CHRISTIANITY: EUROPE’S LAST HOPE By James Reed

With utterly horrendous things happening in Europe, the extent of which one would have found incredible if depicted in a horror movie only a few years ago, such as voodoo based prostitution rings:

<http://www.breitbart.com/london/2018/02/25/police-bust-voodoo-nigerian-prostitution-ring/>

Here comes a spot of good news, about a resistance to the planned destruction of Euro-man: Hungarian leader Viktor Orbán has called yesterday for a global alliance against migration in his campaign for an 8 April election. Famously, he has said:

“Soros has antagonised not only us but also England, President Trump and Israel too, ... Everywhere he wants to get migration accepted. It won’t work. We are not alone and we will fight together ... and we will succeed.” He sees the main threat to his nation coming from the EU and soros-style globalists, who are conducting an immigration war against traditional Europe: “Orbán has conflated the issue of immigration with the image of Soros, 87, whose name was used in a tough anti-migrant bill sent to Parliament on Wednesday. Soros, for his part, compared Orbán unfavourably to both the Nazis and the Communists, saying his rule evoked dark tones from the 1930’s — when Hungary was allied with Nazi Germany — and was more oppressive than Cold War Soviet occupation. Orbán has tightened the screws on non-government organisations, particularly ones funded by Soros, and attempted to close a prominent Soros-founded university. Attributing to Soros, a recent United Nations plan on creating a global blueprint to handle the migration crisis, Orbán said he anticipated that powerful allies would help him prevent the UN from greasing the wheels of migration. “Soros has antagonised not only us but also England, President Trump and Israel too,” he said. “Everywhere he wants to get migration accepted. It won’t work. We are not alone and we will fight together ... and we will succeed.”

In Europe, he cited as allies Hungary’s fellow Visegrad countries Slovakia, the Czech Republic and Poland, whose ruling Law and Justice (PiS) party is also often at loggerheads with the EU. He said a victory for Silvio Berlusconi’s party in Italy’s 4 March election would strengthen the nationalist fold.”

This call for a united European opposition to immigration may awaken the British people, who have constantly been betrayed over the immigration issue, with UK Labour, and the conservatives planning to scrap a number of laws presently holding back open borders-style immigration flooding:

<https://www.jihadwatch.org/2018/02/uk-labour-plans-to-scrap-most-immigration-laws-inundate-country-with-muslim-migrants>

“Pledging to ‘end family break-up through the immigration system’, the Labour Party is announcing it will scrap a number of laws holding back mass migration. In a speech revealing Labour’s vision for migration policy post-Brexit, Shadow Home Secretary Diane Abbott unveiled asylum and immigration policies that the Conservatives warned would act as a ‘dangerous incentive’ to third world migrants tempted to make hazardous journeys to Europe. Outlining the ‘fair and reasonable values’ on which Labour says it intends to set immigration rules, Abbott said Labour would end “family break-up through the immigration system”.

The left-wing party would achieve this by allowing ‘child’ migrants to bring over family members — particularly parents — effectively turning them into beachheads for a large-scale chain migration.”

Orbán has certainly made a good start, and based upon a return to the Christian values of Europe, which recent immigration has eschewed, it may get the ball of survival rolling again. It is unquestionably more pleasant than reporting on the latest reports of voodoo prostitution and killings!

COMMO SPIES AMONG US By James Reed

Seen any communist spies lately? Well for us Australians, probably our whole intellectual infrastructure is full of communist Chinese agents. But, that was the decision made by our power elites in the Asianisation programme, to abandon the West and our Anglo-Saxon heritage, to create a Chinese colony in the former land of Australia. There is lip service about excess Chinese influence now, but this is just what was created.

However, even in Britain communist spies get rewarded, big time:

<http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-5404789/Senior-Labour-figures-spied-Russians-80s.html>

“Jeremy Corbyn, John McDonnell and Ken Livingstone were among a group of at least 15 Labour figures who passed information to the Soviet Union, a former Eastern-bloc agent has claimed. Former Czechoslovak spy Jan Sarkocy said the hard-Left politicians were ‘great sources’ in the 1980s. Mr Sarkocy, 64, claims there is ‘no question’ Mr Corbyn and his Labour colleagues knew he was a spy and said: ‘Everything was absolutely clear at the time.’ Mr Livingstone, then a Labour MP, was a ‘good boy’, the Czech agent told the Sunday Telegraph. He said he had met about ‘10 or 15’ Labour MPs but did not name them. Labour has dismissed Mr Sarkocy’s latest claims, which came after he previously alleged Mr Corbyn was a paid informant of the Czech secret police at the height of the Cold War. Mr Livingstone last night denied the accusations, saying they were a ‘tissue of lies’. He admitted meeting a Russian ‘representative’ though said nothing happened.”

True or not? Who knows, but it certainly seems plausible enough since the sons and daughters of the chattering class in the 1960s all loved communist countries, and in fact still do. Consider the present media response to North Korea, which should be viewed as a major existential threat, but instead, gets a free ride because, well, its part of the Leftist family of pets:

www.nationalreview.com/2018/02/why-media-fawning-over-north-korea/

“What Mr. Shapiro did not point out, but would undoubtedly agree with, is that the media’s blind spot extends to the North Korean regime’s racial policies. As chronicled in the book The Cleanest Race by B.R. Myers, North Korea is bound together by a certain sense of blood loyalty more than any kind of Communist dogma or Juche ideology. The North Korean regime’s efforts to protect the racial and cultural purity of the Korean people is an important part of the government’s legitimacy. According to Mr. Myers, the North Korean regime now admits South Korea has been more successful in pursuing economic growth, but only at the cost of becoming what North Korea portrays as a decadent cultural colony of the United States and its globalist system.

Indeed, some white advocates also have sympathy for North Korea for this reason, something you would expect liberal reporters, who are so fond of playing guilt-by-association, to seize upon and use against the regime.

The error Mr. Shapiro makes is typical of conservatives. He thinks the ‘what’ of politics, the policies and system of government, is more important than the ‘who’ of politics, the question of what group benefits. The mainstream media seem quite willing to tolerate authoritarianism and strong government if they are in the service of non-whites. They condemn Russia, Poland, and Hungary, not because they oppose ‘limited government principles’, but because they see their governments as acting openly in the interests of white populations and traditional Western values. North Korea won praise because its military adventurism, over-the-top nationalism and frank racial chauvinism ostensibly benefit nonwhites. Hungary, Poland and Russia are far more libertarian than North Korea, and arguably more than some Western countries that regulate political speech, such as Germany. Yet in recent months, these right-leaning governments are receiving worse press than North Korea. If you are viewing this from the perspective of ‘limited government principles’, this makes no sense. But viewed from the perspective of race and culture, it makes perfect sense. And as long as Beltway Right mouthpieces such as Mr. Shapiro fail to notice this, conservatives will remain unable to combat media bias.”

As this analysis makes clear, it is really the race factor which tips the balance in the Leftoid’s position: if it can help bring down the West, it is good: otherwise it is to be condemned. Leftism is indeed a virus infection of the mind, a form of White pathology, more dangerous than any physical disease because it is an illness of the racial soul of the West itself: http://www.shtfplan.com/headline-news/far-left-group-calls-for-murdering-republicans-as-revenge-for-florida-school-shooting\_02162018 ***

YOUNG PEOPLE’S WEBCAST FORUM

The time has come for the next generation to ‘pick up the baton’ that their elders have been carrying for most of their adult lives. To assist this objective we are starting a WebCast Forum for young people to discuss the issues of the day and work through to provide practical Christian/Social Credit answers. All they need is commitment and a reasonable internet connection.

Do you know of a likely candidate amongst your immediate family and friends for this forum?

Email: info@thecross-roads.org

THE DEEP STATE (AND FRIENDS) IN ACTION By Charles Taylor

The US continues to deliver lessons to the world about how the Deep State acts, to neutralise even presidents it does not like. For example, top US officials are telling the world to ignore President Trump's tweets: https://www.washingtonpost.com/world/top-us-officials-tell-the-world-to-ignore-trumps-tweets/2018/02/18/bc605236-14a2-11e8-942d-16a950029788\_story.html?utm\_term=.fa630550c9d0

“Amid global anxiety about President Trump's approach to world affairs, U.S. officials had a message for a gathering of Europe's foreign policy elite this weekend: Pay no attention to the man tweeting behind the curtain. U.S. lawmakers — both Democrats and Republicans — and top national security officials in the Trump administration offered the same advice publicly and privately, often clashing with Trump's Twitter stream: The United States remains staunchly committed to its European allies, is furious with the Kremlin about election interference and isn't contemplating a preemptive strike on North Korea to halt its nuclear program. But Trump himself engaged in a running counterpoint to the message, taking aim on social media at his own national security adviser, H.R. McMaster, because he ‘forgot’ on Saturday to tell the Munich Security Conference that the results of the 2016 election weren't affected by Russian interference, a conclusion that is not supported by U.S. intelligence agencies. They say they will probably never be able to determine whether the Russian involvement swung the election toward Trump.”

The Deep State is obsessed with creating war between the US and Russia, perhaps in the insane belief that the US can win it, because they hate Putin's nationalism, and see a war as a good ending to Trump. The fact that Obama interfered in elections, is not considered, nor do they follow through on the revelations about the financial motives of the Clintons and the Uranium One deal:

ELECTION MEDDLING IS OK IF WE DO IT By Charles Taylor

The crazed Russia meddled in the US elections frenzy continues, and no doubt will for all eternity, or until the next president does what the establishment wants, and declares war on Russia, dooming the US to oblivion. Now we have the CIA openly admitting that the US meddles in elections of other countries all of the time, but that is fine because, well, we are the good guys:

“Bags of cash delivered to a Rome hotel for favored Italian candidates. Scandalous stories leaked to foreign newspapers to swing an election in Nicaragua. Millions of pamphlets, posters and stickers printed to defeat an incumbent in Serbia. The long arm of Vladimir Putin? No, just a small sample of the United States' history of intervention in foreign elections.

“The FBI apparently ignored evidence of Russian involvement in the uranium market when they approved the deal back in 2010,” said Peter Schweizer of the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States's (CFI) 2010 approval of the Russian government's purchasing of a majority stake in Uranium One.

Schweizer, president of the Government Accountability Institute, offered his remarks in a Monday interview on SiriusXM's Breitbart News Tonight with co-hosts Rebecca Mansour and Joel Pollak. Robert Mueller — director of the FBI between 2001 and 2013 — must have known of corrupt dealings related to the Uranium One deal in 2010, said Schweizer.

[Bruce Campbell] testified before Congress,” said Schweizer:

It was behind closed doors, so we don't know the details, but essentially he was asked about what he knew as it related specifically to the Clinton Foundation, and what you hear indirectly — I was certainly not there — but what you hear indirectly is that he was told specifically by the Russians to work on helping get Uranium One approved. One of the things that they did was the Russians hired the lobbying firm APCO, and then APCO turned around and essentially gave an in-kind or free donation to the Clinton Foundation, valued somewhere in the order of $3 million.”

The Uranium One corruption is an inconvenient truth for the system, and is ignored by the mainstream media, who cannot move beyond the appointed false news narrative that Putin stole the 2016 election away from Queen Hillary. How corrupt can the Deep State get? ***

“If you ask an intelligence officer, did the Russians break the rules or do something bizarre, the answer is no, not at all,” said Steven L. Hall, who retired in 2015 after 30 years at the C.I.A., where he was the chief of Russian operations. The United States ‘absolutely’ has carried out such election influence operations historically, he said, “and I hope we keep doing it.” <http://www.foxnews.com/politics/2018/02/18/mcmaster-fbi-indictments-prove-russia-meddled-in-us-elections.html>

Thus, the entire narrative collapses, since these days it is hardly reasonable to uncritically regard the US as the ‘good guys’. If the US can interfere in elections, then so what if the Russians did? Isn't that just globalism in action? Have a bit of multiculturalism, please! ***

DRINK UP YOUR POMEGRANATE JUICE! By Mrs Vera West

Having had a heart attack, and struggling to keep cardiovascular disease under control, I naturally enough found this NaturalNews.com article fascinating. It reports on a study, where mice who were bred to be prone to cardiovascular disease were fed pomegranate juice:

“According to the results of the study, pomegranate extract served as a natural broom that cleaned plaque sticking to the mice’s coronary arteries. This prevented atherosclerosis, where the walls of the arteries get thicker due to accumulating fatty materials that turn into plaque.”

Of course, it is a bit of a jump to apply the results mechanically to humans, but other studies involving human subjects have delivered suggestive results:

“GreenMedInfo also reported that a separate research study from 2004 discovered that year-long consumption of pomegranate juice reversed the build-up of deadly plaque in the arteries of patients who were suffering from plaque blockage of 70 to 90 percent of their internal carotid arteries.

“The mean intima media thickness of the left and right common carotid arteries in severe carotid artery stenosis patients that consumed pomegranate juice for up to one year was reduced after three, six, nine, and 12 months of pomegranate juice consumption by 13%,

BECOMING A MAGICAL GENDER-BENDER DRAGON! By Mrs Vera West

Here is my favourite politically correct article for this week, getting 9 points:

<http://metro.co.uk/2018/02/27/trans-species-woman-identifies-reptile-spent-42000-turning-dragon-7345554/>

But, I suppose using the resources of modern surgery to look like a dragon pales into insignificance compared to the real dragons, an example being:

“Gita Nabavi was elected as one of the leaders of Sweden’s Feminist Initiative party. Nabavi is a supporter of increased migration to Sweden and of zero deportations. “Ideally, I would like to see that we have completely open borders and that no one is deported, we are working in that direction,” Nabavi told Swedish news outlet SVT Nyheter. When asked about what to do with Stockholm’s truck terrorist, who murdered 5 people, she said: “In that case, we should deport anyone who commits crimes and murders, where would they have to go? Just because they are not born here does not mean they are not our responsibility.” In Nabavi’s words criminals and terrorist can stay in the country and shouldn’t be deported, because Sweden is responsible for them....”

This is exactly the mind set which will lead to the self-destruction of the West, and we have the same type’s right here in Australia, populating the universities like blowflies, and contaminating the tender minds of all students.

ON TARGET

22%, 26%, and 35%, respectively,” said the 2004 Israeli study.

According to the researchers, pomegranate exhibited three properties responsible for its effectiveness against atherosclerosis.

First, pomegranate possesses antioxidant properties. It prevents heart disease from overcoming the body’s ability to purge toxins or repair damage.

Second, the fruit was proven to lower systolic blood pressure. It can heal the endothelium lining the inner part of the artery, allowing it to relax and function properly.

Finally, pomegranate has a positive effect on plaque-causing lesions. By reducing cholesterol and lipid peroxides as well as preventing oxidation of low-density lipoprotein, pomegranate makes the lesion smaller and less capable of causing atherosclerosis.

Current medical knowledge diagnoses carotid artery stenosis (the abnormal narrowing of the major blood vessels that supply the brain and head) through the size of the plaque-causing lesion. The second study also suggested that measuring the quantity of cholesterol in the blood does not give an accurate picture of the body’s health. Low-density lipoproteins remained benign unless oxidized. By improving the body’s internal environment, pomegranate reduced the rate at which bad cholesterol got oxidized into plaque, thereby preventing atherosclerosis.

Finally, the study showed that pomegranate juice does not interfere with conventional drugs. In fact, it either complemented or compensated for them”

All in all, one glass of this juice with the evening meal can take the place of a beer or wine, and help the old ticker!
