit would be advanced by reforms of the economic system which would render the individual secure and independent of domination by any group.

"Such an economic democracy can be attained only by action in the political sphere which will result in a genuine political democracy—i.e., government in obedience to the need of the people.

"Therefore, Social Credit policy in the political sphere involves action which will bring the political institutions of the country—Parliament, Legislative Assemblies and local councils—under the effective and continuous control of their respective electorates.

Official Sanction

"Major C. H. Douglas is recognized by the world-wide Social Credit Movement as the authoritative exponent of Social Credit in all its aspects; and the Social Credit Secretariat is the recognized channel through which his advice is made available to the Movement.

"Accordingly Social Crediters of practically all Provinces in Canada, in faithful adherence to the principles of Social Credit as enunciated by Major C. H. Douglas, are working together to oppose, expose and defeat the subversive forces threatening our nation by taking non-party action in the political field, (both federal and provincial) on the following lines:

"(a) Establishment of Social Credit Action Groups, completely divorced from any political party, in every electoral division.

"(b) Social Credit Action Groups will assume responsibility for:

1. Enlightening electors about the subversive forces of which they are victims, and will expose, oppose and mobilize action against these forces;

members of the Council.

Yours very truly,
(Sgd.) Ernest C. Manning
PREMIER.

Those are the bald facts about which we have received many enquiries from persons who, knowing Mr. Ansley as one of the best-informed Social Crediters with a reputation for sincerity and the courage of his convictions, have been shocked at recent developments within the movement.

2. Assisting electors to give expression to their common desires;

3. Assisting electors, irrespective of any partisan considerations, to organize themselves as a Union of Electors; guiding them to voice their demands for results on which they are agreed and which they are entitled to expect from their various governments.

"(c) As the Union of Electors grows in strength in each constituency, steps to be taken to bring the elected representative under the effective control of the electors. If he refuses to carry out the clearly expressed wishes of his constituents, the Union of Electors of the constituency may nominate a non-party candidate pledged to serve as the obedient representatives of his constituents.

"(d) The education, training and direction necessary to organize action groups, and to assist them in carrying out the responsibilities outlined in (b) above, to be promoted by a national council comprised of two sections: an English-speaking section (The Institute for Political Action) and a French-speaking section (L'Institut d'Action Politique,) both to work together in close collaboration, but each to assume its own responsibilities and to preserve its full autonomy.

"(e) The Union of Electors is served by two official organs adhering strictly to the non-party principles of Social Credit as enunciated by Major C. H. Douglas: "Voice of the Electors" for the English-speaking members throughout Canada, and "Vers Demain" for French-speaking members throughout Canada.
