Union of Electors In Ontario Select Fifteen Candidates To Contest Ridings, June 7 Election

HON. W. A. FALLOW PASSES SUDDENLY

We regret to announce the sudden passing of the Hon. W. A. Fallow, Minister of Public Works in the Alberta Government, to which post he was appointed by the late Premier Aberhart when the first Social Credit administration was elected in 1935. He was re-elected in each provincial election since that initial victory for the forces seeking Social Credit.

Mr. Fallow was forced to forego the last regular session of the Legislature because of his health. A sudden attack, upon his return home, created the condition responsible for his death.

At time of going to press, his successor had not been named.

Watch Palestine

On May 15th Great Britain's mandate in Palestine comes to an end; and it may well be that May 15th will be zero hour in the next phase of the war for world domination by the international Political Zionists.

As Benjamin H. Freedman, the prominent anti-Zionist American Jew, has pointed out, the international Zionists are almost exclusively professing Jews from Eastern Europe. Racially, they are not Jews, but descendants of the Khazars, a Turko-Finnish people who embraced the Jewish religion. The policy of these pseudo-Jews has been power. Their goal world domination. They are a deadly menace to genuine Hebrew Jews, to Christendom and to humanity at large.

Rise to Power

First these internationalists gained power through the Rothschilds and a network of financial institutions, by achieving world control of finance. They then used this power to gain control of the organs of publicity and propaganda to buy their way into positions of influence in politics, commerce and even society, and to infect the social structure with the deadly virus of their ideas—such as Communism (Marx and Engels), the cult of the Superman

Toronto, Ont.—Indicative of the progress made by the Ontario Union of Electors since action was launched there some 2 years ago by Ronald Gostick and Ed Williams, is the announcement that 15 candidates have already been selected "and more will be nominated in the near future" to contest the Ontario elections scheduled for June 7th.

The Union of Electors does not contest elections unless party candidates refuse to give their allegiance to the wishes of the united electors.

The candidates nominated by the Union of Electors are pledged to serve the electors "and not a political party or a foreign Godless nation."

Regardless of whether or not they are successful in this venture, the action serves to indicate what good work has been done in Ontario and will convince the skeptics that the Union of Electors means business and is here to stay.

WAR CLOUDS DEEPEN

LONDON, May 4th.—There is little hope of any real or lasting settlement with Russia as long as she persists in spreading Communism throughout the world, Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin told the British House of Commons today.

No mention was made of the vast quantities of goods, running into billions of dollars, given by Great Britain, Canada, the United States and other countries to Russia after the war ended. Every Canadian traveller going through to Vancouver, saw the huge shipments lined up for free export to the U.S.S.R. as late as a year ago. (Just as every Canadian remembers the aid given Nazi Germany and imperialistic Japan.) Nor was any publicity given to the recent disclosures in Congress by Ross Rizley (Oklahoma) that he was "mighty happy" a multi-million dollar shipment of "surplus" machinery to Russia had been stopped. The machinery included refinery equipment, logging cranes, sawmill equipment, nine locomotives, diesel engines and piping—all of which, said the Congressman, could be used to good advantage in the U.S.

A CRIME TO BE CHRISTIAN—
"Christendom is a word meaning the Christian area of the world. In our ethics, morals and culture, we are a Christian nation and a Christian people, but in politics and public discussion nowadays it is also criminal and un-American to mention Christianity. You can be charged with inciting a holy war. Not so if you mention any other religion. Just Christianity."

Westbrook Pegler.

What applies to the U.S. in this respect applies likewise to Canada. In fact, the thing has an international flavour of a vile sort.

ADMIRAL TELLS THEM—"I do not think Al Capone and his mates would be invited to revise the Federal Laws on the other side of the Atlantic. I sometimes feel that our gangsters would prefer to bring the Empire down in ruin, rather than leave something for wiser men to rebuild, and run on sensible lines . . .

"It is important to note that none of the menus concocted by the best known political chefs, contain any mention of financial reform, which many wise men regard as the sine qua non of a prosperous future. The latter want the Government to undertake the issue and control of its own money.

"To an ignoramus like myself, this sounds to be an essential prerogative of any Government aspiring to be a free agent . . .

"As our existing political parties are intrahall to the Money Power, no surprise need be experienced that financial reform does not figure among the entrees or sweets on any of the new food programmes."

Admiral Sir Barry Domville, K.B.E., C.B., C.M.G., in his magnificent book, "From Admiral to Cabin Boy."

In 1945 (in the U.S.) a poll taken by Fortune Magazine showed that 18,200,000 Americans were "more or less alert to the seriousness of Jewish Aggression"—or, as others would describe it, tinged with anti-Semitism. A similar poll conducted just recently declares the number has gone up to 51,100,000—which is an increase that will be most alarming to some people.

It would appear that no one is seri-

More Light On Dark Corners

The late Premier Aberhart once remarked: "When the Edmonton Journal or the Calgary Herald is attacking me, I am happy for I know that I am on the right track. But if by chance one of them gave me a pat on the back, I would sit down and think hard what I had done wrong." William Aberhart had a shrewd insight into the nature of the forces against which he was leading the Alberta Social Credit Movement. It was one of the many attributes which made him a great man and caused his opponents to fear him.

Alas, gone are those days. The traditional opponents of Social Credit represented by the Edmonton Journal and the Calgary Herald no longer find it necessary to attack the Alberta Movement. In fact, these two newspapers have, during the past three years, been almost enthusiastic supporters of the Movement.

It is, therefore, with a great deal of satisfaction that we read the following comment by the Calgary Herald and reprinted by the Edmonton Journal under the title, "Full of Fuzzy Ideas:"

"A.V. Bourcier, MLA, erstwhile Chairman of the defunct Social Credit Board, has revealed some of the recommendations of that body which led to the dismissal of R. E. Ansley from the Cabinet and of L. D. Byrne from the Department of Economic Affairs.

"The recommendations are not new. They have bobbed up, with monotonous regularity, in every annual report of the Social Credit Board. One of them, however, is so palpably absurd that it deserves comment. It is that the electoral system should be changed 'so as to progressively increase the political power of the individual and bring representatives under the effective control of their constituents.'

The "fuzzy ideas," of course, have reference to the recommendations by L. D. Byrne quoted by A. V. Bourcier in his statement to the press published in the last issue of The Social Credit Challenge. It will be recalled that these were, in addition to electoral action for the establishment of genuine political democracy, the reduction of taxation, the abolition of government regulations and legislation imposing unnecessary restrictions on personal freedom, active discouragement of monopolies, and abandonment by the government of the field of business. It is most revealing that such a course of action should be abhorrent to the Calgary Herald and, by inference, to the Edmonton Journal—to the point of being dismissed as "fuzzy ideas," but it is even more significant that the editorial in question should consider it as "palpably absurd" that the electoral system should be changed 'so as to progressively increase the political power of the individual and bring representatives under the effective control of their constituents.'

The significance of the Herald's attack being centred on this essential reform in the electoral system lies in the fact that this is the one aspect of Social Credit which the powers-that-be fear. They do not mind anybody talking about monetary reform (whatever that means) or the financial proposals of Social Credit. Why should they? The Bretton Woods agreement and the International Monetary Fund so thoroughly organized by Eugene Meyer (with the able assistance of Messrs. Morgenthau, Rasminsky, et al) ensures that nothing will be done in that sphere. Besides, with the world for all practical purposes on a system of rationing and supplies of goods controlled by the Planners, the dangers of economic reform—except in the direction of the Slave State—are remote.

That the powers-that-be now fear the political reforms of Social Credit just as previously they feared the financial and economic proposals is evident from their behavior. The focus of their attack is concentrated against Douglas, against the adherents of Douglas and against those sections of the Movement which are pursuing an action policy to mobilize electors in a manner that will bring their representatives and their political institutions under their control. Anybody who has any doubts on this score need only consider the evidence.

What has happened to the best-informed Social Crediters and adherents to Douglas across Canada? Norman Jaques has been attacked in the press with a venom that indicates he is feared in powerful quarters. For this fearless service to Social Credit—despite the state of his health—he has been denounced by professing Social Credit "leaders" and his writings are banned from The Canadian Social Crediter. A. V. Bourcier and the other members of the Social Credit Board have been thrown out, and the Board discontinued. R. E. Ansley has been dismissed from the Alberta cabinet. L. D. Byrne has been dismissed from the Alberta Civil Service. J. P. Gillese was forced to resign from the Canadian Social Crediter. Prof. Gregoire — national vice-president of the Social Credit Association of Canada — was forced to resign his position. Ronald Gostick was denounced and repudiated. J. Vans Macdonald was forced out of the B.C. organization. And so on — ad lib. In every case, the attack has been against uncompromising adherents of Social Credit as enunciated by C. H. Douglas. Apparently that has been their crime.

Likewise the focus of the attack on the Social Credit Movement in Canada — as elsewhere — has been against those sections concentrating on action in the electoral field. L'Union des Electeurs and the Ontario Union of Electors have been denounced alternatively as communist and fascist organizations. The Vancouver group pursuing similar action has been branded "disruptive." In Alberta, the attack has been against "the Douglasites" who have been accused of "undermining the government," "pursuing disruptive tactics," and so forth.

Surely, oh! surely, Social Crediters can see from whence these attacks are being inspired? The Calgary Herald and Edmonton Journal are doing their best to shout it to high heaven.

Why do the Plotters and the Planners fear the Union of Electors' action, Because they know that it is the one remaining weapon in the people's hands which can defeat them. Once genuine political democracy is established anywhere, it will be the end of the mad dreams of the power maniacs seeking to set up a world slave state on the pattern of the Soviet tyranny. And that is what a Canada-wide Union of Electors will do — and while the time left for such action is desperately short, it can and must be carried out.

In each district Social Credit Action Groups must assume the responsibility for mobilizing electors — irrespective of party — in a demand for the results they want. As each district becomes organized in a constituency, the electors, through their Union officials, will tell their representatives in Parliament, the Provincial Legislature or the Local Council, what results he is required to demand. If any representative prefers to obey his party and to disregard his constituents, he will find himself out. And it will not require a general election to persuade him that his constituents insist on his resignation.

As the Union of Electors becomes organized across Canada, so the power of the people will make itself felt more and more in Parliament and in every Provincial Assembly until finally those institutions become responsive to the requirements of the people. No government which, from selfish motives, serves any powerful vested interests will survive.

Furthermore, the press will no longer be able to flout public opinion, for any newspaper which dares to do so may find itself without many readers.

That is why big finance, big business, the communists, the socialists, the political Zionists, the party politicians and the press are opposed to the Union of Electors. They fear — and they have cause to fear — genuine political democracy, because with its advent will be swept away every form of centralized power and monopoly control. Then, and only then, will the way be clear for the introduction of the Social Credit reforms for economic democracy.

"I will presume to offer the prophesy that (after the war) the strongest military power in Europe indisputedly will be Great Britain . . . This influence will be supported by an enormous military power . . . I do not accept, therefore, the thesis that a post-war Russian peril to Europe will exist. Nor can I accept the idea that Russia will launch an anti-European policy at the end of the struggle."—From a letter sent to General Franco of Spain by British Ambassador Sir Samuel Hoare, February 25th, 1943.

Just another tid-bit to prove how all-wise our leaders are.

(Nietzsche), the economics of scarcity, materialism, and so forth.

With the power of finance in their hands, they could promote booms and slumps, foment discontent and revolution, gain control of political parties—and generally play havoc with the world. Always they pursued, promoted and financed the policy of the centralization of power in their hands.

Promote War, Depression

The ruling hierarchy of these internationalists promoted the first world war, they promoted and financed the Russian revolution, their own breed were responsible for the appalling atrocities of the Bolshevik regime, they promoted the Great Depression, they promoted the last war—and in fact, they have brought Christendom to its present plight.

These Khazars—we refuse to call them Jews—are now within grasp of their objective of world domination. The forces of Communism are their forces. The power of finance and economic monopoly control is their power. On paper, it seems that nothing can rob them of their Satanic goal of a terrorized World Slave State subservient to their rule.

Already a new, and a more hideous world conflict is being promoted by these international plotters. And control of Palestine seems to be essential to their plans.

The irony of the situation is that as Khazars they have absolutely no racial claim to Palestine. None of their forebears had any connection with that country. And until they set their covetous eyes upon it, the genuine Jews and the Arabs were living there in peace and harmony. And it is even more ironic that it is the Mohammedan Arabs, and not the Christians of the world, who are challenging this attack by an alien, and (judging by their past actions) an anti-Christian people on the Holy Land.

Communist Technique

The method employed by the Zionist Khazars in Palestine—the cold-blooded murders, the terror tactics, the ruthless disregard of others—are reminiscent of the Bolshevik revolution. However, as the situation has developed, so the Zionist international forces—and the individuals concerned—have had to show their hand and to reveal their identity more and more. This has resulted in a rapidly-growing number of people becoming aware of what is going on. They are realizing that there is a World Conspiracy, what it is, and who are the conspirators.

Meantime, the international situation, which these arch-plotters have created, is getting out of hand. And it is rapidly becoming centred around developments in Palestine.

That is why May 15th may prove a fateful date.

Meanwhile, during the short time left before wholesale destruction is unleashed upon the world, it is essential that the people's eyes should be opened to this evil conspiracy to subject humanity to a group of decadent people posing as Jews.

"Behold I will make them of the synagogue of Satan which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie."

The War Monger's Dream

By J. P. Gillese

It is always hard for honest men to believe that those they trust implicitly can be the worst kind of scoundrels and knaves. It is harder for these same, simple and unassuming people to understand that they themselves possess the only key that will unlock peace, plenty and freedom to themselves and their children.

War is always used as an instrument to impose a policy—used when other methods fail.

Right now the peace of the world precarious though it was and is, may speedily be blown up in a third and more terrible holocaust.

It is most interesting to consider some aspects of the war which ended in 1945—see who promoted it and how it was promoted.

Pearl Harbor Hoax

One of the great hoaxes of this latter conflict was that Japan made a sneak attack on Pearl Harbour. John T. Flynn, one of America's most able journalists and a frequent contributor to Reader's Digest, exposed this completely in a work entitled "The Secret of Pearl Harbour," which was read by millions of shocked Americans—and never refuted.

There are other aspects of the case which will interest our readers in the light of present day developments.

As early as January 27th of 1941, Ambassador Joseph C. Grew warned the White House of a possible, unexpected attack on Pearl Harbor. He warned the American nation on September 30th and November 3rd of the same year. Imagine what happened.

The construction defences of Pearl Harbour were placed in the hands of a notorious German alien, Hans Wilhelm Rohl, who had been receiving million-dollar contracts from the U.S. for years!

Two weeks before the Pearl Harbour disaster, Admiral James E. Richardson, Commander-in-chief of the Pacific Fleet was relieved of his command by President Roosevelt for failure to obey the President's command to keep the fleet concentrated in Pearl Harbour—upon which point the Japanese insisted—so that the whole force could be destroyed by one attack!

Even as late as seventy-two hours before the attack, the Australian government notified Washington that the Japanese fleet was sighted, headed for Pearl Harbor. Twenty-four hours before the attack, they warned again. Many other authoritative warnings were received—but Washington would not act. 3,800 men were murdered intentionally—because such a blow was necessary to secure the objective for which the world planners launched the war!

Reason For the War

Why was the war fought? One reason, as President Roosevelt let slip, was defensive. If it hadn't been, he said, "an Economic stranglehold would be fastened upon the nations of the Western Hemisphere . . ." That was most touching, considering the ten-year stranglehold of depression we had just gone through.

Major reason, of course, was the planners' ideal of one world—one world that could be ruled easily through political and economic power concentrated in the hands of a few people.

The one world ideal failed to materialize—hence the propaganda for the next world war.

America arose out of this last struggle as an economic giant. When we say America, we do not mean the American people. We mean a handful of international bankers of the kind who sent the revolutionists to Russia in 1917, who gained for Communist Russia unbelievable favours both during and immediately after this war, and who are busy today promoting the spread of international communism (Marxism) and political Zionism.

"Travesty On History"

Such a farce was the Japanese entry that Capt. Oliver Littleton, the British Production Minister, was forced to exclaim:

"Japan was provoked into attacking the Americans at Pearl Harbor. It is a travesty of history even to say that America was forced into the war."

Sherlock Holmes had a famous saying which sums up the case for the war criminals:—"Show me the motive and I'll show you the criminal."

The motive is absolute dictatorship of the world.

The criminals are Shylock and Marx international finance and international communism (and socialism).

James Addison had at least one answer for these war mongers:

"Is there not some hidden curse,
Some hidden thunder in the stores of heaven,
Red with uncommon wrath, to blast the man
Who owes his greatness to his country's ruin?"

ously concerned about the fact that the Jews have freedom of religion and the same liberties as everyone else. They are concerned over the fact that Jewish leaders are frightening their followers into support of Communism and political Zionism.

If any testimony need be given of the two latter statements, let these leaders explain:

(1) The ousting of Rabbi Schultz of the Temple Emanuel of New York city after that courageous man had scourged Communism mercilessly for three weeks. The board of trustees, apparently, would not even let him return to the Temple to speak in his own defence.

(2) The smear campaign and "war of silence" launched against that eminent New York Jew, Benjamin H. Freedman, who is exposing the aims of political Zionism, especially in the Palestine dispute.

The ordinary Jew should be a little more courageous in following the lead of kinsmen like Rabbi Schultz and Mr. Freedman.

Without even appearing on the scene, the Russians are making progress in getting their ideas planted in the Middle East, where U.S. and Britain (sic) have valuable and strategic oil holdings. Russian spawework in the Middle East countries is being done by staffs of Marshall Tito's Yugoslav embassies, all with Moslems on the payroll — U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT, April 23, 1948.

COMMUNIST SMEAR BROADCAST

YOU DIDN'T PROTEST— AND THEY KNOW IT

However, all this does not detract from the fact that it is still to the credit of you, the people of Alberta, that you were able to force even this change in the propaganda tactics of the Social Credit party and government. It does prove that the people of Alberta will not tolerate the vile poison of anti-Semitism; they remember the anti-fascist war the world has just gone through and how the anti-Communist and anti-Jewish propaganda was used in preparing for it.

It is more than likely that this move, which in our opinion was forced upon an unwilling government and party by public pressure, will now be used by Social Credit in an effort to convince you that Social Credit has cleaned house, that it is now progressive. Let no-one be deceived.

This Social Credit government of ours that was going to lead us into the promised land, that promised to lead our struggle to rid ourselves of the stranglehold of the financiers, this same government is under the domination of big business, and today is its willing servant. Now it is the champion of so-called "free enterprise" which really means the freedom of the monopolies and cartels to exploit you to their heart's content. The policies of our provincial government are dictated by the big oil, coal, lumber and other industrial and financial interests, many of which are foreign owned and controlled.

We will probably have a provincial election by next summer. The old-line parties, the Liberals, Conservatives and their offspring, the Independents have a limited public support. Big Business can no longer depend upon them to win an election. The foreign and native corporations who are exploiting our rapidly expanding natural resources and deriving huge fortunes therefrom depend upon the Social Credit government for concessions and protection. They are backing it now and they will back it in the coming elections. Premier Manning and his government have made their choice; they are on the side of the monopolies against the people. Their beautiful words cannot cover up their record of betrayal. This reactionary government must be defeated and in its place we must elect a people's government that will serve you and I and not Big Business.

Whose VICTORY?

What with rising prices and the threat of depression, the year 1948 does not look very bright. Nevertheless, being human, we approach it with hope. 1948 can be a brighter year if we, the people of Alberta, will take our destiny into our own hands. We can mold our own future, trusting our organized strength. But that can only be done one way. That is, by uniting all progressive groups, the CCF, LPP, trade union and farm movements. Then we will be able to defeat the attacks of Big Business. Let us resolve this New Year, each and every one of us, to do all in our power to unite the Alberta people. Let us march forward to victory together.

Further Proof of the Plot

The following letter was released to the daily newspapers in Edmonton, as well as to local radio stations, on April 26, but to date no publicity has been given to it—a fact which our readers may incline to believe lends further weight to the facts of the article.

The Editor: Mr. Dower denies any Communist-Zionist plot. He denies any connection between Communism and Zionism. He represents the purpose of Zionism as being to "establish for the Jews a Homeland in Palestine."

The prominent American Jew and anti-Zionist, Benjamin H. Freedman, tells us: "Zionists obtain support from persons of the Jewish and non-Jewish faiths by use of the untruth that persons of the Jewish faith are members of an ancient so-called Jewish race . . . authorities agree that persons of the Jewish faith in eastern Europe are descendants largely of a non-Semitic, Turkish-Finnish race . . . known in history as Khazars . . . Zionist membership has long been made up largely of persons of eastern European origin and Zionist leadership has been almost exclusively made up of persons of the same origin . . . Increasing 'anti-Semitism' (anti-Judaism) throughout the world . . . is due largely to Zionist activities."—New York Herald Tribune, January 14, 1947.

"The Russian Revolution is no passing freak of Jewish fury. The great problem of the future is the Jewish . . . In Eastern Europe, Bolshevism and Zionism seem to grow side by side . . ." Lord Eustace Percy, "The Responsibilities of the League," 1919.

Russian Jews . . . had done much in preparing for that general disintegration of Russian society, later recognized as the Revolution."—Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, in "The Truth about the Peace Treaties."

"The Bolshevik leaders here, most of whom are Jews and ninety per cent of whom are returned exiles, care little for Russia or any other country but are internationalists and they are trying to start a world wide social revolution."—David R. Francis, U.S. Ambassador to Russia, 1918.

"What Jewish idealism and Jewish discontent have so powerfully contributed to accomplish in Russia, the same historic qualities of Jewish mind and heart are tending to promote in other countries."—American Hebrew and Jewish Messenger, September 10, 1930.

"When we sink, we become a revolutionary proletariat, the subordinate officers of all revolutionary parties; and, at the same time when we rise, there is the terrible power of the purse."—Hetzl, Zionist leader, in "The Jewish State."

"For this war is in essence a stage merely in an immense revolution in which the war of 1914, the Russian Revolution, and the counter-revolutions on the continent are earlier phases."—Harold Laski (Jewish-Communist leader of the British Labour Party) in The New Statesman, July 11, 1942.

Apart from the statements of a British Peer, a British Prime Minister (one-time solicitor for the British Zionist Organization) and an American Ambassador, the foregoing quotations are from so-called "Jewish" sources. They are taken from a mass of evidence which shows: (1) that there is a conspiracy to bring about through war and revolution, a World dictatorship on the Soviet model; (2) that the promoters of this plot are "Jews" who are not Jews by either race or religion—but are, like Marx and Engels (authors of Modern Communism), atheists and, in common with most Zionists, descendants of the Khazars; (3) that international communism and international finance are both centred in international Zionism. As Mr. Freedman points out, until this is made clear anti-Semitism will continue to spread because of the activities of the Zionist plotters.

We share Mr. Dower's concern that the public should be protected. The best way to ensure this is to bring out and publicize this issue. Dare the press do this in defiance of "the terrible power of the purse" wielded by the Zionists?
